8 averages, and fewer school absences; and

9 WHEREAS, afterschool programs support working families and build stronger communities 10 by ensuring that children are safe and productive after the regular school day ends and by

12 young people; and

13 WHEREAS, according to a 2014 study from the Afterschool Alliance, approximately 16

16 community; and

17 WHEREAS, more than 315,000 of Georgia's youth are alone and unsupervised between the 18 hours of 3 P.M. and 6 P.M., the peak hours for juvenile crime and experimentation with 19 drugs, alcohol, cigarettes, and sex; and

20 WHEREAS, Georgia is committed to investing in the health and safety of all young people 21 by providing expanded learning opportunities that will help to close the achievement gap and 22 to prepare young people to compete in the global economy; and

23 WHEREAS, Georgia state agencies, including the Departments of Education, Human 24 Services, Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities, Early Care and Learning, and 25 Public Health as well as the Georgia Alliances of YMCAs and Boys and Girls Clubs play a 26 critical role in supporting Georgia's youth through quality afterschool and summer 27 programming; and

28 WHEREAS, the Georgia Statewide Afterschool Network, a public-private collaborative, has 29 convened these organizations and afterschool providers from across the state for the 30 inaugural Afterschool Day at the state capitol in order to encourage lawmakers to recognize
