3 mayor; to repeal expired provisions related to election of mayor and councilmembers during 4 the first four years of the city's existence; to provide for the filling of vacancies in the offices
5 of mayor and councilmembers of more than 12 months; to provide for the filling of vacancies 6 in the offices of mayor and councilmembers of less than 12 months; to provide for related 7 matters; to provide for a referendum; to provide for contingent effective dates and automatic 8 repeal; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

9 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

10 SECTION 1.

11 An Act to incorporate the City of Brookhaven in DeKalb County, approved April 16, 2012
12 (Ga. L. 2012, p. 5527), as amended, is amended by revising subsection (d) and repealing
13 subsection (f) of Section 2.02 as follows:

14 "(d) The number of consecutive terms an individual may hold in the position of mayor 15 shall be limited to three consecutive four-year terms and shall not include any partial term
16 of office served as mayor. This section shall apply to any incumbent in office at the time 17 the section becomes effective and all prior service of any incumbent shall be counted 18 toward this term limit."

19 SECTION 2.

20 Said Act is further is amended by revising subsections (b) and (c) of Section 2.03 as follows:

21 "(b) The office of mayor shall become vacant upon the incumbent's death, resignation, 22 forfeiture of office, or removal from office in any manner authorized by this Charter or the 23 general laws of the State of Georgia. Unless otherwise provided herein, a vacancy in the 24 office of mayor shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by the city council 25 or those members remaining who shall appoint a successor for the remainder of the term.

26 This provision shall also apply to a temporary vacancy created by the suspension from 27 office of the mayor. If more than 12 months remain in the unexpired term, a special 28 election shall be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November following the 29 creation of the vacancy. Any person appointed to the office of mayor shall not be entitled 30 to be shown on the ballot as the incumbent in such special election.

31 (c) The office of a councilmember shall become vacant upon the incumbent's death, 32 resignation, forfeiture of office, or removal from office in any manner authorized by this 33 Charter or the general laws of the State of Georgia. Unless otherwise provided herein, a 34 vacancy in the office of a councilmember shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired 35 term by the mayor who shall appoint a successor for the remainder of the term subject to 36 the approval of the city council or those members remaining. This provision shall also 37 apply to a temporary vacancy created by the suspension from office of a councilmember.
 38 If more than 12 months remain in the unexpired term, a special election shall be held on 39 the Tuesday after the first Monday in November following the creation of the vacancy.
 40 Any person appointed to the office of councilmember shall not be entitled to be shown on 41 the ballot as the incumbent."

42

SECTION 3.

43 The election superintendent of the City of Brookhaven shall call and conduct an election as 44 provided in this section for the purpose of submitting Section 1 of this Act to the electors of 45 the City of Brookhaven under this Act for approval or rejection. The election superintendent 46 shall conduct such election on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 2019, and 47 shall issue the call and conduct such election as provided by general law. The election 48 superintendent shall cause the date and purpose of the election to be published once a week 49 for two weeks immediately preceding the date thereof in the official organ of the City of
