78 (c) Except as provided by subsection (d) of this Code section, a community service officer

114 from further serving as a peace officer, then such disabled community supervision officer 115 shall be entitled to retain his or her division issued badge regardless of the community 116 supervision officer's number of years of service with the division or its predecessor

135 coming into his or her control or possession or being disbursed by him or her. The 136 department shall keep a permanent record of the audit of each community supervision 137 officer's accounts on file. It shall be the duty of the employee of the department conducting 138 the audit to notify the department and the board in writing of any discrepancy of an illegal 139 nature that might result in prosecution. The department shall have the right to interview 140 and make inquiry of certain selected payors or recipients of funds, as it may choose, 141 without notifying the community supervision officer, to carry out the purposes of the audit.
142 The employee who conducts the audit shall be required to give bond in such amount as 143 may be set by the department, in the same manner and for the same purposes as provided 144 under Code Section 42-9A-5 for the bonds of community probation supervisors. The bond

155 agreements, and other transactions entered into before July 1, 2010, by the board which 157 these rights, privileges, entitlements, and duties is impaired or diminished by reason of the 158 transfer of the functions to the department. In all such instances, the department shall be 159 substituted for the board, and the department shall succeed to the rights and duties under 160 such contracts, leases, agreements, and other transactions.

161 (c) All persons employed by the board in capacities which relate to the functions 162 transferred to the department on June 30, 2010, shall, on July 1, 2010, become employees

175 be administratively assigned to the division to serve as a community supervision officer; 176 provided, however, that on July 1, 2012, such person shall become permanently employed 177 by the division as a community supervision officer.

181 supervision officer; provided, however, that on July 1, 2012, such person shall become 182 permanently employed by the division as a community supervision officer.

183 (c) This Code section shall be automatically repealed on July 1, 2010, if an Act becomes 185 allowed for probation officers and parole officers.

510 defendant without bond or may permit ~~his~~ the defendant's release on bond, which bond 511 shall be conditioned on ~~his~~ the defendant's appearance at the hearing and shall be subject 513 considered a part of the sentence of the defendant.

514 (g) The sentencing judge shall not lose jurisdiction over any person placed on probation 515 during the term of the person's probated sentence. The judge is empowered to revoke any 516 or all of the probated sentence, rescind any or all of the sentence, or, in any manner deemed 517 advisable by the judge, modify or change the probated sentence, including ordering the 518 probationer into the sentencing options system, as provided in Article 9 of this chapter, at 519 any time during the period of time prescribed for the probated sentence to run.

520 (h) Notwithstanding any provision of this Code or any rule or regulation to the contrary, 521 if a defendant is placed on probation in a county of a judicial circuit other than the one in

527 (a) For the purposes of this Code section, the term 'special condition of probation or 529 (1) Is expressly imposed as part of the sentence in addition to general conditions of 530 probation and court ordered fines and fees; and 531 (2) Is identified in writing in the sentence as a condition the violation of which authorizes 532 the court to revoke the probation or suspension and require the defendant to serve up to 533 the balance of the sentence in confinement.

534 (b) A court may not revoke any part of any probated or suspended sentence unless the 535 defendant admits the violation as alleged or unless the evidence produced at the revocation 536 hearing establishes by a preponderance of the evidence the violation or violations alleged.

537 (c) At any revocation hearing, upon proof that the defendant has violated any general 538 provision of probation or suspension other than by commission of a new felony offense, 539 the court shall consider the use of alternatives to include community service, intensive 540 probation, diversion centers, probation detention centers, special alternative incarceration, 541 or any other alternative to confinement deemed appropriate by the court or as provided by 542 the state or county. In the event the court determines that the defendant does not meet the 543 criteria for said alternatives, the court may revoke the balance of probation or not more 544 than two years in confinement, whichever is less.

545 (d) If the violation of probation or suspension alleged and proven by a preponderance of 546 the evidence or the defendant's admission is the commission of a felony offense, the court 547 may revoke no more than the lesser of the balance of probation or the maximum time of 548 the sentence authorized to be imposed for the crime constituting the violation of the 549 probation.

550 (e) If the violation of probation or suspension alleged and proven by a preponderance of 551 the evidence or the defendant's admission is the violation of a special condition of 552 probation or suspension of the sentence, the court may revoke the probation or suspension 553 of the sentence and require the defendant to serve the balance or portion of the balance of 554 the original sentence in confinement.

555 (f) The payment of restitution or reparation, costs, or fines ordered by the court may be 556 payable in one lump sum or in periodic payments, as determined by the court after 557 consideration of all the facts and circumstances of the case and of the defendant's ability 558 to pay. Such payments shall, in the discretion of the sentencing judge, be made either to 559 the clerk of the sentencing court or, if the sentencing court is a probate court, state court, 560 or superior court, to the ~~probation~~ community supervision office serving said court.

561 (g) In no event shall ~~an offender~~ a probationer be supervised on probation for more than 562 a total of two years for any one offense or series of offenses arising out of the same

564 subsection (a) of Code Section 17-10-1.

565 42-8-34.2.

566 (a) In the event that a ~~defendant~~ probationer is delinquent in the payment of fines, costs, 569 but shall not be required, to execute a sworn affidavit wherein the amount of arrearage is 570 set out. In addition, the affidavit shall contain a succinct statement as to what efforts the 571 department has made in trying to collect the delinquent amount. The affidavit shall then 572 be submitted to the sentencing court for approval. Upon signature and approval of the 573 court, said arrearage shall then be collectable through issuance of a writ of fieri facias by 574 the clerk of the sentencing court; and the department may enforce such collection through 575 any judicial or other process or procedure which may be used by the holder of a writ of 576 execution arising from a civil action.

577 (b) This Code section provides the state with remedies in addition to all other remedies 578 provided for by law; and nothing in this Code section shall preclude the use of any other 579 or additional remedy in any case.

580 (c) No clerk of any court shall be authorized to require any deposit of cost or any other 581 filing or service fee as a condition to the filing of a garnishment action or other action or 582 proceeding authorized under this Code section. In any such action or proceeding, however, 583 the clerk of the court in which the action is filed shall deduct and retain all proper court 646 42-8-35.1.

647 (a) In addition to any other terms or conditions of probation provided for under this 648 chapter, the trial judge may provide that probationers sentenced for felony offenses

 650 probation as a condition of probation must satisfactorily complete a program of 651 confinement in a 'special alternative incarceration—probation boot camp' unit of the 652 department for a period of 120 days computed from the time of initial confinement in the 653 unit; provided, however, the department may release the defendant upon service of 90 days

 659 prevent him or her from strenuous physical activity, that the ~~individual~~ probationer has no 660 obvious contagious diseases, that the ~~individual~~ probationer is not less than 17 years of age 661 nor more than 30 years of age at the time of sentencing, and that the department has 662 granted provisional approval of the placement of the ~~individual~~ probationer in the 'special 663 alternative incarceration—probation boot camp' unit.

664 (c) In every case where ~~an individual~~ a probationer is sentenced under the terms of this 665 Code section, the sentencing court shall, within its probation order, direct the department 666 to arrange with the sheriff's office in the county of incarceration to have the ~~individual~~ 667 probationer delivered to a designated unit of the department within a specific date not more 668 than 15 days after the issuance of such probation order by the court.

669 (d) At any time during the ~~individual's~~ probationer's confinement in the unit, but at least 670 five days prior to his or her expected date of release, the department ~~will~~ shall certify to the 671 trial court as to whether the ~~individual~~ probationer has satisfactorily completed this 672 condition of probation.

673 (e) Upon the receipt of a satisfactory report of performance in the program from the 760 42-8-35.6.

761 (a) Notwithstanding any other terms or conditions of probation which may be imposed,

767 (b) A court, in addition to imposing any penalty provided by law, when revoking a 768 ~~defendant's~~ probationer's probation for an offense involving family violence as defined by 769 Code Section 19-13-10, or when imposing a protective order against family violence, shall 770 order the ~~defendant~~ probationer to participate in a family violence intervention program

778 (d) Unless the ~~defendant~~ probationer is indigent, the cost of the family violence 779 intervention program as provided by this Code section shall be borne by the ~~defendant~~ 780 probationer. If the ~~defendant~~ probationer is indigent, then the cost of the program shall be 784 ~~probation supervisor~~ community supervision officer to administer or have administered a 785 drug and alcohol screening not less than once every 60 days to any person who is placed 786 on probation and who, as a condition of such probation, is required to undergo regular, 787 random drug and alcohol screenings, provided that the drug and alcohol screenings 788 required by this Code section shall be performed only to the extent that necessary funds 789 therefor are appropriated in the state budget.

790 42-8-36.

791 (a)(1) Any other provision of this article to the contrary notwithstanding, it shall be the 792 duty of a probationer, as a condition of probation, to keep his or her community 793 supervision officer ~~probation supervisor~~ informed as to his or her residence. Upon the 794 recommendation of the ~~probation supervisor~~ community supervision officer, the court 795 may also require, as a condition of probation and under such terms as the court deems 796 advisable, that the probationer keep the ~~probation supervisor~~ community supervision 797 officer informed as to his or her whereabouts. The failure of a probationer to report to 798 his ~~probation supervisor~~ or her community supervision officer as directed or a return of 799 non est inventus or other return to a warrant, for the violation of the terms and conditions 800 of probation, that the probationer cannot be found in the county that appears from the 801 records of the ~~probation supervisor~~ community supervision officer to be the probationer's 802 county of residence shall automatically suspend the running of the probated sentence until 803 the probationer shall personally report to the ~~probation supervisor~~ community supervision 804 officer, is taken into custody in this state, or is otherwise available to the court; and such 805 period of time shall not be included in computing creditable time served on probation or 806 as any part of the time that the probationer was sentenced to serve. The effective date of 807 the tolling of the sentence shall be the date that the community supervision officer returns 808 the warrant showing non est inventus. Any officer authorized by law to issue or serve 809 warrants may return the warrant for the absconded probationer showing non est inventus.
 810 (2) In addition to the provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection, if the ~~probation~~ 811 ~~supervisor~~ community supervision officer submits an affidavit to the court stating that a 812 probationer has absconded and cannot be found, the running of the probated sentence

813 shall be suspended effective on the date such affidavit is submitted to the court and 814 continuing until the probationer shall personally report to the ~~probation supervisor~~ 815 community supervision officer, is taken into custody in this state, or is otherwise 816 available to the court.

817 (b) Any unpaid fines, restitution, or any other moneys owed as a condition of probation 818 shall be due when the probationer is arrested; but, if the entire balance of his or her 819 probation is revoked, all the conditions of probation, including moneys owed, shall be 820 negated by his or her imprisonment. If only part of the balance of the probation is revoked, 821 the probationer shall still be responsible for the full amount of the unpaid fines, restitution, 822 and other moneys upon his or her return to probation after release from imprisonment.

823 42-8-37.

824 (a) Upon the termination of the period of probation, the probationer shall be released from 825 probation and shall not be liable to sentence for the crime for which probation was allowed; 826 provided, however, the foregoing shall not be construed to prohibit the conviction and 827 sentencing of the probationer for the subsequent commission of the same or a similar 828 offense or for the subsequent continuation of the offense for which he or she was 829 previously sentenced. The court may at any time cause the probationer to appear before 830 it to be admonished or commended and, when satisfied that its action would be for the best 831 interests of justice and the welfare of society, may discharge the probationer from further 832 supervision.

833 (b) Upon the request of the chief judge of the court from which ~~said person~~ a probationer 834 was sentenced, the case of each ~~person~~ probationer receiving a probated sentence of more 835 than two years shall be reviewed by the ~~probation supervisor~~ community supervision 836 officer responsible for that case after service of two years on probation, and a written report 837 of the probationer's progress shall be submitted to the sentencing court along with the 838 ~~supervisor's~~ community supervision officer's recommendation as to early termination.
839 Upon the request of the chief judge of the court from which ~~said person~~ such probationer 840 was sentenced, each such case shall be reviewed and a written report submitted annually 841 thereafter, or more often if required, until the termination, expiration, or other disposition 842 of the case.

843 42-8-38.

844 (a) Whenever, within the period of probation, a ~~probation supervisor~~ community 845 supervision officer believes that a probationer under his or her supervision has violated his 846 or her probation in a material respect, ~~he~~ such officer may arrest the probationer without 847 warrant, wherever found, and return ~~him~~ the probationer to the court granting the probation

848 or, if under supervision in a county or judicial circuit other than that of conviction, to a 849 court of equivalent original criminal jurisdiction within the county wherein the probationer 850 resides for purposes of supervision. Any officer authorized by law to issue warrants may 851 issue a warrant for the arrest of the probationer upon the affidavit of one having knowledge 852 of the alleged violation, returnable forthwith before the court in which revocation 853 proceedings are being brought.

854 (b) The court, upon the probationer being brought before it, may commit ~~him~~ the 855 probationer or release ~~him~~ the probationer with or without bail to await further hearing or 856 it may dismiss the charge. If the charge is not dismissed at this time, the court shall give 857 the probationer an opportunity to be heard fully at the earliest possible date on his or her 858 own behalf, in person or by counsel, provided that, if the revocation proceeding is in a 859 court other than the court of the original criminal conviction, the sentencing court shall be 860 given ten days' written notice prior to a hearing on the merits.

861 (c) After the hearing, the court may revoke, modify, or continue the probation. If the 862 probation is revoked, the court may order the execution of the sentence originally imposed 863 or of any portion thereof. In such event, the time that the defendant has served under 864 probation shall be considered as time served and shall be deducted from and considered a 865 part of the time ~~he~~ the probationer was originally sentenced to serve.

866 (d) In cases where the probation is revoked in a county other than the county of original 867 conviction, the clerk of court in the county revoking probation may record the order of 868 revocation in the judge's minute docket, which recordation shall constitute sufficient 869 permanent record of the proceedings in that court. The clerk shall send one copy of the 870 order revoking probation to the department to serve as a temporary commitment and shall 871 send the original order revoking probation and all other papers pertaining thereto to the 872 county of original conviction to be filed with the original records. The clerk of court of the 873 county of original conviction shall then issue a formal commitment to the department.

874 42-8-39.

875 In all criminal cases in which the defendant is found guilty or in which a plea of guilty or 876 of nolo contendere is entered and in which the trial judge after imposing sentence further 877 provides that the execution of the sentence shall be suspended, such provision shall not 878 have the effect of placing the defendant on probation as provided in this article.

879 42-8-40.

880 ~~All reports, files, records, and papers of whatever kind relative to the state-wide probation~~ 881 ~~system are declared to be confidential and shall be available only to the probation system~~
 882 ~~officials and to the judge handling a particular case. They shall not be subject to process~~

883 ~~of subpoena. However, the commissioner may by written order declassify any such records~~ 884 Reserved.

885 42-8-41.

886 All state and local departments, agencies, boards, bureaus, commissions, and committees 887 shall cooperate with the ~~probation officials~~ community supervision officers.

888 42-8-42.

889 ~~The department may provide office space and clerical help wherever needed. The counties~~ 890 ~~of this state shall cooperate in this respect and, wherever possible, shall furnish office space~~ 891 ~~if needed~~ Reserved.

892 42-8-43.

893 Except as otherwise provided by law, any county probation system in existence on 894 February 8, 1956, shall not be affected by the passage of this article, regardless of whether 895 the law under which the system exists is specifically repealed by this article. The personnel 896 of the system shall continue to be appointed and employed under the same procedure as 897 used prior to February 8, 1956, and the system shall be financed under the same method 898 as it was financed prior to February 8, 1956. However, the substantive provisions of this 899 article and Chapter 9A of this title relative to probation shall be followed, and to this end 900 any probation officer of such system shall be deemed to be the same as a ~~probation~~ 901 ~~supervisor~~ community supervision officer, with the ~~probation supervisor~~ community 902 supervision officer assigned by the department serving in a liaison capacity between the 903 county probation system and the department.

 907 ~~of 1980 or any future such census, any provision of Code Section 42-8-43 to the contrary~~
 908 ~~notwithstanding. The department shall participate in the cost of the county probation~~
 909 ~~systems subject to this Code section for fiscal years 1982-83 and 1983-84. The department~~

 912 ~~the state cost for probation for budgetary purposes. For each of the aforesaid fiscal years,~~ 913 ~~the department shall pay to the governing authority of each county maintaining a county~~ 914 ~~probation system subject to this Code section the percentage shown below of the state-wide~~

915 ~~cost per probationer for each probationer being supervised under the respective county~~

 922 ~~The payments to counties provided for in subsection (a) of this Code section shall be made~~ 923 ~~by, or pursuant to the order of, the department in single lump sum payment for each fiscal~~ 925 ~~fiscal year 1983-84 by May 1, 1984. As a condition necessary for a county to qualify for~~ 926 ~~department participation in the cost of the county's probation system, the employees of~~ 927 ~~such county probation systems shall be subject to the supervision, control, and direction~~ 928 ~~of the department.~~

929 ~~(c) Each county probation system subject to the provisions of this Code section shall~~ 930 ~~become a part of the state-wide probation system provided for by this article effective on~~ 931 ~~July 1, 1984, and shall be fully funded from state funds as a part of the state-wide probation~~
 932 ~~system beginning with fiscal year 1984-85. The employees of said county probation~~ 933 ~~systems, at their option, shall become employees of the department on the date said county~~

 941 ~~of this Code section at the same or a greater salary, the change in employment shall not~~ 942 ~~constitute involuntary separation from service or termination of employment within the~~ 943 ~~meaning of any local retirement or pension system of which the employee was a member~~ 944 ~~at the time of such change in employment, and the change in employment shall not entitle~~ 945 ~~the employee to begin receiving any retirement or pension benefit whatsoever under any~~ 946 ~~such local retirement or pension system.~~

947 ~~42-8-43.2.~~

948 ~~(a) This Code section shall apply to county probation systems, including state court adult~~
