

House Resolution 922

By: Representative Ralston of the 7th

A RESOLUTION

- 1 Recognizing and commending Brady Weaver on his achievements; and for other purposes.
- 2 WHEREAS, Brady Weaver wrote and illustrated a book at the age of eight entitled If 3 Animals Could Talk, What Would They Say to Me?, which represents an exceptional 4 accomplishment given his young age; and
- 5 WHEREAS, Brady's book is available at Barnes and Noble, Books-A-Million, and through 6 Amazon; and
- 7 WHEREAS, his book is intended to be a teaching guide for early readers and contains 8 writing and illustrations that may encourage other young children to use their imaginations 9 to create their own book; and
- 10 WHEREAS, his book might also inspire children to have the confidence to set and complete 11 a goal; and
- 12 WHEREAS, Brady visited the Governor's Mansion on November 15th, where he gave a copy 13 of his book to First Lady Sandra Deal; and
- 14 WHEREAS, Brady lives with his grandparents, Mr. Randy Weaver and Mrs. Laretta
15 Weaver, and is currently in the second grade at Mountain View Elementary School in Ellijay, 16 Georgia; and
- 17 WHEREAS, he was recently chosen as a second grade PAWS student, and he one day hopes 18 to be a basketball player and an inventor; and
- 19 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the outstanding accomplishments of this 20 young citizen of Georgia be appropriately recognized.

21 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 22 the members of this body recognize and commend Brady Weaver on his achievements.

23 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized
24 and directed to make appropriate copies of this resolution available for distribution to Brady 25 Weaver.
