

The House Committee on Judiciary offers the following substitute to HB 920:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Article 1 of Chapter 7 of Title 31 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated,
2 relating to regulation of hospitals and related institutions, so as to restrict civil actions against
3 certain parties involved in nursing homes and intermediate care homes; to provide for 4 definitions; to provide for procedure; to provide for insurance or self-insurance trusts as a
5 condition precedent to obtaining or maintaining a permit to operate a nursing home or 6 intermediate care home; to provide for related matters; to provide for an effective date and 7 applicability; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

9 SECTION 1.

10 Article 1 of Chapter 7 of Title 31 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to 11 regulation of hospitals and related institutions, is amended by adding two new Code sections
12 to read as follows:

13 "31-7-3.3.

14 (a) As used in this Code section, the term 'excluded party' means a person or entity that 15 neither performs, has the duty to perform, nor controls the performance of any of the 16 following functions at or on behalf of a nursing home or intermediate care home where 17 alleged injuries occurred:

18 (1) Providing management, operation, or administrative services for such home;

19 (2) Hiring or firing of the administrator, director of nursing, or other staff working at 20 such home;

21 (3) Setting or controlling the budget of such home;

22 (4) Staffing or determining the level of staff at such home;

23 (5) Providing direct care, treatment, or services to the residents of such home;

24 (6) Making decisions regarding the care, treatment, or services provided to residents at 25 such home; or

26 (7) Adopting, implementing, or enforcing the policies and procedures for such home.

27 (b) The mere ownership of an entity shall not, by itself, create the duty to perform the 28 functions listed in subsection (a) of this Code section. This subsection shall not limit a 29 claim against an owner of an entity otherwise authorized by law.

30 (c) An excluded party shall not be named in a civil action that alleges their direct or 31 vicarious liability for the personal injury or death of one or more residents of a nursing 32 home or intermediate care home or a violation of residents' rights at such home under 33 Article 5 of Chapter 8 of this title.

34 (d) Any person or entity named as a defendant in a civil action or arbitration, who claims
35 to be an excluded party, may serve a notice of such claim upon the plaintiff. Such notice
36 shall be sent to counsel for the plaintiff by certified mail, return receipt requested, or, if the 37 plaintiff does not have an attorney, to the plaintiff personally via certified mail, return
38 receipt requested. Such notice shall be served after the discovery period begins under 39 applicable law for the case but not later than 30 days after such discovery period begins.

40 (e) If, after the expiration of 90 days from the date the notice described in subsection (d)
41 of this Code section is received, the plaintiff does not agree to a dismissal without prejudice
42 of such defendant claiming to be an excluded party, and:

43 (1) The court later determines that there is no genuine issue of material fact as to whether 44 such defendant is an excluded party, grants summary judgment to such defendant as to 45 this issue, and such order becomes final after any appeal; or

46 (2) If an arbitrator enters judgment for such defendant as to this issue and determines that 47 there was not a good faith basis in law and fact for the plaintiff's claim that such 48 defendant was not an excluded party and such order becomes final after any appeal,

49 then such finding by an arbitrator or final judgment by a court shall be deemed a finding
50 that the plaintiff's claim against such defendant was substantially frivolous, substantially
51 groundless, or substantially vexatious. Upon such a final judgment or finding, such 52 excluded party shall be entitled to an award of reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees and
53 expenses of litigation upon the filing of a motion. The court or arbitrator shall award only 54 such reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees and expenses of litigation as the court or 55 arbitrator determines were related to the defense of only such excluded party and not to the 56 defense of other defendants in such action, unless otherwise authorized by law. Such 57 attorneys' fees and expenses so awarded shall be assessed against the party asserting such 58 claim, or against such party's attorney, or against both in such manner as is just.

59 (f) In the event that the plaintiff prevails on any claim against a defendant claiming to be 60 an excluded party, such judgment by a court or arbitrator shall be deemed a finding that the 61 contention by such defendant that it was an excluded party was substantially frivolous,
62 substantially groundless, or substantially vexatious. Upon such a final judgment or finding,
63 the plaintiff shall be entitled to an award of reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees and

64 expenses of litigation upon the filing of a motion. The court or arbitrator shall award only
 65 such reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees and expenses of litigation that were incurred
 66 in the pursuit of the action against the defendant claiming to be an excluded party, and the 67 plaintiff shall not be entitled to an award of reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees and 68 expenses of litigation that were incurred in the pursuit of the action against other
 69 defendants, unless otherwise authorized by law. Such attorneys' fees and expenses so 70 awarded shall be assessed against the party asserting such claim, or against such party's 71 attorney, or against both in such manner as is just.

72 (g) The time period set forth in subsection (e) of this Code section may be extended by 73 agreement of the parties or by order of the court; provided, however, that if during such 74 time period any party files a motion to stay the case or a motion to compel arbitration, such
 75 time period shall be extended for 30 days following the date the court rules on such motion;
 76 and provided, further, that if any party files a motion to compel discovery, such period shall
 77 be extended until 30 days following the date that the party complies with the court's order
 78 to produce discovery, whichever is later.

79 (h) A defendant which is a licensee shall not identify an excluded party as a potentially 80 at-fault nonparty for purposes of apportionment under Code Section 51-12-33, unless such 81 nonparty has entered into a settlement agreement with the plaintiff or claimant.

82 31-7-3.4.

83 (a) As used in this Code section, the term 'nursing home claim' means a claim alleging
 84 direct or vicarious liability for the personal injury or death of one or more residents of a
 85 nursing home or intermediate care home or a violation of residents' rights at such home
 86 under Article 5 of Chapter 8 of this title.

87 (b)(1) As a condition precedent to obtaining or maintaining a permit under this article
 88 to operate a nursing home or intermediate care home, a licensee shall carry or be covered
 89 by liability insurance coverages or establish or have established for its benefit a 90 self-insurance trust for a nursing home claim.

91 (2) Failure to maintain such coverage shall result in the department:

92 (A) Revoking such licensee's permit issued pursuant to this article to operate the 93 nursing home or intermediate care home;

94 (B) Denying any application to renew such permit; and

95 (C) Denying any application for a change of ownership of the nursing home or 96 intermediate care home."

97

SECTION 2.

98 This Act shall become effective on July 1, 2016, and shall apply to any claim filed on or after 99 July 1, 2016.

100

SECTION 3.

101 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
