13 Chapter 12 of Title 9 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to verdict and 14 judgment, is amended by adding a new article to read as follows:

15 "ARTICLE 7

16 9-12-150.

17 (a) The General Assembly finds that it shall be the public policy of this state to protect its 18 citizens from the application of foreign laws when the application of a foreign law will 19 result in the violation of a right guaranteed by the Constitution of this state or of the United 20 States, including, by way of example and not of limitation, due process, freedom of 21 religion, speech, or press, and the right to keep and bear arms.

22 (b) As used in this Code section, the term 'foreign law' means any law, rule, or legal code
23 or system established and used or applied in a jurisdiction outside of the United States or 24 its territories.

25 (c) A court, administrative agency, or other tribunal shall not enforce a foreign law if 26 doing so would violate a right guaranteed by the Constitution of this state or of the United 27 States.

28 (d) If any contractual provision or agreement provides for the choice of a foreign law to 29 govern its interpretation or the resolution of any claim or dispute between the parties, and 30 if the enforcement or interpretation of the contractual provision or agreement would result
31 in a violation of a right guaranteed by the Constitution of this state or of the United States,
32 the agreement or contractual provision shall be modified or amended to the extent
33 necessary to preserve the constitutional rights of the parties.

34 (e) If any contractual provision or agreement provides for the choice of venue or forum
35 outside of the United States or its territories, and if the enforcement or interpretation of the 36 contract or agreement applying that choice of venue or forum provision would result in a
37 violation of any right guaranteed by the Constitution of this state or of the United States,
38 that contractual provision or agreement shall be interpreted or construed to preserve the 39 constitutional rights of a person against whom enforcement is sought, and a transfer or 40 change of venue or forum pursuant to such provision shall be denied.

41 (f) If a person subject to personal jurisdiction in this state seeks to maintain litigation,
42 administrative, or similarly binding proceedings in this state, and if a court of this state
43 finds that granting a claim of forum non conveniens or a related claim violates or would 44 likely lead to the violation of the constitutional rights of the nonclaimant in the foreign 45 forum with respect to the matter in dispute, such claim shall be denied.

46 (g) Any contractual provision or agreement incapable of being interpreted or construed in 47 order to preserve the constitutional rights of the parties pursuant to the provisions of this 48 Code section shall be null and void.

49 (h) The provisions of this Code section shall apply only to actual or foreseeable violations
50 of the constitutional rights of a person caused by the application of the foreign law.

51 (i) Any court, administrative agency, or other tribunal denying relief requested pursuant 52 to this Code section shall make written findings of fact and conclusions of law in rendering
53 its decision.

55 an arbitration award."

58 after July 1, 2011.

59 SECTION 4.

60 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
