By: Representatives Scott of the 76th, Jordan of the 77th, Neal of the 75th, Beasley-Teague of the 65th, and Baker of the 78th

A RESOLUTION

1 Honoring Shekema Silveri for being recognized with the Milken Educator Award and 2 inviting her to be recognized by the House of Representatives; and for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, Shekema Silveri is the only teacher in Georgia to receive the Milken Educator
4 Award this year; and

5 WHEREAS, as the winner of a $25,000 Milken Educator Award, Silveri, chair of her 6 school's language arts department, has now been recognized as one of the top teachers in the 7 United States; and

8 WHEREAS, she is married to fellow Clayton County educator William Silveri, who shares 9 her belief that the job is a calling; and

10 WHEREAS, Shekema Silveri believes her classroom has to be a healing place for her 11 students; "I want students who actually appreciate a teacher who loves them," she says. "I 12 would not be in my element in a school where students said, 'I don't need a teacher to love 13 me because I have two parents and a nanny.'"; and

14 WHEREAS, her deep affection for her students at Mount Zion High School in Jonesboro
15 takes many forms, from cautioning them at the start of the weekend, "Come back to me
16 safely. I love you," to daily texts to a teen whose mother died three years ago, "Good 17 morning princess, God loves you, and so do I," to shopping for groceries on Saturday for a 18 needy student; and

19 WHEREAS, she gives her students her cell phone number for homework help at night and 20 regularly engages in online writer's conferences with them via Skype; and 21 WHEREAS, "I am my students," she says. "I grew up in public housing after my 22 grandmother died and I had to go back to live with my mother. I have been homeless with 23 a 5-week-old baby. I knew that I wanted more than what I had seen in my life."; and

24 WHEREAS, the 35-year-old mother of four understands the appeal of more affluent schools
25 in upscale suburbs. Silveri attended one of them under the minority to majority program, 26 M-to-M, which allowed students from less-successful schools in south Fulton to attend 27 higher performing ones in the north side of the county; and

28 WHEREAS, a top student in college and grad school, Silveri is a doctoral candidate at 29 Georgia State University; and

30 WHEREAS, in giving her the award, the Milken Foundation cited her accomplishments in 31 the classroom, noting that 100 percent of her students passed the state End of Course Test 32 for American Literature; and

33 WHEREAS, it is only fitting and proper that Shekema Silveri be honored for being the only 34 Georgia teacher to receive the prestigious Milken Educator Award this year.

35 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 36 the members of this body honor Shekema Silveri for her outstanding accomplishments inside
37 and outside the classroom and invite her to be recognized by the House of Representatives
38 at a date and time designated by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

39 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 40 and directed to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to Shekema Silveri.
