

House Resolution 1222

By: Representatives Harbin of the 122nd, Dempsey of the 13th, Sims of the 123rd, Turner of the 21st, and Morris of the 156th

A RESOLUTION

1 Commending Ava Bullard and recognizing February 4, 2014, as Ava's Law Day at the 2 capitol; and for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, Ava Bullard was diagnosed with autism at the age of two; and

4 WHEREAS, Ava was unable to speak, feed herself, play with toys, respond to her name, or 5 make eye contact; and

6 WHEREAS, the developmental pediatrician said Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) was the 7 prescribed treatment, but because it was not available where Ava lived, the doctor suggested 8 Ava be placed in the special education early intervention classroom when she turned three;
9 and

10 WHEREAS, Ava's mother and father decided to pursue the ABA treatment despite their 11 insurance company's exclusion of autism, and Ava started intensive ABA with the South 12 Carolina Early Autism Project; and

13 WHEREAS, she worked hard, sometimes 30 to 40 hours a week, for more than two years
14 and never gave up; Ava learned how to follow directions and use words to communicate; and

15 WHEREAS, today Ava is nine years old and in fourth grade; she is in the top group in a 16 regular education classroom and has tied for the highest math CRCT score in her grade; and

17 WHEREAS, when she grows up, Ava wants to be a fashion designer and own her own store
18 in Lyons, Georgia; and

19 WHEREAS, Ava's parents, Anna and Noah Bullard, know that without these intensive 20 services, Ava would have been a child who would need one-on-one care for the rest of her 21 life; and

22 WHEREAS, Ava has testified for legislative committees and is the namesake for Ava's Law; 23 and

24 WHEREAS, as this magnificent young lady and her family worked tirelessly against 25 numerous obstacles, it is abundantly proper to recognize all of their efforts in the pursuit to 26 raise awareness for autism.

27 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 28 the members of this body commend Ava Bullard on her continued efforts toward the passage
29 of Ava's Law in Georgia in order to benefit others with autism and recognize February 4, 30 2014, as Ava's Law Day at the capitol.

31 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 32 and directed to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to Ava Bullard.
