

House Resolution 774

By: Representatives Loudermilk of the 14th and Burkhalter of the 50th

A RESOLUTION

1 Creating the House Study Committee on Compliance by Local Governments with the Red
2 Light Camera Law; and for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia continues to experience noncompliance by some local 4 governments with the state red light camera law; and

5 WHEREAS, existing state laws have been designed to balance the competing interests 6 between public safety, revenue enhancement, and privacy; and

7 WHEREAS, a thorough and careful study of this issue is needed to develop appropriate 8 legislation for consideration at the 2010 session of the General Assembly.

9 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 10 there is created the House Study Committee on Compliance by Local Governments with the 11 Red Light Camera Law to be composed of five members of the House of Representatives to 12 be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Speaker shall designate 13 a member of the committee as chairperson of the committee. The chairperson shall call all 14 meetings of the committee.

15 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the committee shall undertake a study of the conditions,
16 needs, issues, and problems mentioned above or related thereto and recommend any actions
17 or legislation which the committee deems necessary or appropriate. The committee may 18 conduct up to three such meetings at such places and at such times as it may deem necessary 19 or convenient to enable it to exercise fully and effectively its powers, perform its duties, and 20 accomplish the objectives and purposes of this resolution. The members of the committee 21 shall not receive the allowances authorized for legislative members of interim legislative 22 committees. In the event the committee makes a report of its findings and recommendations, 23 with suggestions for proposed legislation, if any, such report shall be made on or before the 24 convening date of the 2010 session of the General Assembly, on which date the committee 25 shall stand abolished.
