- 2 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia mourns the loss of one of its most distinguished citizens 3 with the passing of Alice M. Johnson on November 3, 2014; and
- 4 WHEREAS, Alice was born in the Chicago area, but lived in Atlanta, Georgia, for the past 5 30 years and became an integral part of the Atlanta community; and
- 6 WHEREAS, she was a loving and devoted sister to Liz and Gary Johnson and Gene Johnson, 7 Jr.; and
- 8 WHEREAS, she earned a Bachelor of Arts in English and Secondary Education, graduating 9 magna cum laude from Mundelein College, and furthered her education with a Master of 10 Public Administration with departmental honors from Georgia State University; and
- 11 WHEREAS, she was passionate about community organizing and worked with the Brown 12 Lung Association and SEIU in Georgia and North Carolina; and
- 13 WHEREAS, Alice worked in the office of Mayor Andrew Young and most recently created 14 and held the position of Community Affairs Liaison with the Atlanta Police Department; and
- 15 WHEREAS, she was devoted to working with youth and held the position of Executive 16 Director of the Jean Childs Young Institute for Youth Leadership, where the group Kids 4 17 a Change was developed and local youth expressed their ideas; and
- 18 WHEREAS, she continued her advocacy and organizing passions with several different 19 opportunities in Atlanta, working as a consultant on public policy with City of Atlanta Weed 20 and Seed, the Georgia Juvenile Justice Fund/Child Prostitution Prevention Project, and the 21 Georgia Commission on Family Violence-Law Enforcement Training Project; and

22 WHEREAS, she was well known for her legislative lobbying, public speaking, and 23 organizing for gun control/gun safety, and in 1993, she co-founded and began serving as the 24 Executive Director of Georgians for Gun Safety/Educating Georgians for Gun Safety; and

25 WHEREAS, Alice was an advocate for many people and causes in her lifetime, her 26 accomplishments are numerous, and she deeply valued and believed in education, social 27 justice, and collaboration with community members to achieve common goals.

28 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body 29 join in honoring the life and memory of Alice M. Johnson and express their deepest and most 30 sincere regret at her passing.

31 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed
