 81 district in cooperation with DeKalb County, the City of Brookhaven, and the City of 82 Dunwoody."

83 SECTION 7.

84 Said Act is further amended by revising Section 14 as follows:

"SECTION 14.

Dissolution.

(a) The district activated under the provisions of this Act may be dissolved. The conditions for such dissolution shall be:

(1) The adoption of a resolution approving of the dissolution of the community improvement district by the governing authority of DeKalb County, the governing authority of the City of Brookhaven, and the governing authority of the City of Dunwoody; and

(2) The written consent to the dissolution of the community improvement district by:

(A) Two-thirds (67 percent) of the owners of real property within the district which are subject to taxes, fees, and assessments levied by the board of the district; and

(B) The owners of real property constituting at least 75 percent by value of all real property within the district which are to be subject to taxes, fees, and assessments levied by the board, and, for this purpose, value shall be determined by the most recent approved county ad valorem tax digest.

The written consent provided for in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph shall be submitted to the DeKalb County Tax Commissioner, who shall certify whether such written consent has been satisfied with respect to the proposed district dissolution.

(b) At the official caucus of electors at which board members are to be elected in the sixth year following creation of the district and every sixth year thereafter, the question shall be put to the electors present to dissolve the community improvement district. Upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the electors present and voting, who shall represent at least 75 percent of the votes cast on the basis of value of all real property within the district, the board shall send a ballot to each owner of real property within the district subject to taxes, fees, and assessments levied by the board for a vote on the dissolution. Upon receipt of ballots consenting to the dissolution from a majority of those real property owners, who shall represent at least 75 percent of the assessed value of said properties, the board shall request dissolution by the governing authority of DeKalb County, the governing authority of the City of Brookhaven, and the governing authority of the City of Dunwoody and shall forward said ballots to the DeKalb County Tax Commissioner for certification.

(c) In the event that successful action is taken pursuant to this section to dissolve the district, the dissolution shall become effective at such time as all debt obligations of the district have been satisfied. Following a successful dissolution action and until the dissolution becomes effective, no new projects may be undertaken, obligations or debts incurred, or property acquired.

120 (d) Upon a successful dissolution action, all noncash assets of the district other than public
121 facilities or land or easements to be used for such public facilities, as described in Section 2
122 of this Act, shall be reduced to cash and, along with all other cash on hand, shall be applied
123 to the repayment of any or all debt obligations of the district. Any cash remaining after all
124 outstanding obligations are satisfied shall be refunded to each property owner in direct
125 proportion to the total amount in taxes, fees, or assessments paid for the property relative
126 to the total revenues paid by all properties in the district.

127 (e) When a dissolution becomes effective, the governing authority of DeKalb County shall 128 take title to all property previously in the ownership of the district and located in the
129 unincorporated portion of the district, the governing authority of the City of Brookhaven
130 shall take title to all property previously in the ownership of the district and located in the 131 incorporated portion of the district located in the City of Brookhaven, and the governing
132 authority of the City of Dunwoody shall take title to all property previously in the 133 ownership of the district and located in the incorporated portion of the district located in 134 the City of Dunwoody. All taxes, fees, and assessments of the district shall cease to be 135 levied and collected.

136 (f) The district may be reactivated in the same manner as an original activation."

137

SECTION 8.

138 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
