59 following the beginning of such person's term of office, and shall hold office until his or 60 her successor's term begins in accordance with this subsection.

61 (e)(1) Unless otherwise provided by a local Act enacted on or after January 1, 2017, any 62 actions taken by a sole commissioner of a county during the period between the date of 63 an election in which the incumbent sole commissioner of such county was defeated and

64 the date that a new sole commissioner elected in such election takes office shall be 65 voidable if such actions are rescinded by the new sole commissioner during the 30 day
66 period beginning on the date when the new sole commissioner elected in such election 67 takes office.

68 (2) Except as provided in paragraph (1) of this subsection, unless otherwise provided by 69 local Act enacted on or after January 1, 2017, all actions taken by a county or municipal 70 governing authority or consolidated government during the period between the date of 71 an election and the date that those members of the governing authority, including a 72 mayor, consolidated government chairperson, county commission chairperson, or chief 73 executive officer of a county, elected in such election take office shall require a 74 unanimous vote of the members of the governing authority or consolidated government.

75 (f) Nothing contained in subsection (b) or (c) of this Code section is intended to affect the 76 vesting of or eligibility for any pension benefits of a public officer.

77 (g)(1) Although disfavored by the General Assembly, a municipal or county governing 78 authority or consolidated government may choose to have the terms of office of members 79 of such governing authority begin on January 1 immediately following the date of such 80 member's election by adopting a resolution or ordinance in accordance with the 81 provisions of this subsection. In such event, the provisions of subsections (b), (c), and 82 (d) of this Code section shall not be applicable to such governing authority or 83 consolidated government and the terms of office of the members of such governing 84 authority or consolidated government shall begin on January 1 immediately following the 85 election of such members.

86 (2) In order to make the choice provided for in paragraph (1) of this subsection, the 87 governing authority or consolidated government shall give notice containing a synopsis 88 of the proposed resolution or ordinance by publishing such notice in the official organ of 89 the county or municipality once a week for three weeks within a period of 60 days 90 immediately preceding its final adoption. The notice shall state that a copy of the 91 proposed resolution or ordinance is on file in the office of the county clerk or the 92 recording officer of the municipal governing authority or consolidated government, as 93 appropriate, and in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county for the 94 purpose of examination and inspection by the public. Such resolution or ordinance shall 95 not become effective unless a public hearing is conducted on the proposed resolution or 96 ordinance and such proposed resolution or ordinance is duly adopted at two regular 97 consecutive meetings of the governing authority or consolidated government, not less 98 than seven nor more than 60 days apart, and until a copy of the resolution or ordinance,
99 a copy of the required notice of publication, and an affidavit of a duly authorized 100 representative of the newspaper in which the notice was published, to the effect that the

101 notice has been published as provided in this subsection, has been filed with the Secretary
102 of State and in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county."

105 leadership training, is amended by revising subsections (c) and (d) of Code Section 36-20-5,
106 relating to the Georgia County Leadership Academy, as follows:

107 "(c) The initial course of training and education required by Code Section 36-20-4 shall 108 be conducted by the academy on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November of 1990
109 and completed before January 1, 1991. Subsequent courses shall be conducted by the 110 academy biennially between the Tuesday after the first Monday in November and before
111 ~~January~~ July 1 of the following year or as otherwise changed by general law. The academy
112 shall have sole responsibility for determining the exact date or dates the course of training 113 and education shall be conducted.

114 (d) The academy shall establish guidelines and procedures to permit any person elected
115 or appointed as a member of a county governing authority after ~~January~~ July 1 of a 116 calendar year or any person who is unable to attend or complete the course of training and 117 education when offered by the academy due to medical disability, providential cause, or 118 any other reason deemed sufficient by the academy; to comply with the requirements of 119 Code Section 36-20-4."

120 SECTION 3.

121 This Act shall become effective upon its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law 122 without such approval.

123 SECTION 4.
