65 A court of this state may treat a foreign country as if it were a state for the purpose of 66 applying this article and Articles 2, 3, and 5 of this chapter.

67 29-11-4.

68 (a) A court of this state may communicate with a court in another state concerning a 69 proceeding arising under this chapter. The court may allow the parties to participate in the 108 of the other state in designating an appropriate location for the deposition or testimony.

109 ARTICLE 2

110 29-11-10.

111 In determining under Code Section 29-11-12 and subsection (e) of Code Section 29-11-20 112 whether a respondent has a significant connection with a particular state, the court shall 113 consider:

114 (1) The location of the respondent's family and other persons required to be notified of 115 the guardianship proceeding or conservatorship proceeding;

116 (2) The length of time the respondent at any time was physically present in the state and 117 the duration of any absence;

118 (3) The location of the respondent's property;

119 (4) The extent to which the respondent has ties to the state such as voting registration, 120 state or local tax return filing, vehicle registration, driver's license, social relationship, and 121 receipt of services; and

122 (5) The extent to which the respondent considers or, in the absence of an impairment of 123 mental faculties, would consider himself or herself to have a significant connection with 124 the state.

125 29-11-11.

126 This article provides the exclusive jurisdictional basis for a court of this state to appoint a 127 guardian or issue a conservatorship order for an adult.

128 29-11-12.

129 A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a conservatorship order 130 for a respondent if:

131 (1) This state is the respondent's home state;

132 (2) On the date the petition is filed, this state is a significant-connection state and:

133 (A) The respondent does not have a home state or a court of the respondent's home
 134 state has declined to exercise jurisdiction because this state is a more appropriate forum; 135 or

136 (B) The respondent has a home state, a petition for an appointment or order is not 137 pending in a court of that state or another significant-connection state, and, before the 138 court makes the appointment or issues the order:

139 (i) A petition for an appointment or order is not filed in the respondent's home state;

140 (ii) An objection to the court's jurisdiction is not filed by a person required to be 141 notified of the proceeding; and

142 (iii) The court in this state concludes that it is an appropriate forum under the factors
 143 set forth in Code Section 29-11-15;

144 (3) This state does not have jurisdiction under either paragraph (1) or (2) of this Code
 145 section, the respondent's home state and all significant-connection states have declined
 146 to exercise jurisdiction because this state is the more appropriate forum, and jurisdiction
 147 in this state is consistent with the Constitutions of this state and the United States; or 148 (4) The requirements for special jurisdiction under Code Section 29-11-13 are met.

149 29-11-13.

150 (a) A court of this state lacking jurisdiction under paragraphs (1) through (3) of Code
 151 Section 29-11-12 has special jurisdiction to do any of the following:

152 (1) Appoint a guardian in an emergency for a term not exceeding 90 days for a 153 respondent who is physically present in this state;

154 (2) Issue a conservatorship order with respect to real or tangible personal property 155 located in this state; or

156 (3) Appoint a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated person or protected person for 157 whom a provisional order to transfer the proceeding from another state has been issued 158 under procedures similar to Code Section 29-11-20.

159 (b) If a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency is brought in this state 160 and this state was not the respondent's home state on the date the petition was filed, the 161 court shall dismiss the proceeding at the request of the court of the home state, if any,
162 whether dismissal is requested before or after the emergency appointment.

163 29-11-14.

164 Except as otherwise provided in Code Section 29-11-13, a court that has appointed a 165 guardian or issued a conservatorship order consistent with this chapter shall have exclusive 166 and continuing jurisdiction over the proceeding until it is terminated by the court or the 167 appointment or order expires by its own terms.

168 29-11-15.

169 (a) A court of this state having jurisdiction under Code Section 29-11-12 to appoint a 170 guardian or conservator may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if it determines at any time 171 that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum.

172 (b) If a court of this state declines to exercise its jurisdiction under subsection (a) of this 173 Code section, it shall either dismiss or stay the proceeding. The court may impose any 174 condition the court considers just and proper, including the condition that a petition for the 175 appointment of a guardian or issuance of a conservatorship order be filed promptly in 176 another state.

177 (c) In determining whether it is an appropriate forum, the court shall consider all relevant 178 factors, including:

179 (1) Any expressed preference of the respondent;

180 (2) Whether abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the respondent has occurred or is likely to 181 occur and which state could best protect the respondent from the abuse, neglect, or 182 exploitation;

183 (3) The length of time the respondent was physically present in or was a legal resident 184 of this or another state;

185 (4) The distance of the respondent from the court in each state;

186 (5) The financial circumstances of the respondent's estate;

187 (6) The nature and location of the evidence;

188 (7) The ability of the court in each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the 189 procedures necessary to present evidence;

190 (8) The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues in the proceeding;
191 and

192 (9) If an appointment were made, the court's ability to monitor the conduct of the 193 guardian or conservator.

194 29-11-16.

195 (a) If at any time a court of this state determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a 196 guardian or issue a conservatorship order because of unjustifiable conduct, the court may:

197 (1) Decline to exercise jurisdiction;

198 (2) Exercise jurisdiction for the limited purpose of fashioning an appropriate remedy to 199 ensure the health, safety, and welfare of the respondent or the protection of the 200 respondent's property or prevent a repetition of the unjustifiable conduct, including 201 staying the proceeding until a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of 202 a conservatorship order is filed in a court of another state having jurisdiction; or

203 (3) Continue to exercise jurisdiction after considering:

204 (A) The extent to which the respondent and all persons required to be notified of the 205 proceedings have acquiesced in the exercise of the court's jurisdiction;

206 (B) Whether it is a more appropriate forum than the court of any other state under the 207 factors set forth in subsection (c) of Code Section 29-11-15; and

208 (C) Whether the court of any other state would have jurisdiction under factual
 209 circumstances in substantial conformity with the jurisdictional standards of Code
 210 Section 29-11-12.

211 (b) If a court of this state determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or 212 issue a conservatorship order because a party seeking to invoke its jurisdiction engaged in 213 unjustifiable conduct, it may assess against that party necessary and reasonable expenses,
 214 including attorney's fees, investigative fees, court costs, communication expenses, witness
 215 fees and expenses, and travel expenses. The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses 216 of any kind against this state or a governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of 217 this state unless authorized by law other than this chapter.

218 29-11-17.

219 (a) If a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a conservatorship order 220 is brought in this state and this state was not the respondent's home state on the date the 221 petition was filed, in addition to complying with the notice requirements of this state, 222 notice of the petition must be given to those persons that would be entitled to notice of the 223 petition if a proceeding were brought in the respondent's home state. The notice must be 224 given in the same manner as notice is required to be given in this state.

225 (b) If compliance with the notice requirements under subsection (a) of this Code section
 226 would require personal service on any person outside this state, a court of competent 227 jurisdiction in this state may order that such person be served by registered or certified mail
 228 or statutory overnight delivery, in the manner provided in subsection (e) of Code Section

229 29-9-4, or by a special process server, if the petitioner so requests in the petition or on the 230 court's own motion.

231 (c) If compliance with the notice requirements under subsection (a) of this Code section 232 would require service on any person outside this state that is not sui juris, such person shall 233 be served in a manner provided in subsection (d) of Code Section 29-9-4.

234 29-11-18.

235 Except for a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency or issuance of a 236 conservatorship order limited to property located in this state under paragraph (1) or (2) of 237 subsection (a) of Code Section 29-11-13, if a petition for the appointment of a guardian or 238 issuance of a conservatorship order is filed in this state and in another state and neither 239 petition has been dismissed or withdrawn, the following rules shall apply:

240 (1) If the court in this state has jurisdiction under Code Section 29-11-12, it may proceed 241 with the case unless a court in another state acquires jurisdiction under provisions similar 242 to Code Section 29-11-12 before the appointment or issuance of the order; and

243 (2) If the court in this state does not have jurisdiction under Code Section 29-11-12,
244 whether at the time the petition is filed or at any time before the appointment or issuance 245 of the order, the court shall stay the proceeding and communicate with the court in the 246 other state. If the court in the other state has jurisdiction, the court in this state shall 247 dismiss the petition unless the court in the other state determines that the court in this 248 state is a more appropriate forum.

249 ARTICLE 3

250 29-11-20.

251 (a) A guardian or conservator appointed in this state may petition the court to transfer the 252 guardianship or conservatorship to another state.

253 (b) Notice of a petition under subsection (a) of this Code section shall be given to the 254 persons that would be entitled to notice of a petition in this state for the appointment of a
255 guardian or conservator.

256 (c) On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or conservator, the 257 incapacitated person or protected person, or other person required to be notified of the 258 petition, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subsection (a) of this 259 Code section.

260 (d) The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition to transfer a 261 guardianship and shall direct the guardian to petition for guardianship in the other state if

262 the court is satisfied that the guardianship will be accepted by the court in the other state 263 and the court finds that:

264 (1) The incapacitated person is physically present in or is reasonably expected to move
265 permanently to the other state;

266 (2) An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been made, the 267 objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to the interests of the 268 incapacitated person; and

269 (3) Plans for care and services for the incapacitated person in the other state are 270 reasonable and sufficient.

271 (e) The court shall issue a provisional order granting a petition to transfer a 272 conservatorship and shall direct the conservator to petition for conservatorship in the other 273 state if the court is satisfied that the conservatorship will be accepted by the court of the 274 other state and the court finds that:

275 (1) The protected person is physically present in or is reasonably expected to move 276 permanently to the other state or the protected person has a significant connection to the 277 other state considering the factors in Code Section 29-11-10;

278 (2) An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been made, the 279 objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to the interests of the 280 protected person; and

281 (3) Adequate arrangements will be made for management of the protected person's 282 property.

283 (f) The court shall issue a final order confirming the transfer and terminating the 284 guardianship or conservatorship upon its receipt of:

285 (1) A provisional order accepting the proceeding from the court to which the proceeding
286 is to be transferred which is issued under provisions similar to Code Section 29-11-21;
287 and

288 (2) The documents required to terminate a guardianship or conservatorship in this state.

289 29-11-21.

290 (a) To confirm transfer of a guardianship or conservatorship transferred to this state under 291 provisions similar to Code Section 29-11-20, the guardian or conservator must petition the 292 court in this state to accept the guardianship or conservatorship. The petition must include 293 a certified copy of the other state's provisional order of transfer.

294 (b) Notice of a petition under subsection (a) of this Code section shall be given to those 295 persons that would be entitled to notice if the petition were a petition for the appointment
296 of a guardian or issuance of a conservatorship order in both the transferring state and this

297 state. The notice must be given in the same manner as notice is required to be given in this 298 state.

299 (c) On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or conservator, the 300 incapacitated person or protected person, or other person required to be notified of the 301 proceeding, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subsection (a) of 302 this Code section.

303 (d) The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition filed under 304 subsection (a) of this Code section unless:

305 (1) An objection is made and the objector establishes that transfer of the proceeding 306 would be contrary to the interests of the incapacitated person or protected person; or 307 (2) The guardian or conservator is ineligible for appointment in this state.

308 (e) The court shall issue a final order accepting the proceeding and appointing the guardian 309 or conservator as guardian or conservator in this state upon its receipt from the court from 310 which the proceeding is being transferred of a final order issued under provisions similar 311 to Code Section 29-11-20 transferring the proceeding to this state.

312 (f) Not later than 90 days after issuance of a final order accepting transfer of a 313 guardianship or conservatorship, the court shall determine whether the guardianship or 314 conservatorship needs to be modified to conform to the law of this state.

315 (g) In granting a petition under this Code section, the court shall recognize a guardianship 316 order or conservatorship order from the other state, including the determination of the 317 incapacitated person's or protected person's incapacity and the appointment of the guardian
 318 or conservator.

319 (h) The denial by a court of this state of a petition to accept a guardianship or 320 conservatorship transferred from another state does not affect the ability of the guardian
 321 or conservator to seek appointment as guardian or conservator in this state under Article 2
 322 of Chapter 4 and Article 2 of Chapter 5 of this title if the court has jurisdiction to make an 323 appointment other than by reason of the provisional order of transfer.

324 ARTICLE 4

325 29-11-30.

326 If a guardian has been appointed in another state and a petition for the appointment of a 327 guardian is not pending in this state, the guardian appointed in the other state, after giving 328 notice to the appointing court of an intent to register, may register the guardianship order
 329 in this state by filing as a foreign judgment in a court, in any appropriate county of this 330 state, certified copies of the order and letters of office. The provisions of this Code section

331 shall apply only if the other state has adopted the 'Uniform Adult Guardianship and 332 Conservatorship Proceedings Jurisdiction Act' in substantially the same form.

333 29-11-31.

334 If a conservator has been appointed in another state and a petition for a conservatorship
335 order is not pending in this state, the conservator appointed in the other state, after giving 336 notice to the appointing court of an intent to register, may register the conservatorship order 337 in this state by filing as a foreign judgment in a court of this state, in any county in which 338 property belonging to the protected person is located, certified copies of the order and 339 letters of office and of any bond. The provisions of this Code section shall apply only if 340 the other state has adopted the 'Uniform Adult Guardianship and Conservatorship
341 Proceedings Jurisdiction Act' in substantially the same form.

342 29-11-32.

343 (a) Upon registration of a guardianship order or conservatorship order from another state, 344 the guardian or conservator may exercise in this state all powers authorized in the order of 345 appointment except as prohibited under the laws of this state, including maintaining actions
346 and proceedings in this state and, if the guardian or conservator is not a resident of this 347 state, subject to any conditions imposed upon nonresident parties.

348 (b) A court of this state may grant any relief available under this chapter and other law of 349 this state to enforce a registered order.

350 ARTICLE 5

351 29-11-40.

352 In applying and construing this chapter, consideration must be given to the need to promote 353 uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

354 29-11-41.

355 This chapter modifies, limits, and supersedes the federal Electronic Signatures in Global 356 and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7001, et seq., but does not modify, limit, 357 or supersede Section 101(c) of that act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7001(c), or authorize electronic 358 delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. Section 359 7003(b).

360 29-11-42.

361 (a) This chapter shall apply to guardianship proceedings and conservatorship proceedings
 362 begun on or after July 1, 2016.

363 (b) Articles 1, 3, and 4 of this chapter and Code Sections 29-11-40 and 29-11-41 shall 364 apply to proceedings begun before July 1, 2016, regardless of whether a guardianship order 365 or conservatorship order has been issued."

366 SECTION 2.

367 Said title is further amended by repealing Parts 2 and 3 of Article 9 of Chapter 4, relating,
 368 respectively, to procedure and transfer of guardianship, and designating said parts as 369 reserved.

370 SECTION 3.

371 Said title is further amended by repealing Parts 2 and 3 of Article 13 of Chapter 5, relating 372 to transfer of conservatorship, and designating said parts as reserved.
