5 confidentiality; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other 6 purposes.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

8 SECTION 1.

9 Chapter 1 of Title 15 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to general
10 provisions relative to courts, is amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:
11 "15-1-17.

12 (a) As used in this Code section, the term:

15 Code section.

16 (3) 'Trial court' means the state and superior courts.

17 (b) There is created the Georgia Judicial Nominating Commission, which shall provide the 18 Governor with recommendations for appointments for vacancies on the appellate and trial 19 courts within the state.

20 (c) The commission shall consist of no more than 23 members who are residents of this 21 state and shall be selected as follows:

22 (1) Five members appointed by the Governor; and

23 (2) Three persons submitted for appointment by the presidents of each the following

33 additional members shall be appointed by the Governor.

34 (d) No more than one lawyer from the same firm or legal office shall serve on the 35 commission at the same time. No person shall serve on the commission while 36 simultaneously serving as an elected official in any office in local, county, state, or federal 37 government or who holds an office in a political party.

38 (e) The chairperson of the commission shall be designated by the Governor.

39 (f) The terms of the members of the commission shall be four years. If the commission 40 meets on two or more occasions during any calendar year and if during that year a 41 commission member fails to attend at least half of the meetings in which that member is 42 not otherwise disqualified from participating, the term of the member shall automatically 43 be terminated.

44 (g) If a vacancy occurs on the commission by reason of the death, resignation, removal, 45 or disqualification of a member, a successor shall be appointed by that member's 46 appointing authority to serve out the remainder of the term to which the vacancy applies.

47 (h) The commission shall not nominate a person who serves on the commission for 48 appointment to a trial or appellate court during the term for which the person was appointed 49 to the commission.

50 (i) For each vacancy on a trial or appellate court, the commission shall recommend to the 51 Governor, from among those persons who apply for appointment to fill the vacancy, the 52 candidates legally and most fully professionally qualified to fill the vacancy. Each 53 commission member shall encourage qualified candidates from a diversity of backgrounds 54 to apply for judicial appointment.

55 (j) The chairperson of the commission shall request the assistance of the Administrative 56 Office of the Courts in providing training to commission members, notifying the 57 commission when a vacancy occurs, and developing a form or forms for submission by 58 applicants.

59 (k)(1) Upon notification that a vacancy exists or is about to occur in a court to which the 60 commission has responsibility to recommend candidates for appointment, the commission 61 shall seek out qualified applicants from a diversity of backgrounds to fill the vacancy and 62 shall review all applications submitted. The commission shall notify the Georgia Bar
63 Association and other diverse bar associations of the vacancy and shall request

64 recommendations from them. The commission may also seek recommendations from 65 interested citizens and from its own members.

66 (2) The commission shall evaluate each applicant. In the course of its evaluation, the 67 commission may seek information beyond that contained in the materials submitted by 68 an applicant. The commission may obtain pertinent information from knowledgeable 69 persons known to commission members, judges, personal references given by the 70 candidate, criminal justice agencies, or other sources. A criminal justice agency, 71 including the central repository, may release the criminal history record information, 72 including conviction and nonconviction data, to the commission upon request of the 73 chairperson for the purpose of evaluating a candidate.

74 (3) No fewer than ten members shall be present at a voting session of the commission.

75 (4) The commission shall interview each applicant for each vacancy for which it is 76 responsible for recommending candidates. In considering a person's application for 77 appointment to fill a vacancy, the commission shall consider the applicant's integrity, 78 maturity, temperament, diligence, legal knowledge, intellectual ability, professional 79 experience, community service, and any other qualifications that the commission deems 80 important for judicial service, as well as the importance of having a diverse judiciary.

81 (5) No applicant shall be recommended to the Governor for appointment unless by vote 82 of a majority of members present at a voting session of the commission as taken by secret 83 ballot.

84 (6) The commission shall endeavor to recommend at least three qualified candidates for 85 appointment to fill each vacancy. If, despite the commission's best efforts to recruit and 86 identify qualified applicants from a diversity of backgrounds, the commission determines 87 that fewer than three qualified applicants have applied for the vacancy, the commission 88 may recommend fewer than three candidates to fill the vacancy.

89 (7) The commission shall report in writing to the Governor the names of the persons 90 found by the commission to be legally and most fully professionally qualified to fill a 91 vacancy. The names of these persons shall be listed in alphabetical order. The report 92 shall be submitted within 45 days following notification that a vacancy exists or is about 93 to occur. The commission shall release this list to the public concurrently with
