 183 federal laws.

184 (c) A participation agreement may be amended throughout its term for purposes that 185 include, but are not limited to, allowing a participant to increase or decrease the level of 187 Code section and Section 529A of the Internal Revenue Code.

188 (d) If an ABLE account is determined to be abandoned pursuant to rules adopted by the

203 entered into by or on behalf of the trust fund shall not constitute a debt or obligation of 204 the state, and no account contributor shall be entitled to any amounts except for those 205 amounts on deposit in or accrued to the account of such contributor.

206 (2) The trust fund shall continue in existence so long as it holds any funds belonging to 207 an account contributor or otherwise has any obligations to any person or entity until its 208 existence is terminated by law and remaining assets on deposit in the trust fund are 209 returned to account contributors or transferred to the state in accordance with unclaimed 210 property laws.

211 (b) The official location of the trust fund shall be the state treasury, and the facilities of the 212 state treasury shall be used and employed in the administration of the fund, including 213 without limitation the keeping of records, the management of bank accounts and other

225 excess of what may be required for qualified disability expenses.

226 (e) Earnings derived from investment of the contributions shall be considered to be held 227 in trust in the same manner as contributions, except as applied for purposes of the 228 designated beneficiary and for purposes of maintaining and administering the program as 229 provided in this chapter. Amounts on deposit in an ABLE account shall be available for 230 administrative fees and expenses and penalties imposed by the board as delineated in the 231 participation agreement.

232 (f) The assets of the trust fund shall be preserved, invested, and expended solely pursuant 233 to and for the purposes of this chapter and shall not be loaned or otherwise transferred or 234 used by the state for any other purpose.

246 objectives of the corporation, exercising the discretion and care of a prudent person in 247 similar circumstances with similar objectives. The board shall give due consideration to 252 evaluation services, or other such entities as determined by the board to be necessary for 253 the effective and efficient operation of the program. The board shall establish criteria for 254 financial organizations, investment managers, evaluation services, or other such entities to 255 act as contractors or consultants to the board. The board may contract, either directly or 256 through such contractors or consultants, to provide such services as may be a part of the 257 comprehensive investment plan or as may be deemed necessary or proper by the board, 258 including without limitation providing consolidated billing, individual and collective record 259 keeping and accounting, and asset purchase, control, and safekeeping. All contractors and 265 section, the board may sell, assign, transfer, and dispose of any of the securities and

266 investments of the corporation if the sale, assignment, or transfer has the majority approval 267 of the entire board.

268 (e) Members and employees of the board shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 10
269 of Title 45, relating to codes of ethics and conflicts of interest.

270 (f) No account contributor or beneficiary shall directly or indirectly direct the investment 271 of any account funds except as may be permitted under Section 529A of the Internal 272 Revenue Code or other applicable federal laws.

273 (g) The board may approve different investment plans and options to be offered to 274 participants to the extent permitted under Section 529A of the Internal Revenue Code or 275 other applicable federal laws and consistent with the objectives of this chapter, and the 276 board may require the assistance of investment counseling before participation in different 277 options.

278 30-9-11.

279 Notwithstanding any other provision of state law or regulation that requires consideration
280 of the financial circumstances of an applicant for state or federal public assistance or a 281 benefit provided under that law, the agency or entity making the determination of eligibility 282 for such assistance or benefit may not consider the amount in the applicant's ABLE 283 account, including earnings on that amount, and any distribution for qualified disability
284 expenses in determining the applicant's eligibility to receive the amount of the assistance 285 or benefit with respect to the period during which the individual maintains the ABLE 286 account.

287 30-9-12.

288 The board shall prepare or cause to be prepared an annual report setting forth in appropriate 289 detail an accounting of the funds in the trust fund and a description of the financial 290 condition of the corporation at the close of each fiscal year. Such report shall be submitted 291 to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of 292 Representatives. In addition, the board shall make the report available to account

304 program for another state may file a claim with the Georgia ABLE Program for the total
305 amount of medical assistance provided for the designated beneficiary under the Medicaid
306 program after the date of the establishment of the ABLE account, less any premiums paid 307 by or on behalf of the designated beneficiary to a Medicaid buy-in program. Funds in the 308 ABLE account of the deceased designated beneficiary or in an abandoned ABLE account 309 must first be distributed for qualified disability expenses followed by distributions for the 310 Medicaid claim authorized under this subsection. Any remaining amount shall be 311 distributed as provided in the participation agreement.

316 30-9-15.

317 An ABLE account may not be assigned for the benefit of creditors, used as security or 318 collateral for any loan, or otherwise subject to alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, 319 encumbrance, or charge. Except as provided in Code Section 30-9-14, moneys paid into 320 or out of an ABLE account, and the income and assets of such account, are not liable to 321 attachment, levy, garnishment, or legal process in this state in favor of any creditor of or 322 claimant against any designated beneficiary or account contributor.

323 30-9-16.
