

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO INTRODUCE LOCAL LEGISLATION
Notice is given that there will be introduced at the regular 2019 session of the General Assembly of Georgia a bill to provide that the grand jury of Polk County shall not be required to be impaneled on the first day of each term; and for other purposes.

AFFIDAVIT

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY

I, Trey Kelley, Representative from District 16, state on oath as follows:

- (1) I am the author of the local bill to which this affidavit is attached.
- (2) In accordance with O.C.G.A. § 28-1-14, the notice requirements for the local bill to which this affidavit is attached have been satisfied, including but not limited to the following:
  - (A) The Notice of Intention to Introduce Local Legislation which is attached to such local bill was published in the Polk County Standard Journal, which is the official organ of Polk County, on the 6th of March in the year 2019; and
  - (B) If the local bill amends the charter of a municipality or the enabling Act of the governing authority of a county or consolidated government, then a copy of the Notice of Intention to Introduce Local Legislation was mailed, transmitted by facsimile, or otherwise provided to the governing authority of such municipality, county, or consolidated government:
    - (i) During the calendar week in which the Notice was published in the official organ; or
    - (ii) During the seven days immediately following the date of publication of such Notice.
