

House Resolution 730

By: Representative Marin of the 96th

A RESOLUTION

1 Commending Latino media and recognizing March 24, 2015, as Latino Media Day at the 2 state capitol; and for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, amongst the first freedoms granted to us by the United States Constitution is 4 the right to the press, which remains one of the greatest rights that we as an American society 5 ought to labor to protect and support; and

6 WHEREAS, such labor is crucial in ensuring that a free people remains informed about the 7 many things that affect us on a daily basis; and

8 WHEREAS, to ensure that a people remains free to express their concerns and request 9 redress when such redress is necessary for the protection and general well-being of our 10 community, so as to ensure that accountability remains a vanguard of our social construct;
11 and

12 WHEREAS, exemplary and tireless service towards a community ought of right to be 13 recognized and commended; and

14 WHEREAS, Latino media for over three decades has labored intensively to bring 15 information and services to one of the fastest growing communities in our state and has 16 ensured that the Latino community remains informed about current events that affect it daily; 17 and

18 WHEREAS, Latino media has become a beacon within the communities and has become a 19 staple and vehicle for accessibility, opportunity, and community engagement; and

20 WHEREAS, through intensive labor, Latino media has garnished great accolades and awards 21 for the service it continuously renders; and

22 WHEREAS, Latino media has become a powerful bridge in introducing Georgia companies 23 into a new and ever-expanding market, thus creating a greater economic development for our 24 state and local businesses; and

25 WHEREAS, Latino media has taken the initiative to not only be a source of information, but 26 also a beacon of hope and service within our state; and

27 WHEREAS, Latino media has served as a vehicle for opportunity for many in the State of 28 Georgia with a desire for marketing, journalism, entrepreneurship, public relations, sales, 29 design, communications, philanthropy, advocacy, and leadership.

30 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 31 GEORGIA that the members of this body commend Latino media for its unwavering work 32 in ensuring that a people remains informed, that businesses continue to thrive, that 33 organizations receive the support needed to exceed, that citizens are recognized for their 34 labor, that children understand the possibilities that exist through hard work and dedication, 35 and that our society continues to value the right to the press and recognize March 24, 2015,
36 as Latino Media Day at the state capitol.

37 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized
