

Senate Resolution 826

By: Senators Rhett of the 33rd, James of the 35th, Williams of the 39th, Sims of the 12th, Harbison of the 15th and others

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing February 22, 2018, as National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc., Day at the 2 state capitol; and for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, the mission of the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc., (NCBW) is 4 to advocate on behalf of black women and girls in order to promote leadership development 5 and gender equity in the areas of health, education, and economic empowerment; and

6 WHEREAS, their vision is for black women and girls to live in a world where 7 socio-economic inequity does not exist; and

8 WHEREAS, NCBW believes in gender equity, inclusion, respect, racial and social justice, 9 integrity and accountability, economic empowerment, and collaboration; and

10 WHEREAS, the current agenda for the NCBW is to focus on health, education, economic 11 empowerment, strategic alliances, and civic engagement; and

12 WHEREAS, NCBW wishes to promote the awareness of black culture, to develop the 13 potential within its members for effective leadership and participation in civic affairs, to take 14 action on specific issues of national and international importance, to cooperate with other 15 persons and organizations in order to achieve mutual goals, and to foster principles of equal 16 rights and opportunities; and

17 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the efforts of this exemplary organization
18 toward promoting equality among Georgia's citizens be appropriately recognized.

19 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body 20 recognize February 22, 2018, as National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc., Day at the 21 state capitol.

22 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 23 to make appropriate copies of this resolution available for distribution to the public and the 24 press.
