By: Representatives Alexander of the 66th, Bruce of the 61st, Beasley-Teague of the 65th, and Boddie of the 62nd

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing and congratulating Taurus Madric-Morris for being a recipient of the 2018
2 Nikki T. Randall Servant Leader award; and for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, Taurus Madric-Morris has diligently and conscientiously devoted innumerable 4 hours of her time, talents, and energy toward the betterment of her community and state as 5 evidenced dramatically by her superlative service as co-owner of the Douglasville Boxing 6 Club and as president of A Chance to Win, Inc., a local nonprofit organization; and

7 WHEREAS, her passion is mentoring and offering programs to teenagers and exposing youth 8 to experiences outside of their normal environments, including attending political 9 conferences and visiting the King Center in order to reveal the civil rights history that has 10 given youth their privileges and opportunities; and

11 WHEREAS, she graduated from West Georgia Technical College with an associate's degree 12 in marketing management and continued her education with a bachelor's degree in 13 interdisciplinary studies for business and accounting and a master's in marketing and project 14 management; and

15 WHEREAS, Taurus Madric-Morris spends countless hours serving with the Gloves Not 16 Drugs program, where she offers free events to the community such as boxing classes for 17 youth, motivational speakers, and talent shows for teenagers, and is head of the Girls Fight 18 Smart program, which teaches girls to fight smart inside and outside of the ring; and

19 WHEREAS, she has mentored several teenagers who are either attending college or have 20 already graduated; holds teen nights, which include games, activities, and prizes to keep 21 teenagers busy; and also offers entrepreneurship sessions, which teach teens how to create 22 business plans and marketing materials and how to build clientele; and

23 WHEREAS, she recently volunteered her time as the Black History speaker for the Douglas 24 County College and Career Institute, where she spoke to high school students on the 25 importance of obtaining valuable skills, avoiding distractions, and finding a purpose; and

26 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the extraordinary achievements of this 27 exemplary Georgian be appropriately recognized.

28 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 29 the members of this body recognize and congratulate Taurus Madric-Morris for being a 30 recipient of the Legislative Women's Caucus Nikki T. Randall Servant Leader award for 31 2018.

32 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 33 and directed to make an appropriate copy of this resolution available for distribution to 34 Taurus Madric-Morris.
