32 SECTION 2.

33 Said article is further amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

34 "47-2-51.1.

35 (a) For the purposes of this Code section, the term:

36 (1) '401(k) plan' means the State of Georgia Employees' Qualified Trust Deferred
 37 Compensation Plan.

38 (2) '457(b) plan' means the State of Georgia Employees' Deferred Compensation Plan.

39 (3) 'Contingent annuitant' means an individual designated by an eligible retired member
 40 to receive survivor's benefits from an SGLI annuity.

41 (4) 'Eligible retired member' means an individual in retirement, whether retirement is 42 service based or due to disability, who has at least ten years of creditable service or five
 43 years of creditable service if such retired member became a member before July 1, 1968,
 44 provided that such individual has not elected a partial lump sum distribution under option
 45 six pursuant to subsection (e.4) of Code Section 47-2-121.

46 (5) 'SGLI annuity' means a Supplemental Guaranteed Lifetime Income annuity
 47 established by the board of trustees pursuant to this Code section.

48 (b) On or after January 1, 2021, subject to the approval of the board of trustees and such 49 conditions as it may prescribe and the applicable requirements of the federal Internal
 50 Revenue Code, the 401(k) plan, the 457(b) plan, and the provisions of this Code section,
 51 an eligible retired member may transfer some or all account funds from his or her 401(k)
 52 plan or 457(b) plan into an account under the Employees' Retirement System of Georgia
 53 in order to purchase an SGLI annuity, which shall supplement the member's retirement
 54 allowance under this chapter.

55 (c) An eligible retired member may only purchase up to two SGLI annuities and may only
 56 purchase an SGLI annuity during the period of time beginning on the commencement date
 57 of such member's retirement allowance under this chapter and ending on December 31 of 58 the calendar year in which such member attains age 70 or in which such member's 59 retirement allowance commences, whichever is later.

60 (d) An SGLI annuity shall commence on the first day of the month in which both the 61 eligible retired member's written application and purchase amount are received by the 62 board of trustees.

63 (e) An eligible retired member's election to purchase an SGLI annuity shall be irrevocable
64 upon the retirement system's issuance of the first monthly payment of the SGLI annuity.

65 (f)(1) An eligible retired member may only purchase an SGLI annuity by transferring at 66 least $25,000.00 in aggregate from his or her 401(k) plan or 457(b) plan.

67 (2)(A) Such transferred amounts shall be actuarially converted to a monthly annuity
68 for the retired member's lifetime only as described in Code Section 47-2-120.

69 (B) The actuarial assumptions used to determine the actuarial cost of an SGLI annuity 70 shall be those recommended by the retirement system's actuary and approved by the 71 board of trustees. Such actuarial assumptions may be changed from time to time upon 72 approval of the board of trustees.

73 (C) The intent of this paragraph is to provide that an eligible retired member shall pay
74 for the entire actuarial cost of an SGLI annuity.

75 (g)(1) Provided that the applicable terms of the 401(k) plan or the 457(b) plan permit
76 such use, and subject to any applicable conditions or limitations on such use, an eligible
77 retired member may transfer some or all of his or her 401(k) plan or 457(b) plan account
78 funds to the annuity savings fund established pursuant to Code Section 47-2-51 in order
79 to purchase an SGLI annuity.

80 (2) Any such transfer shall be in compliance with the provisions of Section 401(a)(31)
81 of the federal Internal Revenue Code and shall be recorded in the eligible retired
82 member's SGLI annuity record.

83 (3) All of an eligible retired member's funds transferred to the annuity savings fund shall 84 be expended in full as the purchase amount for the SGLI annuity.

85 (4) An eligible retired member shall not be permitted to purchase an SGLI annuity with 86 funds that are not transferred from such member's 401(k) plan or 457(b) plan account.

87 (h)(1) The sum of an eligible retired member's retirement allowance calculated as a
88 monthly annuity for such member's lifetime as of the commencement date of such 89 retirement allowance and any SGLI annuities calculated as a monthly annuity for such 90 member's lifetime shall not exceed 90 percent of his or her highest month of earnable
91 compensation. An eligible retired member shall not be permitted to purchase an SGLI
92 annuity that would cause such 90 percent limit to be exceeded.

93 (2) If such limited amount exceeds the limits of Section 415(b) of the federal Internal
94 Revenue Code, such excess shall be paid from the Supplemental Retirement Benefit Plan
95 authorized by the board of trustees, which provides for benefit payments in excess of 96 such Section 415(b) limitations.

97 (i)(1) An eligible retired member shall elect how to receive an SGLI annuity, either as 98 an annuity for the retired member's lifetime only or as any of the optional forms of 99 payment specified in Code Section 47-2-121 with the exception of option six under

100 subsection (e.4) of such Code section, even if the annuity payment option selected for the 101 SGLI annuity is different from that elected by the member with respect to his or her
102 retirement allowance under this chapter.

103 (2) The SGLI optional form calculation shall be based on the age of the eligible retired
104 member and such member's contingent annuitants, if applicable, as of the commencement
105 date of the SGLI annuity.

106 (3) An eligible retired member may elect an SGLI annuity that permits a refund of the 107 balance of the purchase amount to the member's contingent annuitants or estate in the 108 event the retired member and his or her contingent annuitants, if applicable, die prior to
109 receiving total SGLI annuity payments that equal or exceed the SGLI annuity purchase
110 amount. Unless the terms of the SGLI annuity form as elected by an eligible retired
111 member provide for such refund, no part of the SGLI purchase amount shall be refunded
112 or paid to any person, estate, or other entity upon the death of the retired member or any 113 contingent annuitant.

114 (j)(1) An SGLI annuity shall be subject to increases and decreases in the monthly annuity
115 amount payable based on the form and terms of the SGLI annuity purchased by the 116 retired member.

117 (2) SGLI annuities shall not be eligible for ad hoc or other postretirement benefit
118 increases approved by the board of trustees, including cost-of-living adjustments,
119 pursuant to Code Section 47-2-29.

120 (3) No interest shall be paid on amounts transferred to the annuity savings fund for 121 purposes of purchasing an SGLI annuity.

122 (k)(1) An eligible retired member who elects to purchase an SGLI annuity shall not be 123 permitted to receive a partial lump sum distribution under option six pursuant to 124 subsection (e.4) of Code Section 47-2-121.

125 (2) Any requirements under this chapter relating to suspension of benefits for rehired
126 retirees shall not apply to SGLI annuity payments.

127 (3) No additional creditable service shall be granted for any purpose under this chapter
128 as a result of the transfer of any funds from a 401(k) plan or 457(b) plan for the purchase
129 of an SGLI annuity; nor shall such purchase otherwise be considered in computing a 130 member's retirement allowance.

131 (l) Any other provision of law notwithstanding, the board of trustees may suspend issuance
132 of new SGLI annuities at any time. Such a suspension shall be prospective in operation 133 and shall not affect SGLI annuities already in effect. Following such a suspension, the 134 board of trustees in its discretion may reinstate the issuance of SGLI annuities at any time.

135 (m)(1) The administration of the SGLI annuity requires that SGLI purchase costs vary
136 from time to time and members shall not have any right to any particular purchase price.

137 (2) SGLI annuity payments shall be subject to the minimum distribution rules of federal 138 Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(9)."

139 SECTION 3.

140 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
