

House Resolution 135

By: Representatives Efstoration of the 104th, Trammell of the 132nd, Ballinger of the 23rd, Cooper of the 43rd, and Smith of the 70th

A RESOLUTION

- 1 Urging Congress to eliminate the five-month waiting period for disability insurance benefits
2 for individuals living with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS); and for other purposes.
- 3 WHEREAS, amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) is commonly known as Lou Gehrig's 4 disease; and
- 5 WHEREAS, ALS is a progressive and fatal neuromuscular disease; and
- 6 WHEREAS, the average time to diagnosis is more than 12 months; and
- 7 WHEREAS, the majority of ALS patients die within two to five years of receiving a 8 diagnosis; and
- 9 WHEREAS, approximately 6,000 people in the United States are diagnosed with ALS each 10 year; and
- 11 WHEREAS, the incidence of ALS is two per 100,000 people, and it is estimated that more 12 than 20,000 Americans may be living with ALS at any given time; and
- 13 WHEREAS, ALS occurs through the world with no racial, ethnic, or socioeconomic 14 boundaries and can affect anyone; and
- 15 WHEREAS, military veterans are approximately twice as likely to develop ALS; and
- 16 WHEREAS, the onset of ALS often involves muscle weakness or stiffness as early 17 symptoms. Progression of weakness, wasting, and paralysis of the muscles of the limbs and 18 trunk, as well as those that control vital functions such as speech, swallowing, and later 19 breathing, generally follows; and

20 WHEREAS, there can be significant costs for medical care, equipment, and home health 21 caregiving later in the disease; and

22 WHEREAS, under current law, individuals must wait five months after becoming disabled 23 before their Social Security Disability Insurance benefit payments can begin; and

24 WHEREAS, last year, Congress considered legislation that would eliminate the five-month
25 waiting period for disability insurance benefits for individuals with ALS, but it unfortunately 26 did not become law; and

27 WHEREAS, this body recognizes that persons living with ALS cannot wait for benefits.

28 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 29 this body urges Congress to eliminate the five-month waiting period for disability insurance 30 benefits for individuals living with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS).

31 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 32 and directed to make appropriate copies of this resolution available for distribution to the 33 President of the United States Senate, to the Speaker of the United States House of 34 Representatives, and to each member of the Congressional delegation from this state.
