

House Resolution 25 (COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTES)

By: Representatives Spencer of the 180th, Jones of the 167th, and Corbett of the 174th

A RESOLUTION

1 Dedicating certain portions of the state highway system; and for other purposes.

2 PART I

3 WHEREAS, Senior Airman Tre Francesco Porfirio was born on October 8, 1988, in 4 Knoxville, Tennessee, and graduated from Camden County High School in 2007; and

5 WHEREAS, Senior Airman Porfirio served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty 6 with the United States Air Force and was halfway through his first six-month deployment in 7 Afghanistan when he was shot three times in the back while his unit was installing 8 communication lines; and

9 WHEREAS, the bullets shattered his stomach and he underwent several surgeries before the 10 doctors at Walter Reed Army Medical Center determined that removal of his pancreas was 11 necessary; and

12 WHEREAS, in a groundbreaking procedure, Senior Airman Porfirio's doctors removed his 13 bullet-ridden pancreas and flew the organ to the University of Miami where doctors 14 harvested islet cells which were then flown back to Walter Reed and transferred into his 15 liver; and

16 WHEREAS, this procedure, considered by many to be a medical miracle, allowed his liver 17 to produce insulin needed to prevent Senior Airman Porfirio from developing a severe case 18 of diabetes; and

19 WHEREAS, exactly one year to the day after sustaining his life-threatening injuries in 20 Afghanistan, Senior Airman Porfirio passed away in Missouri while visiting friends; and

21 WHEREAS, he left behind many who cherish his life and memory, including his son, 22 Landon; father, Karl; and brothers, Damian, Paul, Adam, and T.J.; and

23 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the extraordinary accomplishments of 24 this distinguished Georgian be appropriately recognized by dedicating an intersection in his 25 memory.

PART II

27 WHEREAS, Mr. Emmett R. "Whitey" Lollis has long been recognized for the vital role he 28 played in leadership and his deep personal commitment to the welfare of the citizens of 29 Georgia; and

30 WHEREAS, in 1944 and before the completion of ninth grade, Mr. Lollis dropped out of 31 school to join the United States Marine Corps; and

32 WHEREAS, after his discharge from military service in 1947, Mr. Lollis joined the state 33 highway department as a rodman on a staking/survey party, where he worked for two years 34 before being called back into the service at the start of the Korean Conflict; and 35 WHEREAS, Mr. Lollis returned to the state highway department 14 months later upon his 36 discharge as a Staff Sergeant and attended night school in order to earn his high school 37 diploma; and

38 WHEREAS, he later earned his civil engineering degree, and upon graduation from the 39 Southern Technical Institute, he returned once again to the state highway department to serve 40 as an engineer on road and bridge projects; and

41 WHEREAS, during his career with the department, Mr. Lollis was responsible for bridge 42 inspection throughout the Thomaston district, ensuring safety for the traveling public; and

43 WHEREAS, upon his retirement from the department, Mr. Lollis established Lollis-Priest
44 and Associates which performed land surveying, site design planning, and engineering 45 consultation services; and

46 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 47 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a bridge in his honor.

PART III

49 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia lost one of its finest citizens and most dedicated law 50 enforcement officers with the tragic passing of Officer Henry Tillman Davis; and

51 WHEREAS, a native of Lumpkin County, Georgia, Officer Davis graduated from Lumpkin 52 County High School and served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty with the 53 United States Army as a military policeman from August 31, 1963, to June 28, 1966; and

54 WHEREAS, Officer Davis began his career with the Gainesville Police Department on June 55 28, 1969; and

56 WHEREAS, his life was tragically cut short in September of 1972 after his patrol vehicle
57 was struck from behind and forced into oncoming traffic while traveling on Dawsonville 58 Highway in Gainesville; and

59 WHEREAS, he exhibited extraordinary devotion to duty, outstanding loyalty, fine 60 leadership, and meticulous attention to detail in all his duties; and

61 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 62 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating an intersection in his honor.

63 PART IV

64 WHEREAS, Mr. Henry Grady Layson, Sr., was born on December 1, 1891, in Jasper 65 County, Georgia; and

66 WHEREAS, an adept farmer, Mr. Layson operated a cotton gin and several saw mills 67 throughout Georgia, South Carolina, and Florida; and

68 WHEREAS, because Mr. Layson did not obtain a formal education of his own, he was driven 69 to help others in his community uplift their lives through scholarship; and

70 WHEREAS, he built a schoolhouse in Putnam County named Henderson Grove and hired 71 the school's first teacher; and

72 WHEREAS, Mr. Layson also established a school which allowed teachers to live on site and 73 hired the first agriculture teacher for Jasper County; and

74 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 75 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a road in his honor.

76 PART V

77 WHEREAS, Mr. Otis Ray Redding, Jr., was a singer, song writer, record producer, arranger, 78 and talent scout who has been called one of the 'Kings of Soul' for his amazing talent as a 79 soul music and rhythm and blues artist; and

80 WHEREAS, he was born in Dawson, Georgia, on September 9, 1941, the beloved son of 81 Fannie Mae Redding and Otis Redding, Sr.; and

82 WHEREAS, at the age of 15, Mr. Redding quit school to help financially support his family 83 after his father contracted tuberculosis, working as a well digger, gas station attendant, and 84 musician; and

85 WHEREAS, he performed in talent shows for prize money and with Little Richard's backing 86 band, the Upsetters; and

87 WHEREAS, Mr. Redding's first single, Arms of Mine, hit the musical charts in 1962 and he 88 was famous for such other hits as Respect and Try a Little Tenderness; and

89 WHEREAS, after his untimely and tragic passing in an airplane crash, Mr. Redding's iconic 90 (Sittin' on) The Dock of the Bay became the first posthumous number one record on both the 91 Billboard Hot 100 and R & B charts; and

92 WHEREAS, he was recognized with numerous posthumous honors and accolades, including 93 a Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award and induction into the Georgia Music Hall of Fame, 94 the Songwriters Hall of Fame, and the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame; and

95 WHEREAS, in 1993, the United States Post Office recognized Mr. Redding's enduring 96 musical influence and talent by issuing a commemorative stamp in his honor; and

97 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished
98 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a bridge in his honor.

99 PART VI

100 WHEREAS, our nation's security continues to rely on patriotic men and women who put 101 their personal lives on hold in order to place themselves in harm's way to protect the 102 freedoms that all United States citizens cherish; and

103 WHEREAS, United States military veterans have demonstrated a deep personal commitment 104 to protecting democracy and a willingness to sacrifice their own personal safety and comfort 105 to ensure the well-being of their fellow man; and

106 WHEREAS, they have served as guardians of this nation's freedom and liberty and have 107 diligently and conscientiously undergone intensive and rigorous training in order to serve 108 their country with honor and distinction during times of war and peace; and

109 WHEREAS, it is important that veterans are thanked for their selfless service to this nation 110 and honored for their unyielding commitment to protecting the people and ideals of the 111 United States; and

112 WHEREAS, veterans embody the spirit of service, willing to find meaning in something 113 greater than themselves, and it is abundantly fitting and proper that the outstanding 114 accomplishments and sacrifices of these remarkable and distinguished Americans be honored 115 appropriately.

116 PART VII

117 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia lost one of its finest citizens and most dedicated law
118 enforcement officers with the tragic passing of Corporal Richard "Ricky" Allen Hall on 119 September 16, 2015; and

120 WHEREAS, Corporal Hall served as a member of the Chatham County Sheriff's Department 121 and his life was tragically cut short after an automobile accident in Bryan County; and

122 WHEREAS, a native of Savannah, Corporal Hall graduated from Tompkins High School, 123 attended South University, and served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty with 124 the United States Marine Corps; and

125 WHEREAS, Corporal Hall dedicated 14 years to protecting and serving the people of 126 Chatham County with the Sheriff's Department; and

127 WHEREAS, he exhibited extraordinary devotion to duty, outstanding loyalty, fine
128 leadership, and meticulous attention to detail in all his duties; and

129 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 130 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a bridge in his honor.

131 PART VIII

132 WHEREAS, First Sergeant Luke J. Mercardante was born on May 10, 1972, in San Diego, 133 California, and moved to Athens, Georgia, at the age of four; and

134 WHEREAS, First Sergeant Mercardante served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and 135 liberty with the United States Marine Corps and his life was tragically cut short on April 15, 136 2008, when he was killed in Afghanistan by a roadside bomb near the Pakistani border; and

137 WHEREAS, as a small child, First Sergeant Mercardante received an injury to his right hand 138 that resulted in some limited range of usage but that never prevented him from working hard 139 to achieve his dream of serving his country in the military; and

140 WHEREAS, after spending two years at the University of Georgia, First Sergeant 141 Mercardante enlisted on April 22, 1992, and despite being initially rejected as a recruit for 142 the Marine Corps due to his hand limitations, he requested to be reconsidered and went on 143 to graduate boot camp as the Honor Graduate; and

144 WHEREAS, he went on to serve deployments in Okinawa, Hawaii, Tokyo, Spain, and 145 throughout the continental United States; and

146 WHEREAS, First Sergeant Mercardante will long be remembered for his love of family and 147 friendship, and this loyal father, son, and friend will be missed by all who had the great 148 fortune of knowing him; and

149 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 150 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a bridge in his honor.

151 PART IX

152 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia lost one of its finest citizens and most dedicated law 153 enforcement officers with the tragic passing of Deputy Kyle W. Dinkheller on 154 January 12, 1998; and

155 WHEREAS, Deputy Dinkheller served as a member of the Laurens County Sheriff's Office 156 and his life was tragically cut short after he was murdered during a traffic stop; and

157 WHEREAS, he exhibited extraordinary devotion to duty, outstanding loyalty, fine
158 leadership, and meticulous attention to detail in all his duties; and

159 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 160 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating an interchange in his honor.
