

Senate Resolution 1067

By: Senator Rogers of the 21st

A RESOLUTION

1 Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Georgia so as to provide that the 2 re-creation of a previously existing county which was merged into another county may be 3 accomplished by law, subject to the approval of the voters therein and subject to certain 4 conditions; to provide for the status and effect of the implementing law; to provide for 5 submission of this amendment for ratification or rejection; and for other purposes.

6 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

7 SECTION 1.

8 Article IX, Section I of the Constitution is amended by revising Paragraph II as follows:

9 "Paragraph II. Number of counties limited; county boundaries and county sites; county
 10 consolidation. (a) ~~There~~ Except as otherwise provided in this Paragraph, there shall not 11 be more than 159 counties in this state.

12 (b) The metes and bounds of the several counties and the county sites shall remain as 13 prescribed by law on June 30, 1983, unless changed under the operation of a general law.

14 (c) The General Assembly may provide by law for the consolidation of two or more 15 counties into one or the division of a county and the merger of portions thereof into other 16 counties under such terms and conditions as it may prescribe; but no such consolidation, 17 division, or merger shall become effective unless approved by a majority of the qualified 18 voters voting thereon in each of the counties proposed to be consolidated, divided, or 19 merged.

20 (d)(1) Subparagraphs (b) and (c) of this Paragraph shall not apply with respect to the 21 re-creation of a county which was previously merged with and made a part of another 22 county; and such a re-creation of a previously existing county may be accomplished by 23 law notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (b) and (c) of this Paragraph or any 24 other provision of this Constitution. The boundaries of the re-created county may be the 25 same as those in effect immediately prior to the previous merger or may be generally 26 similar, but not identical as determined in the discretion of the General Assembly in the 27 Act re-creating the county. The law re-creating the county shall contain a definite 28 description of boundaries of the county; may provide transitional provisions for the 29 transfer over time of powers, functions, facilities, and assets and obligations to the 30 county; shall have the force and effect of general law notwithstanding its territorial 31 application; and shall not be preempted by any other general law. The law re-creating the 32 county and any amendments thereto:

33 (A) Shall not be subject to the multiple subject matter prohibition of Article III, 34 Section V, Paragraph III to the extent that such law and amendments may make 35 provisions for the re-created county and for associated governmental entities and may 36 also make provisions for any other county whose territorial limits are affected and for 37 governmental entities associated with such other county or counties;

38 (B) Shall not be subject to the population Act prohibition of Article III, Section VI, 39 Paragraph IV(b) to the extent that such law and amendments may provide for the 40 application or nonapplication of previously existing population Acts to:

41 (i) The re-created county and associated governmental entities;

42 (ii) Any other county or counties whose territorial limits are affected and 43 governmental entities associated with such other county or counties; or

44 (iii) Neither or both of the foregoing; and

45 (C) Shall not be subject to the provisions of Article XI, Section I, Paragraph IV to the 46 extent that such law and amendments may provide for the application or nonapplication 47 of previously existing local constitutional amendments to:

48 (i) The re-created county and associated governmental entities;

49 (ii) Any other county or counties whose territorial limits are affected and 50 governmental entities associated with such other county or counties; or

51 (iii) Neither or both of the foregoing.

52 (2) The re-creation shall not become effective unless approved by a majority of the 53 qualified voters voting thereon in the area of the county to be re-created, as defined in the 54 Act re-creating the county.

55 (3) The superior court of a county re-created under this subparagraph shall be included 56 in the same judicial circuit as the county which previously included the greatest part of 57 the territory of the re-created county, unless otherwise provided by law.

58 (4) The territory within the re-created county shall constitute a new county school 59 district and shall be removed from any other local school district in the manner to be 60 provided by law."

61 SECTION 2.

62 The above proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be published and submitted as 63 provided in Article X, Section I, Paragraph II of the Constitution. The ballot submitting the 64 above proposed amendment shall have written or printed thereon the following:

65 "() YES Shall the Constitution of Georgia be amended to allow the re-creation of a 66 () NO historically existing county which was merged into another county if the 67 voters therein approve it by referendum?"

68 All persons desiring to vote in favor of ratifying the proposed amendment shall vote "Yes."
69 All persons desiring to vote against ratifying the proposed amendment shall vote "No." If 70 such amendment shall be ratified as provided in said Paragraph of the Constitution, it shall 71 become a part of the Constitution of this state.
