7 popular driver in 2011 and 2012; and

8 WHEREAS, he became the youngest pole winner in Camping World Truck Series history
9 when he claimed the number one starting spot at Bristol Motor Speedway, and he followed 10 up this milestone by becoming the youngest winner in a NASCAR national series during the 11 Truck Series' inaugural trip to Canadian Tire Motorsports Park; and

12 WHEREAS, with five ARCA Racing Series events in his 2013 schedule, Elliott also made
13 headlines in his season opener on June 8 when he led 21 laps on his way to win the ARCA
14 event at Pocono Raceway, becoming the youngest superspeedway winner in series history; 15 and

16 WHEREAS, prior to his 2013 run, he posted a strong season of firsts in the NASCAR K&N
17 Pro Series East, and during the 2012 season, he captured his first career NASCAR victory
18 when he took the checkered flag in the K&N Pro Series East-West combination event at Iowa 19 Speedway; and

20 WHEREAS, in addition to K&N Pro Series East action, Elliott also strengthened his racing 21 résumé in 2012 by adding six ARCA Racing Series events to his schedule in which the 22 young driver never finished outside the top ten and posted three top-five finishes, notably 23 finishing second in his first road course event at New Jersey Motorsports Park; and

24 WHEREAS, adding another first in 2012, Elliott earned his first ARCA career pole at Salem
25 Speedway and concluded 2012 with three top-five finishes and six top-ten finishes in his first 26 season; and

27 WHEREAS, he earned the national champion title in super late models with the Champion 28 Racing Association, a division of ARCA, in November, 2011, and followed that up by 29 winning the prestigious Snowball Derby in Pensacola, Florida, in December, 2011, becoming 30 the youngest winner in the event's history; and

31 WHEREAS, in April, 2011, he was recognized as High School Player of the Week by Sports
32 Illustrated; in December, 2011, he was voted by fans as "NEXT" racer by ESPN the 33 Magazine, which highlighted up-and-coming young athletes that ESPN considers on the cusp
34 of stardom; and in 2012, he was named one of the NASCAR drivers 25 and under to watch 35 by FOXSports.com; and

36 WHEREAS, in 2014, he won the Drivers Championship Title and the Rookie of the Year
37 Title, and at 18 years old, he became the youngest driver ever to win a national title; and

38 WHEREAS, in 2016, he won the Rookie of the Year Title again, and as the rookie driver for 39 Hendrick Motor Sports, took over the famed No. 24 car for the 4-time champion Jeff Gordon 40 and started his inaugural race by winning the pole at the Daytona 500 with a speed of 41 196.314 miles per hour.

42 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
43 commend Chase Elliott on his excellence in the field of NASCAR.

44 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 45 to make appropriate copies of this resolution available for distribution to Chase Elliott.
