59 WHEREAS, he was united in love and marriage for more than 64 years to his wife, Carolyn 60 Cunningham Walton, and he was blessed with four remarkable children; and

61 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the extraordinary accomplishments of 62 this distinguished Georgian be appropriately recognized by dedicating a bridge in his 63 memory.

64 PART IV

65 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia continues to mourn the loss of one of its most distinguished 66 citizens with the passing of Mrs. Pauline Spearman Brinkley; and

67 WHEREAS, Mrs. Brinkley was a woman with exceptional values and enduring work ethic, 68 as evidenced by the countless hours she spent inspiring and influencing the children of 69 Faceville and Decatur County, Georgia, through her work with the school lunch room 70 program during and after World War II; and

71 WHEREAS, a widowed mother of five, Mrs. Brinkley sewed clothes for her children out of 72 patterns cut from newspapers and made her children's upbringing and happiness a priority 73 during the most challenging of financial times; and

74 WHEREAS, she gave inspiration to many through her high ideals, morals, and deep concern 75 for her fellow citizens, and the devotion, patience, and understanding she demonstrated to 76 her family and friends were admired by others; and

77 WHEREAS, Mrs. Brinkley was a person of magnanimous strengths with an unimpeachable 78 reputation for integrity, intelligence, fairness, and kindness, and by the example she made 79 of her life, she made this world a better place in which to live; and

80 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the extraordinary accomplishments of 81 this distinguished Georgian be appropriately recognized by dedicating a road in her memory.

82 PART V
