A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Chapter 11 of Title 15 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to 2 juvenile proceedings, so as to provide that the Department of Human Resources shall attempt 3 to locate the adult relatives of a child removed from the custody of his or her parents; to 4 provide for notice; to provide that the court shall order the disclosure of adult relatives of 5 such child; to provide conditions for the placement of a child following a termination order; 6 to provide for findings of fact; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and 7 for other purposes.

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

9 style="text-align:center">SECTION 1.

10 Chapter 11 of Title 15 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to juvenile 11 proceedings, is amended by revising paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of Code Section 12 15-11-55, relating to disposition of deprived child and policy favoring stable placements, as 13 follows:

14 "(2)(~~A~~) Subject to conditions and limitations as the court prescribes, transfer temporary 15 legal custody to any of the persons or entities described in this paragraph. Without 16 limiting the generality of the foregoing, such conditions and limitations shall include 17 a provision that the court shall approve or direct the retransfer of the physical custody 18 of the child back to the parents, guardian, or other custodian either upon the occurrence 19 of specified circumstances or in the discretion of the court. Any such retransfer of 20 physical custody may be made subject to such further conditions and limitations as the 21 court prescribes, including supervision for the protection of the child. The persons or 22 entities to whom or which temporary legal custody may be transferred shall include the 23 following:

24 (~~A~~)(i) Any individual including a putative father who, after study by the probation 25 officer or other person or agency designated by the court, is found by the court to be 26 qualified to receive and care for the child;

27 ~~(B)~~(ii) An agency or other private organization licensed or otherwise authorized by 28 law to receive and provide care for the child;

29 ~~(C)~~(iii) Any public agency authorized by law to receive and provide care for the 30 child; provided, however, that for the purpose of this Code section, the term 'public 31 agency' shall not include the Department of Juvenile Justice; or

32 ~~(D)~~(iv) An individual in another state with or without supervision by an appropriate 33 officer under Code Section 15-11-89.

34 (B) Except for dispositions pursuant to paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of Code Section 35 15-11-66 and Code Section 15-11-67, before transferring temporary legal custody in 36 an order of disposition under this paragraph a reasonably diligent search for within 30 37 days after the removal of a child from the custody of the parent or parents of the child, 38 the department shall exercise due diligence to identify a parent or relative of the child 39 or other persons who have demonstrated an ongoing commitment to the child shall be 40 conducted by the court and the Department of Human Resources. Such search shall be 41 completed within 90 days from the date on which the child was removed from the 42 home, the. All identified adult relatives of the child, subject to exceptions due to family 43 or domestic violence, shall be provided with notice:

44 (i) Specifying that the child has been or is being removed from parental custody;

45 (ii) Explaining the options the relative has to participate in the care and placement of 46 the child and any options that may be lost by failing to respond to the notice;

47 (iii) Describing the process for becoming an approved foster family home and the 48 additional services and supports available for children placed in approved foster 49 homes; and

50 (iv) Describing any financial assistance for which the relative may be eligible.

51 (C) The results of such search and notification shall be documented in writing and filed 52 with the court at by the time of the first review. During such 90 30 day period, the 53 court may order that the child may be placed in the temporary legal custody of the 54 Department of Human Resources or any other appropriate entity or person.

55 (D) The court shall order in its preliminary disposition that the parent or other legal 56 guardian of the child shall provide within ten days the names and addresses of all 57 relatives and other persons who might be considered as possible placements for the 58 child. The parties shall have an ongoing duty to supplement this information during the 59 course of the case at each judicial review or citizen panel review. The court shall 60 include in all published summons a notice that this information must be provided.

61 (E) The Council of Juvenile Court Judges shall be authorized to create uniform rules 62 and forms to implement the provisions of this paragraph; or"

SECTION 2.

64 Said chapter is further amended by revising Code Section 15-11-103, relating to placement 65 of child following termination order, custodial authority, and review of placement, as 66 follows:

67 "15-11-103.

68 ~~(a)(1) If, upon the entering of an order terminating the parental rights of a parent, there is 69 no parent having parental rights, the court shall first attempt to place the child with a person 70 related to the child by blood or marriage or with a member of the child's extended family 71 if such a person is willing and, after study by the probation officer or other person or 72 agency designated by the court, is found by the court to be qualified to receive and care for 73 the child, if the court determines such placement is the most appropriate for and in the best 74 interest of the child. A placement effected under this paragraph shall be conditioned upon 75 the family member who is given permanent custody or who is granted an adoption of the 76 child agreeing to abide by the terms and conditions of the order of the court.~~

77 ~~(2) If no placement of the child is effected under paragraph (1) of this subsection, the 78 court may commit the child to the custody of the Department of Human Resources or to 79 a licensed child-placing agency willing to accept custody for the purpose of placing the 80 child for adoption, if the court determines such placement is the most appropriate for and 81 in the best interest of the child.~~

82 ~~(3) If no placement of the child is effected under paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection, 83 the court may commit the child to a suitable individual on the condition that the person 84 becomes the guardian of the person of the child pursuant to the court's authority under 85 Code Section 15-11-30.1, if the court determines such placement is the most appropriate 86 for and in the best interest of the child.~~

87 ~~(4) If no placement of the child is effected under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of this 88 subsection, the court may commit the child to the custody of the Department of Human 89 Resources or to a licensed child-placing agency willing to accept custody for the purpose 90 of placing the child in a foster home, if the court determines such placement is the most 91 appropriate for and in the best interest of the child.~~

92 ~~(5) If no placement of the child is effected under paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of this 93 subsection, the court may commit the child to the custody of an agency or organization 94 authorized by law to receive and provide care for children which is operated in a manner 95 that provides such care, guidance, and control as would be provided in a family home as 96 defined in the court's order, if the court determines that such placement is the most 97 appropriate for and in the best interest of the child.~~

98 ~~(6) If no placement of the child is effected under paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (5) of this 99 subsection, the court may take other suitable measures for the care and welfare of the~~ 100 ~~child.~~ Upon the entering of an order terminating the parental rights of a parent, a 101 placement may be made only if the court finds that such placement is in the best interest 102 of the child and in accordance with the child's court approved permanency plan created 103 pursuant to Code Section 15-11-58. In determining which placement is in the child's best 104 interest, the court shall enter findings of fact reflecting its consideration of the following:

105 (1) The child's need for a placement that offers the greatest degree of legal permanence 106 and security;
107 (2) The least disruptive placement alternative for the child; 108 (3) The child's sense of attachment and need for continuity of relationships; and 109 (4) Any other factors the court deems relevant to its determination.
110 (b) A placement effected under the provisions of this Code section shall be conditional 111 upon the person who is given permanent custody or who is granted an adoption of the child 112 agreeing to abide by the terms and conditions of the order of the court. ~~A placement may~~ 113 ~~be made under the terms of this Code section only if the court finds that such placement~~
114 ~~is in the best interest of the child.~~ 115 (c) The court shall transmit a copy of every final order terminating the parental rights of 116 a parent to the Office of Adoptions of the Department of Human Resources within 15 days 117 of the filing of such order.
118 (d) The custodian has authority to consent to the adoption of the child, the child's marriage, 119 the child's enlistment in the armed forces of the United States, and surgical and other 120 medical treatment for the child.
121 (e) In those cases in which the court has placed the child pursuant to a permanency plan 122 of adoption, Except in those cases where the child was placed pursuant to paragraph (3) or 123 (5) of subsection (a) of this Code section, if a petition seeking the adoption of the child is 124 not filed within six months after the date of the disposition order, the court shall then, and 125 at least every six months thereafter as long as the child remains unadopted, review the 126 circumstances of the child to determine what efforts have been made to assure that the child 127 will be adopted. The court may then enter such orders as it deems necessary to further the 128 adoption, including but not limited to another placement. ~~In those cases where the child~~ 129 ~~was placed with a guardian of the child's person pursuant to paragraph (3) of subsection (a)~~ 130 ~~of this Code section, the guardian shall report to the court in the same manner and at the~~ 131 ~~same frequency as is required for guardians of the person of minors appointed by the judge~~
132 ~~of the probate court.~~ In those cases where ~~the child was placed pursuant to paragraph (5)~~ 133 ~~of subsection (a) of this Code section~~ parental rights to the child were terminated without 134 the designation of a permanent guardian or adoptive family, the court shall, at least every 135 six months thereafter as long as the child remains subject to the jurisdiction of the court,

136 review the circumstances of the child to determine that placement in the family home-like 137 setting continues to be in the child's best ~~interests~~ interest."

138 SECTION 3.

139 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
