Senate Resolution 229
By: Senator James of the 35th

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing March 1, 2019, as Constituent Day at the state capitol; and for other purposes.

2 WHEREAS, we honor the hardworking and diverse residents of the 35th District; and

3 WHEREAS, our cities of Douglasville, Union City, Fairburn, and South Atlanta, as well as the many beloved towns both incorporated and unincorporated, are integral economic generators for the metro Atlanta area; and

4 WHEREAS, we recognize our seniors, who are the pillars of our community; and

5 WHEREAS, we recognize the myriad of entrepreneurs in our cities and neighborhoods, who keep our hard earned dollars in our community by keeping small, local business alive; and

6 WHEREAS, we recognize our diverse faith leaders in the community, as they guide us and council us closer to the one, shared, Almighty God; and

7 WHEREAS, we recognize and commend the many elected officials, tireless city employees, and dedicated county employees who keep our community healthy and running smoothly; and

8 WHEREAS, we commend the district's police departments and all officers, who call District 35 home and keep its residents safe from harm, we thank you; and

9 WHEREAS, we are thankful, by the grace of God, to live, work, and build fulfilling lives in District 35.

10 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body commend the hardworking and diverse residents of the 35th District, and recognize March 1, 2019, as Constituent Day at the state capitol.
