"(B) Except for any year or portion of a year during which the provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection (f) of Code Section 34-8-155 apply, when the State-wide Reserve Ratio, as calculated above, is less than 1.7 percent, there shall be an overall increase in the rate, as of the computation date, for each employer whose rate is computed under a rate table in Code Section 34-8-155 in accordance with the following table:

If the State-wide Reserve Ratio:

Equals or Exceeds	But Is Less Than	Overall Increase

 69 computation date, for each employer whose rate is computed under a rate table in Code
 70 Section 34-8-155; provided, however, that if any funds borrowed by the Commissioner 71 from the United States Treasury pursuant to Code Section 34-8-87 are unpaid or if the 72 Unemployment Compensation Fund balance is less than $1 billion, then the 73 Commissioner of Labor shall impose an increase in the overall rate of 50 percent, as of

76 SECTION 3.

77 Said chapter is further amended by revising subsection (d) of Code Section 34-8-193, relating 78 to determination of weekly benefit amount, as follows:

79 "(d)(1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the maximum benefits payable 80 to an individual in a benefit year shall be the lesser of: ~~26 times the weekly amount or~~ 81 (A) Twelve times the weekly benefit amount, if this state's average unemployment rate 82 is at or below 5.49 percent, with an additional weekly amount added for each 0.5 83 percent increment in this state's average unemployment rate above 5.49 percent up to 84 a maximum of 20 times the weekly benefit amount if this state's average unemployment 85 rate equals or exceeds 9 percent; or

86 (B) ~~one-fourth~~ One-fourth of the base period wages.

87 If the amount computed is not a multiple of the weekly benefit amount, the total will be 88 adjusted to the nearest multiple of the weekly benefit amount. The duration of benefits
 89 shall be extended in accordance with Code Section 34-8-197.

90 (2) In addition to and subsequent to payment of all benefits otherwise allowed under 91 paragraph (1) of this subsection and without restriction with respect to an individual's 92 benefit year, for claims filed on or after January 1, 2010, weekly unemployment 93 compensation shall be payable under this subsection to any individual who is 94 unemployed, has exhausted all rights to regular unemployment compensation under the 95 provisions of Article 7 of this chapter, and is enrolled and making satisfactory progress,
 96 as determined by the Commissioner, in a training program approved by the department,
 97 or in a job training program authorized under the Workforce Investment Act of 1998, 98 Public Law 105-220, and not receiving similar stipends or other training allowances for

99 nontraining costs. Each such training program approved by the department or job
 100 training program authorized under the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 shall prepare 101 individuals who have been separated from a declining occupation, as designated by the 102 department from time to time, or who have been involuntarily and indefinitely separated 103 from employment as a result of a permanent reduction of operations at the individual's 104 place of employment, for entry into a high-demand occupation, as designated by the 105 department from time to time. The amount of unemployment compensation payable 106 under this subsection to an individual for a week of unemployment shall be equal to the 107 individual's weekly benefit amount for the individual's most recent benefit year less 108 deductible earnings, if any. The total amount of unemployment compensation payable 109 under this subsection to any individual shall be equal to ~~at least 26~~ 12 times the 110 individual's weekly benefit amount for the individual's most recent benefit year, if this 111 state's average unemployment rate is at or below 5.49 percent, with an additional weekly
 112 amount added for each 0.5 percent increment in this state's average unemployment rate 113 above 5.49 percent up to a maximum of 20 times the weekly benefit amount if this state's 114 average unemployment rate equals or exceeds 9 percent. The provisions of subsection 115 (d) of Code Section 34-8-195 shall apply to eligibility for benefits under this subsection.
 116 Except when the result would be inconsistent with other provisions of this subsection, all 117 other provisions of Article 7 of this chapter shall apply to the administration of the 118 provisions of this subsection.

119 (3) As used in this subsection, the term 'state's average unemployment rate' means the 120 average of the adjusted state-wide unemployment rates as published by the department 121 for the time periods of April 1 through April 30 and October 1 through October 31. The 122 average of the adjusted state-wide unemployment rates for the time period of April 1
 123 through April 30 shall be effective on and after July 1 of each year and shall be effective 124 through December 31. The average of the adjusted state-wide unemployment rates for the 125 time period of October 1 through October 31 shall be effective on and after January 1 of 126 each year and shall be effective through June 30."

127 SECTION 4.

128 Said chapter is further amended by revising subsection (a) of Code Section 34-8-195, relating 129 to determination of eligibility for unemployment benefits generally, eligibility while in 130 training, and deductions and withholdings from compensation, as follows:

131 "(a) An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits for any week only if 132 such unemployed individual shows to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that each of the 133 following conditions has been met:

- 134 (1) The individual has made a claim, has been unemployed or employed less than full 135 time during the regular work week, and has reported his or her deductible earnings in 136 accordance with Code Section 34-8-190;
- 137 (2) The individual has registered for work and has continued to report to an employment
138 office as required by regulations prescribed by the Commissioner. The Commissioner 139 may, by regulation, waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this paragraph for 140 cases or situations in which the Commissioner finds that compliance with the 141 requirements would be oppressive or inconsistent with the purposes of this chapter;
- 142 (3)(A) The individual is able to work, is available for work, is actively seeking work, 143 and is bona fide in the labor market; provided, however, that no individual shall be 144 considered available for work or receive benefits for any period that:
- 145 (i) The individual is away from work on vacation or leave of absence at the 146 individual's own request;
- 147 (ii) The individual is away from work for a vacation period as provided in an 148 employment contract or collective bargaining agreement; or
- 149 (iii) The individual is away from work for a vacation period in the absence of an 150 employment contract or collective bargaining agreement and such vacation period is 151 either pursuant to:
- 152 (I) An established employer custom, practice, or policy as evidenced by the 153 previous year or years; or
- 154 (II) A vacation policy and practice established by the employer by an 155 announcement, made at least 30 days before the beginning of the scheduled period, 156 of a paid vacation plan applicable to the employees who meet the eligibility 157 requirements of the plan.
- 158 (B) In no event shall an employee be held unavailable for work or ineligible for 159 benefits under divisions (ii) and (iii) of subparagraph (A) of this paragraph for any 160 period of more than two weeks in any calendar year when such employee is not paid 161 for such period directly or indirectly by the employer or from a fund to which the 162 employer contributes. The usual eligibility requirements shall apply to individuals laid 163 off due to lack of work or for a purported vacation not meeting the conditions set forth 164 in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph;
- 165 (4) The individual has participated in reemployment services, such as job search 166 assistance services, if the individual was determined to be likely to exhaust regular 167 benefits and to need reemployment services pursuant to a profiling system established by 168 the Commissioner unless the Commissioner determines that:
- 169 (A) Such individual has completed such reemployment services; or

170 (B) There is justifiable cause for such individual's failure to participate in such 171 reemployment services;

172 (5) The individual is willing to work under the same general terms and conditions as 173 existed since the beginning of the base period; ~~and~~

174 (6) The individual has been paid sufficient wages for insured work to qualify for a 175 weekly benefit amount as provided in Code Section 34-8-193; and

176 (7) The individual has served a required waiting period of one week during which no
 177 benefits shall be payable; provided, however, that not more than one week of a waiting 178 period shall be required of any individual in any benefit year in order to establish the 179 individual's eligibility for benefits. Such waiting period shall commence on the first day
 180 of the first week in which the individual first files a claim for benefits. This paragraph 181 shall apply to any claims filed on or after July 1, 2012."

182 SECTION 5.

183 In the event any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, item, sentence, clause, phrase,
 184 or word of this Act is declared or adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remaining 185 portions of this Act shall automatically be repealed upon the entry of such declaration or 186 adjudication and shall not remain of full force and effect after such declaration or 187 adjudication. The General Assembly declares that it would not have enacted the remaining
 188 parts of this Act if it had known that such portion of this Act would be declared or adjudged 189 invalid or unconstitutional.

190 SECTION 6.

191 (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, this Act shall become effective upon 192 its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law without such approval.

193 (b) Section 3 of this Act shall become effective on July 1, 2012.

194 SECTION 7.

195 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
