House Bill 770
By: Representatives Efstration of the 104th, Welch of the 110th, Houston of the 170th, Atwood of the 179th, Evans of the 42nd, and others

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To amend Code Section 16-5-46 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to trafficking of persons for labor or sexual servitude, so as to provide for and revise defined terms; to change penalty provisions; to remove a potential defense to a charge of trafficking of persons for labor or sexual servitude; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.
Code Section 16-5-46 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to trafficking of persons for labor or sexual servitude, is amended by revising subsections (a) and (f) and by adding a new subsection to read as follows:

“(a) As used in this Code section, the term:

(1) ‘Developmental disability’ shall have the same meaning as set forth in Code Section 37-1-1.

(2) ‘Coercion’ means:

(A) Causing or threatening to cause bodily harm to any person, physically restraining or confining any person, or threatening to physically restrain or confine any person;

(B) Exposing or threatening to expose any fact or information or disseminating or threatening to disseminate any fact or information that would tend to subject a person to criminal or immigration proceedings, hatred, contempt, or ridicule;

(C) Destroying, concealing, removing, confiscating, or possessing any actual or purported passport or other immigration document, or any other actual or purported government identification document, of any person;

(D) Providing a controlled substance, as such term is defined by Code Section 16-13-21, to such person for the purpose of compelling such person to engage in labor or sexual servitude against his or her will; or

H. B. 770
(E) Causing or threatening to cause financial harm to any person or using financial control over any person.

(3) 'Controlled substance' shall have the same meaning as set forth in Code Section 16-13-21.

(2)(A) 'Deception' means:

(A) Creating or confirming another's impression of an existing fact or past event which is false and which the accused knows or believes to be false;

(B) Maintaining the status or condition of a person arising from a pledge by that person of his or her personal services as security for a debt, if the value of those services as reasonably assessed is not applied toward the liquidation of the debt or the length and nature of those services are not respectively limited and defined, or preventing a person from acquiring information pertinent to the disposition of such debt; or

(C) Promising benefits or the performance of services which the accused does not intend to deliver or perform or knows will not be delivered or performed. Evidence of failure to deliver benefits or perform services standing alone shall not be sufficient to authorize a conviction under this Code section.

(2)(B) 'Labor servitude' means work or service of economic or financial value which is performed or provided by another person and is induced or obtained by coercion or deception.

(2)(C) 'Performance' shall have the same meaning as set forth in Code Section 16-12-100.

(2)(D) 'Sexually explicit conduct' shall have the same meaning as set forth in Code Section 16-12-100.

(2)(E) 'Sexual servitude' means:

(A) Any sexually explicit conduct or performance involving sexually explicit conduct for which anything of value is directly or indirectly given, promised to, or received by any person, which conduct is induced or obtained by coercion or deception or which conduct is induced or obtained from a person:

(i) By coercion or deception;

(ii) From an individual who is under the age of 18 years;

(iii) From an individual whom the accused believes to be under the age of 18 years; or

(iv) From an individual who has a developmental disability;

(B) Any sexually explicit conduct or performance involving sexually explicit conduct which is performed or provided by any person, which conduct is induced or obtained by coercion or deception or which conduct is induced or obtained from a person:

(i) By coercion or deception;

(ii) From an individual who is under the age of 18 years;
(iii) From an individual whom the accused believes to be under the age of 18 years; or

(iv) From an individual who has a developmental disability.”

“(f)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, any accused person who commits the offense of trafficking a person for labor or sexual servitude shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ten nor more than 20 years; and a fine not to exceed $100,000.00, or both.

(2) Any accused person who commits the offense of trafficking a person for labor or sexual servitude against a person an individual who is under the age of 18 years shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ten nor more than 20 years; and a fine not to exceed $100,000.00; or both; provided, however, that if the offense is committed against a person an individual under 18 years of age and such person individual under the age of 18 years was coerced or deceived into being trafficked for labor or sexual servitude, the accused person shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than 25 nor more than 50 years or life imprisonment; and a fine not to exceed $100,000.00, or both.”

“(k) The sole fact that an undercover operative or law enforcement officer was involved in the detection and investigation of an offense under this Code section shall not constitute a defense to prosecution under this Code section; provided, however, that Code Section 16-3-25 may still provide an absolute defense.”

SECTION 2.

All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
