| 17 | with the National Instant Criminal Background Check System, is amended by revising              |
| 18 | paragraph (2) of subsection (e) as follows:                                                     |
| 19 | ''(2)(A) The records of the Georgia Crime Information Center shall include information          |
| 20 | as to whether a person has been involuntarily hospitalized. Notwithstanding any other           |
| 21 | provisions of law and in order to carry out the provisions of this Code section and Code        |
| 22 | Section 16-11-172, the Georgia Crime Information Center shall be provided such                  |
| 23 | information and no other mental health information from the involuntary hospitalization         |
| 24 | records of the probate courts concerning persons involuntarily hospitalized after               |
| 25 | March 22, 1995, in a manner agreed upon by the Probate Judges Training Council and              |
| 26 | the Georgia Bureau of Investigation to preserve the confidentiality of patients' rights         |
| 27 | in all other respects. Further, notwithstanding any other provisions of law and in order        |
| 28 | to carry out the provisions of this Code section and Code Section 16-11-172, the center         |
| 29 | shall be provided information as to whether a person has been adjudicated mentally              |
| 30 | incompetent to stand trial or not guilty by reason of insanity at the time of the crime,        |
| 31 | has been involuntarily hospitalized, or both from the records of the clerks of the              |

32 superior courts concerning persons involuntarily hospitalized after March 22, 1995, in 33 a manner agreed upon by The Council of Superior Court Clerks of Georgia and the 34 Georgia Bureau of Investigation to preserve the confidentiality of patients' rights in all 35 other respects. After five years have elapsed from the date that a person's involuntary 36 hospitalization or adjudication information has been received by the Georgia Crime 37 Information Center, the center shall purge its records of such information as soon as 38 practicable and in any event purge such records within 30 days after the expiration of 39 such five-year period pursuant to this Code section, such person may petition the court 40 in which such hospitalization or adjudication proceedings occurred for relief. A copy 41 of such petition for relief shall be served as notice upon the opposing civil party or the prosecuting attorney for the state, as the case may be, or their successors, who appeared 42 43 in the underlying case. Within 30 days of the receipt of such petition for relief, such 44 court shall hold a hearing on such petition for relief. Such prosecuting attorney for the state may represent the interests of the state at such hearing. 45 46 (B) At the hearing provided for under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the court shall receive and consider evidence in a closed proceeding concerning: 47 48 (i) The circumstances which caused the person to be subject to such hospitalization 49 or adjudication; 50 (ii) The person's mental health and criminal history records, if any. The judge of 51 such court may require any such person to sign a waiver authorizing the 52 superintendent of any mental hospital or treatment center to make to the judge a 53 recommendation regarding whether such person is a threat to the safety of himself or 54 herself or others; 55 (iii) The person's reputation, which shall be established through character witness 56 statements, testimony, or other character evidence; and 57 (iv) Changes in the person's condition or circumstances since such hospitalization or 58 adjudication. (C)(i) The judge shall issue an order of his or her decision on the petition for relief 59 60 provided for under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph no later than 30 days after the 61 hearing. 62 (ii) The court shall grant the petition for relief if such court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the person will not likely act in a manner dangerous to himself 63

64or herself or public safety and that granting the relief will not be contrary to the public65interest. A record shall be kept of the hearing; provided, however, that such record66shall remain confidential and be disclosed only to a court or to the parties in the event67of an appeal. Any appeal of the court's ruling on the petition for relief shall be de68novo review.
