

The Senate Committee on Transportation offered the following substitute to HR 1052:

A RESOLUTION

1 Dedicating certain portions of the state highway system; and for other purposes.

2 PART I

3 WHEREAS, our nation's security continues to rely on patriotic men and women who put 4 their personal lives on hold in order to place themselves in harm's way to protect the 5 freedoms that all United States citizens cherish; and

6 WHEREAS, Corporal Matthew Britten Phillips played a vital role in leadership and 7 demonstrated a deep personal commitment to the welfare of the citizens of Georgia; and 8 WHEREAS, Corporal Phillips was born on April 13, 1981, the beloved son of Michael and 9 Freida Phillips, and attended West Hall High School in Gainesville, Georgia; and

10 WHEREAS, he served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty with the United 11 States Armed Forces, valiantly and courageously protecting his fellow Americans with the 12 173rd Airborne Brigade; and 13 WHEREAS, Corporal Phillips made the ultimate sacrifice during the Battle of Wannat when 14 his unit was ambushed by the Taliban; and 15 WHEREAS, Corporal Phillips embodied the spirit of service, willing to find meaning in 16 something greater than himself, and it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable 17 and distinguished American be recognized appropriately by dedicating an intersection in his 18 memory.

19 PART II

20 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia lost one of its finest citizens and most dedicated law 21 enforcement officers with the tragic passing of Sergeant David Paul "Bubba" Land on March 22 26, 2003; and

23 WHEREAS, Sergeant Land began his career in law enforcement in 1990 as an Atlanta police 24 officer and later went on to join the Stone Mountain Police Department where he worked 25 until 1997 when he was hired by the Forsyth County Sheriff's Office; and 26 WHEREAS, this dedicated law enforcement officer's life was cut short from injuries he 27 received in a motorcycle crash en route to a call for service, just two days after he was 28 promoted to the rank of sergeant; and

29 WHEREAS, Sergeant Land exhibited extraordinary devotion to duty, outstanding loyalty, 30 fine leadership, and meticulous attention to detail in all of his duties.

31 PART III

32 WHEREAS, Ambassador David Adelman is widely recognized by the citizens of this state 33 for the vital role that he plays in leadership and his deep personal commitment to the welfare 34 of the citizens of Georgia; and

35 WHEREAS, Ambassador Adelman earned a bachelor's degree from the University of 36 Georgia, where he later served as a professor for the Honors Program, a master's degree from 37 Georgia State University, and a law degree from Emory University; and

38 WHEREAS, Ambassador Adelman served as an assistant attorney general in Georgia for 39 three years and worked as a partner at the law firm Sutherland, Asbill, and Brennan LLP; and

40 WHEREAS, he diligently and conscientiously devoted his time, talents, and energy to his 41 constituents as a member of the Georgia State Senate for eight years, where he served as 42 Minority Whip and chairman of the Senate Urban Affairs Committee; and

43 WHEREAS, he served as the 15th United States Ambassador to Singapore, and his tenure 44 was characterized by an increase in the robust business relationship between the United 45 States and Southeast Asia; and

46 WHEREAS, Ambassador Adelman led eight trade missions to India, Indonesia, Malaysia, 47 Myanmar, and Vietnam, and his trade mission to Naypyidaw in 2012 was the first American 48 business delegation to the capital of Myanmar; and

49 WHEREAS, he was instrumental in implementing President Barack Obama's "pivot to Asia" 50 initiative, which is a strategic rebalancing of military and soft powered assets toward the 51 region, and during Ambassador Adelman's tenure, the United States agreed to deploy naval 52 vessels to Singapore for the first time; and 53 WHEREAS, Ambassador Adelman launched the United States-Singapore Strategic 54 Partnership Dialogue and established a Third Country Training Program to address health, 55 educational, and environmental issues in Southeast Asia; and 56 WHEREAS, he has been recognized with numerous honors and awards, including the United 57 States Navy Distinguished Public Service Award, which is the highest honor given to 58 non-Navy personnel, and the United States State Department Superior Honor Award for his 59 diplomatic leadership; and

60 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the extraordinary life of this 61 distinguished Georgian be recognized by dedicating a bridge in his honor.

62 PART IV

63 WHEREAS, located at the intersection of State Routes 306 and 369, Hammond's Crossing 64 has long been a hub for the local economy in north Forsyth County; and

65 WHEREAS, located in the middle of the 400 North Opportunity Zone, the area was home 66 to the first general store built around 1897 which was owned and operated by William Henry 67 Hammond; and

68 WHEREAS, the Hammond family continues to conduct business at this intersection, 69 operating Hammond's Fishing Center; and 70 WHEREAS, this philanthropic family also gives back to the community through their 71 establishment of the Thomas Hammond High School Fishing Club Fund, which provides 72 scholarships to new fishing clubs; and

73 WHEREAS, the intersection of State Routes 306 and 369 has been a magnet for growth for 74 north Forsyth County since the late 1880s and it is abundantly fitting and proper that this 75 intersection be dedicated to honor this rich history and tradition.

76 PART V

77 WHEREAS, the name of the area of Coal Mountain in Forsyth County dates as far back as 78 the 1870 federal census; and

79 WHEREAS, located just north of Cumming, the area is home to Coal Mountain Baptist 80 Church and Coal Mountain Elementary School, whose mascot is the Coal Mountain Miner; 81 and

82 WHEREAS, over the years, Coal Mountain has been home to a general merchandise store, 83 Wofford Hatchery, Martin's Store, Coal Mountain Building Supply, Thomas Lumber 84 Company, and the office of Dr. William Bottoms; and

85 WHEREAS, the Coal Mountain crossroads of Highways 9 and 369 have been a point of trade 86 for well over 200 years and it is abundantly fitting and proper that this intersection be 87 dedicated to honor this rich history and tradition.

88 PART VI

89 WHEREAS, on January 31, 2011, the State of Georgia lost one of its most distinguished 90 citizens with the passing of Mr. Spencer Pass; and

91 WHEREAS, Mr. Pass was a member of the Department of Transportation's Highway 92 Emergency Response Operators program and worked diligently to minimize disruptions in 93 Metro Atlanta traffic, provide service patrol, and assist stranded motorists; and 94 WHEREAS, Mr. Pass was fatally injured in the line of duty while rendering aid to a motorist 95 on Interstate 85; and

96 WHEREAS, he was a dedicated husband, loving father, and devoted son whose presence and 97 love continue to be missed by all who had the great fortune of knowing him; and

98 WHEREAS, he was a person of magnanimous strengths with an unimpeachable reputation 99 for integrity, intelligence, fairness, and kindness and, by the example he made of his life, he 100 made this world a better place in which to live; and

101 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 102 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a bridge in his memory.

103 PART VII

104 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia continues to mourn the loss of one of its most distinguished 105 citizens with the passing of Detective Robert Shane Wilson on November 14, 2011; and 106 WHEREAS, he was a beloved son of J. D. Wilson and Gail Hanson; and

107 WHEREAS, Detective Wilson, badge number 1143, had served with the Doraville Police 108 Department for four years; and

109 WHEREAS, he was responding to a SWAT call of a home invasion in Doraville when his 110 vehicle was struck head-on by a drunk driver on I-20 in DeKalb County, succumbing to his 111 injuries at the scene of the crash; and

112 WHEREAS, Detective Wilson was united in love and marriage to Katy Wilson and was 113 blessed with a remarkable son, Liam Wilson; and

114 WHEREAS, a compassionate and generous man, Detective Wilson will long be remembered 115 for his love of family and friendship, and this loyal son, husband, father, and friend will be 116 missed by all who had the great fortune of knowing him; and

118 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a bridge in his memory.

119 PART VIII

120 WHEREAS, Paul Dyer was born on June 28, 1912, in White County and moved with his 121 family to Towns County in 1939, where he was a Master Mason and a valued member of the 122 Towns County Lions Club, Order of the Eastern Star, and Towns County Board of 123 Education; and

124 WHEREAS, Paul was known for his contributions to education as well as his faithfulness 125 to his neighbors during times of illness and mourning, always extending a helping hand to 126 those in need; and

127 WHEREAS, Paul served as District Supervisor for Towns County in the Blue Ridge 128 Mountain Soil and Water Conservation District; and

129 WHEREAS, in 1974, Paul and his wife were chosen by the Farmers Home Administration 130 as Farm Family of the Year in Towns and Union counties for their outstanding family 131 contribution to agriculture and the rural community; and

132 WHEREAS, Paul served as president of the Hiawassee River Watershed Association and 133 operated a 400 acre commercial trout farm along the mountain slopes and river near Cynth
134 Creek Bridge, which was responsible for hatching approximately 600,000 trout eggs annually 135 and 250,000 pounds of trout available for the market; and

136 WHEREAS, Paul and James Dyer were major contributors to Towns County and the 137 surrounding areas of northeast Georgia; and 138 WHEREAS, Paul's six children continue to call Towns County home and are active and 139 contributing members of the community; and

140 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished family 141 be recognized appropriately by dedicating a bridge in their honor.

142 PART IX

143 WHEREAS, Reverend Kenneth H. Coomer, Jr., has demonstrated his commitment to 144 teaching the Gospel, witnessing Christ through word and deed, and addressing the physical, 145 psychological, intellectual, and spiritual needs of others; and 146 WHEREAS, Reverend Coomer is senior pastor of Adairsville Church of God, where his 147 leadership and spiritual guidance have been instrumental in improving and encouraging 148 positive relations between people of diverse races and religions in the community and 149 beyond; and

150 WHEREAS, after Adairsville was struck by an EF3 tornado on January 30, 2013, which 151 resulted in loss of life and property valued in excess of $75 million, Reverend Coomer and 152 Adairsville Church of God coordinated with other local churches and charities to provide 153 shelter, food, clothing, financial assistance, and spiritual and emotional care and support to 154 victims of the tornado within hours of the disaster; and

155 WHEREAS, Reverend Coomer and Adairsville Church of God coordinated and directed the 156 mobilization of thousands of individual volunteers for the recovery efforts that followed the 157 tornado; and

158 WHEREAS, Reverend Coomer and Adairsville Church of God procured the charitable use 159 of more than a dozen pieces of heavy equipment from individuals and corporations to assist 160 in the clean-up efforts; and

161 WHEREAS, Reverend Coomer and Adairsville Church of God, through their hard work and 162 dedication to the Adairsville community, have saved city, county, and state taxpayers 163 millions of dollars in clean-up, recovery, and reconstruction costs; and

164 WHEREAS, he served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty with the United 165 States Marine Corps; and

166 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this enduring example of God's message 167 be recognized by dedicating a road in his honor.

168 PART X

169 WHEREAS, our nation's security continues to rely on patriotic men and women who put 170 their personal lives on hold in order to place themselves in harm's way to protect the 171 freedoms that all United States citizens cherish; and

172 WHEREAS, Lance Corporal Skip Wells demonstrated a deep personal commitment to 173 protecting democracy and a willingness to sacrifice his own personal safety and comfort to 174 ensure the well-being of his fellow man; and

175 WHEREAS, he served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty with the United 176 States Marine Corps, valiantly and courageously protecting his fellow Americans, and was 177 killed during a voluntary assignment at the U.S. Naval Reserve on Amnicola Highway in 178 Chattanooga, Tennessee; and

179 WHEREAS, a man of deep and abiding faith, Lance Corporal Wells was an active member 180 of First Baptist Church in Woodstock, Georgia; and

181 WHEREAS, he gave inspiration to many through his high ideals, morals, and deep concern 182 for his fellow citizens, and the devotion, patience, and understanding he demonstrated to his 183 family and friends were admired by others; and

184 WHEREAS, Lance Corporal Wells was a person of magnanimous strengths with an 185 unimpeachable reputation for integrity, intelligence, fairness, and kindness, and by the 186 example he made of his life, he made this world a better place in which to live; and

187 WHEREAS, a compassionate and generous man, Lance Corporal Wells will long be 188 remembered for his love of family and friendship, and this loyal son, grandson, and friend 189 will be missed by all who had the great fortune of knowing him; and

190 WHEREAS, Lance Corporal Wells embodied the spirit of service, willing to find meaning 191 in something greater than himself, and it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable 192 and distinguished American be recognized appropriately by dedicating a highway in his 193 memory.

194 PART XI

195 WHEREAS, Mr. James Slaton "Jay" Shaw was widely recognized by the citizens of this state 196 for the vital role that he played in leadership and his deep personal commitment to the 197 welfare of the citizens of Georgia; and

198 WHEREAS, Mr. Shaw attended Abraham Baldwin Agriculture College before establishing 199 The Jay Shaw Company, a real estate and insurance agency focused on providing financial 200 support and involvement for communities in and around his hometown of Lakeland, Georgia; 201 and

202 WHEREAS, he diligently and conscientiously devoted his time, talents, and energy to his 203 constituents as a member of the House of Representatives for 17 years as a representative for 204 House District 176 and chairman of the community health subcommittee for the House 205 Committee on Appropriations; and 206 WHEREAS, Mr. Shaw served as mayor of Lakeland for ten years, a position in which his 207 leadership and diplomacy were instrumental in advancing the city's position in the region and 208 preserving Banks Lake as a historic landmark; and 209 WHEREAS, he served on the State Transportation Board from 2010 to 2015 and led the 210 board as chairman in 2013; and

211 WHEREAS, during his time serving this state, Mr. Shaw focused on advancing healthcare 212 in rural areas, improving Georgia's transportation system, and promoting balance and 213 positive reform; and

214 WHEREAS, a man of deep and abiding faith, Mr. Shaw was a trustee and board member of 215 Unity United Methodist Church; and

216 WHEREAS, his legacy lives on through his wife of 45 years, Libby Shaw; his devoted sons 217 and daughters-in-law, Jason, Sam, Katy, and Christa; and his adoring grandchildren, Jenna, 218 Brady, Anne Harvey, and Slaton; and

219 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the extraordinary life of this 220 distinguished Georgian be recognized by dedicating a road in his honor.

221 PART XII

222 WHEREAS, Mr. J. Mark Burkhalter is a distinguished member of the Johns Creek 223 community and a native son of the State of Georgia, born in Atlanta and raised in 224 unincorporated Fulton County, now known as the City of Johns Creek; and 267 WHEREAS, Mr. Poole's life was tragically cut short on June 2, 2013, when he was involved 268 in a fatal vehicle crash; and 269 WHEREAS, Mr. Poole was known to be a kind and generous man by all who had the fortune 270 of encountering him; and

271 WHEREAS, throughout his life, he continuously demonstrated a deep concern and 272 compassion for others, going above and beyond to ensure the happiness, safety, and care for 273 both friends and strangers; and 274 WHEREAS, an avid outdoorsman, Mr. Poole was passionate about hunting and fishing and 275 spent countless hours during his youth at Buck Creek near his family home; and

276 WHEREAS, he gave inspiration to many through his high ideals, morals, and deep concern
277 for his fellow citizens, and the devotion, patience, and understanding he demonstrated to his 278 family and friends were admired by others; and

279 WHEREAS, he was a person of magnanimous strengths with an unimpeachable reputation 280 for integrity, intelligence, fairness, and kindness, and by the example he made of his life, he 281 made this world a better place in which to live; and

282 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 283 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a bridge in his memory.

284 PART XIV

285 WHEREAS, our nation's security continues to rely on patriotic men and women who put 286 their personal lives on hold in order to place themselves in harm's way to protect the 287 freedoms that all United States citizens cherish; and

288 WHEREAS, Mr. Richard John Chambers, Sr., served as a guardian of this nation's freedom 289 and liberty with the United States Air Force; and 290 WHEREAS, Mr. Chambers was a career educator in Banks and Jackson counties, where his 291 work uplifted the lives of countless students; and 292 WHEREAS, he was an avid supporter of community sustainment and county beautification 293 and devoted countless hours of his time, talent, and energy to organizations such as the 294 Banks County Historical Society, Commerce Lions Club, and Habitat for Humanity; and 295 WHEREAS, a community leader, Mr. Chambers played a large role in maintaining the 296 historical integrity of Banks County through the compilation and publishing of the History 297 of Banks County; and 298 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the extraordinary accomplishments of 299 this distinguished Georgian be appropriately recognized by dedicating a bridge in his 300 memory.

301 PART XV

336 William Peyton, Isabelle Grace, Gabrielle Rose, and Houston Randolph; and

337 WHEREAS, he gave inspiration to many through his high ideals, morals, and deep concern
338 for his fellow citizens, and the devotion, patience, and understanding he demonstrated to his 339 family and friends were admired by others; and

340 WHEREAS, he was a person of magnanimous strengths with an unimpeachable reputation 341 for integrity, intelligence, fairness, and kindness, and by the example he made of his life, he 342 made this world a better place in which to live; and

343 WHEREAS, a compassionate and generous man, Mr. Brown will long be remembered for 344 his love of family and friendship, and this loyal gentleman and friend will be missed by all 345 who had the great fortune of knowing him; and

346 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 347 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a bridge in his memory.

348 PART XVII

349 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia continues to mourn the loss of one of its most distinguished 350 citizens with the passing of Mr. Solomon T. "Sol" Dover on February 14, 1999; and

351 WHEREAS, a native of Bartow County, Mr. Dover acquired his family's farm located on 352 Georgia Highway 113 in 1939, and later gifted portions of his land to the county for 353 additions to the highway; and

354 WHEREAS, Mr. Dover was united in love and marriage to Ruby Lee Pell Dover, a union 355 which brought them nine children, all of whom were raised on the family farm and five of 356 whom continue to maintain homes on the farm to date; and

357 WHEREAS, a man of deep and abiding faith, Mr. Dover served as treasurer and Sunday 358 school superintendent for Raccoon Creek Church and was instrumental in helping the church 359 accomplish numerous building additions; and 360 WHEREAS, Mr. Dover was a hard-working, passionate leader of his community, where he 361 donated his time to serve as trustee for the Stilesboro School; and

362 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the extraordinary life of this 363 distinguished Georgian be recognized by dedicating a bridge in his honor.

364 PART XVIII

365 WHEREAS, Mr. Louie Morris was known for his leadership and love of Hart County, 366 Georgia, during the early 1900s; and 371 time as a member of the Hartwell City Council; and 372 WHEREAS, Mr. Morris served on the staff of Georgia Governors Richard Russell, Jr., and 373 Ellis Arnall; and

374 WHEREAS, he began a radio station in Hartwell, WKLY, and was president of the Hartwell 375 Railway Company; and

376 WHEREAS, Mr. Morris contributed unceasing efforts toward the construction of what is 377 now known as the Hartwell Dam, a project that was unrealized at the time of his death on 378 May 10, 1955; and

379 WHEREAS, on October 11, 1940, the Highway Departments of South Carolina and Georgia, 380 in cooperation with the United States Bureau of Public Roads, erected a monument 381 dedicating the bridge over the Savannah River in honor of his unyielding commitment; and

382 WHEREAS, the stone monument dedicating the Louie Morris Bridge was relocated in 1958 383 after the river flooded the bridge and caused damage that necessitated the building of a new 384 bridge; and

385 WHEREAS, an official Georgia dedication sign does not exist at what is known as the Louie 386 Morris Bridge, and it is abundantly fitting and proper that this body recognizes this 387 remarkable and distinguished Georgian by erecting an official Georgia bridge dedication 388 marker.

389 PART XIX

390 WHEREAS, Robert and Ardena Beasley had unimpeachable reputations for integrity,
