50 SECTION 2.

51 Said chapter is further amended by revising subsection (a) of Code Section 21-2-139, relating 52 to the authorization of nonpartisan elections, as follows:

53 "(a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, the General
 54 Assembly may provide by local Act for the election in nonpartisan elections of candidates 55 to fill the offices of district attorney, solicitor-general, sheriff, tax commissioner, tax 56 receiver, tax collector, clerk of superior court, and county commissioner, county judicial 57 offices, offices of local school boards, and offices of consolidated governments which are 58 filled by the vote of the electors of said county or political subdivision. Except as 59 otherwise provided in this Code section, the procedures to be employed in such nonpartisan 60 elections shall conform as nearly as practicable to the procedures governing nonpartisan
 61 elections as provided in this chapter. Except as otherwise provided in this Code section, 62 the election procedures established by any existing local law which provides for the 63 nonpartisan election of candidates to fill county offices shall conform to the general

64 procedures governing nonpartisan elections as provided in this chapter, and such 65 nonpartisan elections shall be conducted in accordance with the applicable provisions of 66 this chapter, notwithstanding the provisions of any existing local law. For those offices for 67 which the General Assembly, pursuant to this Code section, provided by local Act for 68 election in nonpartisan primaries and elections, such offices shall no longer require 69 nonpartisan primaries. Such officers shall be elected in nonpartisan elections held and 70 conducted in conjunction with the November general election in accordance with this 71 chapter without a prior nonpartisan primary. Nonpartisan elections for municipal offices 72 shall be conducted on the dates provided in the municipal charter."

73

SECTION 3.

74 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
