

House Resolution 1163 (COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE)

By: Representatives Gambill of the 15th, Scoggins of the 14th, and Kelley of the 16th

A RESOLUTION

1 Dedicating certain portions of the state highway system; and for other purposes.

2 PART I

3 WHEREAS, Justice Robert Benham has long been recognized by the citizens of this state 4 for the vital role that he has played in the justice system; and

5 WHEREAS, Justice Benham earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Tuskegee 6 University in 1967, his Juris Doctorate from the University of Georgia in 1970, and his 7 Master of Law from the University of Virginia in 1989; and

8 WHEREAS, he served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty with the United 9 States Army Reserve, valiantly and courageously protecting his fellow Americans and 10 attaining the rank of captain; and

11 WHEREAS, in 1989, Justice Benham made history as the first African American appointed 12 to the Georgia Supreme Court in its more than 140 years of existence and, upon his 13 retirement, holds the honorable distinction of being the longest serving member of the court; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, he served as chief justice from 1995 to 2001, and during his career on the 16 bench, he earned a reputation as a clear thinker and hard worker, as a man whose strong 17 convictions were supported by meticulous research and careful consideration, and as an 18 equitable, impartial leader whose decisions were governed by the rules of honesty and fair 19 play; and

20 WHEREAS, Justice Benham's leadership and wisdom have been instrumental to numerous 21 organizations, as he was president of the Bartow County Bar Association, a chairperson of 22 the Governor's Commission on Drug Awareness and Prevention, and he is currently a

23 member of the American Judicature Society, the National Criminal Justice Association, and 24 the Georgia Bar Foundation; and

25 WHEREAS, Justice Benham's service on the Georgia Supreme Court is marked by his vision 26 and unyielding commitment to justice, and it is abundantly fitting and proper that this 27 remarkable and distinguished Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a bridge 28 in his honor.

29 PART II

30 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia lost one of its finest citizens and most dedicated law 31 enforcement officers with the passing of Mr. Al St. Lawrence on November 24, 2015; and

32 WHEREAS, Mr. St. Lawrence was born in Dover, New Hampshire, the beloved son of Mary 33 Gagne and John Ovid St. Lawrence; and

34 WHEREAS, he enlisted to serve as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty with the 35 United States Air Force in 1952 and was stationed at Hunter Air Force Base; and

36 WHEREAS, Mr. St. Lawrence began his prestigious career in law enforcement in 1959 with 37 the Chatham County Police Department, where he served in the positions of corporal, 38 sergeant, lieutenant, captain, and assistant chief of police before his appointment as chief of 39 police in 1971; and

40 WHEREAS, after 21 years as Chief of Police for Chatham County, Mr. St. Lawrence was 41 elected as the county sheriff, a position he was reelected to serve in for five additional terms; 42 and

43 WHEREAS, during his 23 years as sheriff, Mr. St. Lawrence was highly regarded by the 44 citizens of his community and state and by local government officials as a person of 45 unquestioned integrity and dedication to the sound principles of law enforcement; and

46 WHEREAS, his leadership and guidance were recognized with numerous awards and 47 accolades, including the Georgia Association of Chiefs of Police Dr. Curtis 48 McClung/Motorola Award of Excellence, Georgia Sheriffs' Association Distinguished 49 Humanitarian Award, and Sheriff's Leadership Award for 50 years of service; and

50 WHEREAS, Mr. St. Lawrence played an instrumental role in many organizations, including 51 the Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training Council, Georgia Sheriffs' Association, 52 National Sheriffs' Association, Georgia Association of Chiefs of Police, Peace Officers' 53 Association of Georgia, Peace Officers' Annuity and Benefit Fund, and the 200 Club of 54 Coastal Georgia; and

55 WHEREAS, he is the only law enforcement officer in Georgia to be named both Georgia 56 Association of Chiefs of Police Outstanding Chief of the Year and a two-time recipient of 57 Georgia Sheriffs' Association Sheriff of the Year; and

58 WHEREAS, Mr. St. Lawrence exhibited extraordinary devotion to duty, outstanding loyalty, 59 fine leadership, and meticulous attention to detail in all his duties, and it is abundantly fitting 60 and proper that this remarkable and distinguished Georgian be recognized appropriately by 61 dedicating a bridge in his memory.

62 PART III

63 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia celebrates the life and service of one of its finest citizens, 64 Mr. James "Jimmy" Allen Petrea; and

65 WHEREAS, Mr. Petrea was born in Savannah, Georgia, the beloved son of Thelma Royal 66 and Jessie Lewis Petrea; and

67 WHEREAS, he enlisted to serve as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty with the 68 United States Navy in 1964 and joined the crew of the USS Newport News CA 148 Heavy 69 Cruiser in support of the Operation Sea Dragon and the 1st Marine Division. The mission 70 was naval shore bombardment along the Ho Chi Minh trail as well as the interception and 71 destruction of waterborne craft; and

72 WHEREAS, after three years of service in Vietnam and earning the rank of Engineman E5 73 Petty Officer Second Class, he was honorably discharged, returned home to Savannah, and 74 joined the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad as a machinist; and

75 WHEREAS, he was elected mayor of Thunderbolt in 1981 and was reelected for multiple 76 terms until he resigned on December 31, 2005, after over a quarter-century of service to the 77 town of Thunderbolt and the Coastal Empire; and

78 WHEREAS, during his 24 years as mayor, Mr. Petrea was highly regarded by the citizens 79 of his community and state and local government officials as a person of unquestioned 80 integrity and dedication to his community; and

81 WHEREAS, he was active in various veterans and civic organizations including the 82 American Legion posts 184 and 26, VFW Post 4392, the Chatham Veteran's Council, the 83 Lions Club, and Masonic Lodge 693; and

84 WHEREAS, Thunderbolt experienced significant growth under Mayor Petrea's leadership 85 during which he played a key role in the commercial development of the riverfront and the 86 opening of the current Wilmington River bridge; and

87 WHEREAS, Mr. Petrea exhibited extraordinary devotion to duty, outstanding loyalty, fine 88 leadership, and meticulous attention to detail in all his duties, and it is abundantly fitting and 89 proper that this remarkable and distinguished Georgian be recognized appropriately by 90 dedicating a bridge in his honor.

91 PART IV

92 WHEREAS, Mr. Jimmy Burnsed has long been recognized by the citizens of this state for 93 the vital role that he has played in leadership and his deep personal commitment to the 94 welfare of the citizens of Bryan County and the State of Georgia; and

95 WHEREAS, Mr. Burnsed has served as a leader of Bryan County both as a public servant 96 and leader of the business community; and

97 WHEREAS, he began his career in the banking industry after service with the Coast Guard, 98 learning the trade at Savannah Bank which he saw merge with Georgia Railroad Bank in 99 Augusta and later became First Union Bank; and 100 WHEREAS, in 1989, he helped organize Bryan Bank and Trust in Richmond Hill, Georgia, 101 and dedicated 30 years to serving and leading the community until his retirement; and

102 WHEREAS, he has diligently and conscientiously devoted innumerable hours of his time, 103 talents, and energy toward the betterment of his community and state as evidenced 104 dramatically by his superlative service for 12 years as Chairman of the Bryan County Board 105 of Commissioners, six years on the city council for Garden City, and four years as mayor of 106 Garden City; and

107 WHEREAS, during his tenure of public service to Bryan County, he increased public access 108 to government meetings and services, partnered with local developers to open a public park, 109 and helped achieve a homestead exemption tax for county senior citizens; and 110 WHEREAS, Mr. Burnsed's legacy of cooperation, foresight, and dedication to the people of 111 Bryan County will be evidenced for generations to come in projects such as the extension of 112 Harris Trail, the Bryan County Administrative Building, and numerous other capital projects; 113 and

114 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 115 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a road in his honor.

116 PART V

117 WHEREAS, Mr. Harold Fowler and Mr. Jimmy Burnsed have long been recognized by the 118 citizens of this state for the vital role that they have played in leadership and their deep 119 personal commitment to the welfare of the citizens of Bryan County and the State of 120 Georgia; and

121 WHEREAS, Mr. Harold Fowler dedicated 18 years to the people of Richmond Hill, Georgia, 122 serving on the city council from 1995 to 2005 and as the city's mayor for two terms 123 beginning with his election in 2009; and

124 WHEREAS, during Mr. Fowler's tenure as a leader of Richmond Hill, the city annexed 125 several parcels of valuable commercial property to increase the city's tax digest, purchased 126 land for much needed commercial development, and laid the foundation for a new city 127 complex off of Highway 144 with the purchase of over 50 acres; and

128 WHEREAS, Mr. Burnsed served as a leader of Bryan County both as a public servant and 129 leader of the business community, serving 12 years as Chairman of the Bryan County Board 130 of Commissioners, six years on the city council for Garden City, and four years as mayor of 131 Garden City; and

132 WHEREAS, during his tenure of public service to Bryan County, Mr. Burnsed increased 133 public access to government meetings and services, partnered with local developers to open 134 a public park, and helped achieve a homestead exemption tax for county senior citizens; and

135 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that the cooperation, foresight, and dedication 136 to the people of Bryan County demonstrated by Mr. Fowler and Mr. Burnsed be recognized 137 appropriately by dedicating a bridge in their honor.

138 PART VI

139 WHEREAS, Mr. Chris Shannon was highly regarded by the citizens of his community and 140 state as a person of unquestioned integrity and dedication to protecting and saving lives and 141 property; and

142 WHEREAS, Mr. Shannon joined the fire department of the City of Preston in 1976 and was 143 appointed fire chief in 1979; and

144 WHEREAS, he led the department as chief until 2007, then stayed on with the department 145 as a firefighter until 2011, exhibiting over three decades of extraordinary devotion to duty, 146 outstanding loyalty, and fine leadership; and

147 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 148 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a road in his memory.

149 PART VII

150 WHEREAS, our nation's security continues to rely on patriotic men and women who put 151 their personal lives on hold in order to place themselves in harm's way to protect the 152 freedoms that all United States citizens cherish; and 153 WHEREAS, Mr. James Oscar Hardigree, Jr., demonstrated a deep personal commitment to 154 protecting democracy and a willingness to sacrifice his own personal safety and comfort to 155 ensure the well-being of his fellow man; and 156 WHEREAS, this brave man served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty, 157 attaining the rank of Technician Fifth Grade (T/5) and valiantly protecting the people and 158 ideals of the United States during World War II; and

159 WHEREAS, a native of Oconee County, Georgia, T/5 Hardigree made the ultimate sacrifice 160 for this nation after he was mortally wounded during combat in Italy on May 31, 1944; and

161 WHEREAS, T/5 Hardigree demonstrated selfless service to this nation, and his unyielding 162 commitment was recognized with a Purple Heart; and 163 WHEREAS, T/5 Hardigree embodied the spirit of service, willing to find meaning in 164 something greater than himself, and it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable 165 and distinguished Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a road in his memory.

166 PART VIII

167 WHEREAS, Sergeant Stanley Thomas Bradley was born on October 15, 1946, in 168 Cartersville, Georgia, the beloved son of Woodrow and Grace Ross Bradley; and 189 son of Lucille Boyd and William Howard Giddens; and

190 WHEREAS, Mr. Giddens began his prestigious career in law enforcement as a Lowndes 191 County deputy sheriff before assuming the role of chief of police for Ray City in 1975; and

192 WHEREAS, his life was tragically cut short when he lost his life in the line of duty while 193 pulling over the vehicle of a robbery suspect; and 194 WHEREAS, during his years as chief of police, Mr. Giddens was highly regarded by the 195 citizens of his community and state and by local government officials as a person of 196 unquestioned integrity and dedication to the sound principles of law enforcement; and

197 WHEREAS, Mr. Giddens exhibited extraordinary devotion to duty, outstanding loyalty, fine 198 leadership, and meticulous attention to detail in all his duties, and it is abundantly fitting and 199 proper that this remarkable and distinguished Georgian be recognized appropriately by 200 dedicating a road in his memory.

201 PART X

202 WHEREAS, Mrs. Blondean Newman has long been recognized by the citizens of this state 203 for the vital role that she has played in leadership and her deep personal commitment to the 204 welfare of the citizens of Georgia; and 205 WHEREAS, she has diligently and conscientiously devoted innumerable hours of her time, 206 talents, and energy toward the betterment of her community and state as evidenced 207 dramatically by her superlative service with Bryan County; and

208 WHEREAS, a native of Bryan County, Mrs. Newman served as county tax commissioner 209 for 30 years and after her retirement served as a county commissioner; and 210 WHEREAS, Mrs. Newman's significant organizational and leadership talents, her remarkable 211 patience and diplomacy, her keen sense of vision, and her sensitivity to the needs of the 212 citizens of this state have earned her the respect and admiration of her colleagues and 213 associates; and

214 WHEREAS, she is a person of magnanimous strengths with an unimpeachable reputation for 215 integrity, intelligence, fairness, and kindness; and

216 WHEREAS, Mrs. Newman served Bryan County with honor and distinction, and her vision 217 and unyielding commitment set the standard for public service; and

218 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 219 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a road in her honor.

220 PART XI

221 WHEREAS, the Honorable Emma Darnell has long been recognized by the citizens of this 222 state for the vital role that she played in leadership and her deep personal commitment to the 223 welfare of the citizens of Fulton County; and 224 WHEREAS, she diligently and conscientiously devoted innumerable hours of her time, 225 talents, and energy toward the betterment of her community and state as evidenced 226 dramatically by her nearly 30 years of public service as a Fulton County Commissioner for 227 District 6; and

228 WHEREAS, Commissioner Darnell's legacy spans three decades of service to Fulton County 229 with her election in 1992 until her passing in 2019; and

230 WHEREAS, during her tenure with Fulton County, Commissioner Darnell served as a 231 champion of minorities, seniors, and the poor; and

232 WHEREAS, always passionate and often fiery, Commissioner Darnell played a key role in 233 helping transition the City of Atlanta from an all-white power structure to a predominately 234 black City Hall as a member of Mayor Sam Massell's administration; and

235 WHEREAS, she was the founding chair of the Woman's Advisory Council of Atlanta City 236 Government, which formed in the summer of 1973 after a special report made the now 237 widely accepted conclusion that discrimination based upon sex and gender does exist; and

238 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 239 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating an interchange in her memory.

240 PART XII

241 WHEREAS, Scenic Route 9 in Dawson County, Georgia, was once known as Thunder Road 242 and was used by moonshine runners to haul liquor to Atlanta; and 243 WHEREAS, Dawsonville, Georgia, is known as the "Moonshine Capital of Georgia"; and

244 WHEREAS, during the Prohibition Era, moonshine was made and sold to buyers in Atlanta 245 and 'trippers' from Dawsonville made a living by hauling moonshine down Highway 9; and 246 WHEREAS, trippers were known to modify cars to make them faster and out of necessity 247 to outrun enforcement agents known as 'revenuers' who were tasked with enforcing 248 prohibition laws; and 249 WHEREAS, driving and engineering skills honed by trippers would eventually evolve into 250 one of America's favorite pastimes, NASCAR; and

251 WHEREAS, Dawsonville is the hometown for many racing legends, including Lloyd Seay, 252 Gober Sosebee, Raymond Parks, Roy Hall, Bernard Long, and Red Vogt; and

253 WHEREAS, some of NASCAR's most popular drivers are from Dawsonville, including Bill 254 and Chase Elliott; and

255 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that a road be dedicated to honor the rich 256 history and tradition of Thunder Road.

257 PART XIII

262 University and earned a doctor of religious philosophy degree in 2006 from Logos Graduate 263 School; and

264 WHEREAS, Dr. Valimont was called by the Lord to lead the congregation of Griffin First 265 Assembly in Griffin, Georgia, in 1993; and 266 WHEREAS, his vision and direction helped Griffin First Assembly grow in size and 267 influence, uplifting the community like the light of Bethlehem and serving as a spiritual 268 leader and place for fellowship; and

269 WHEREAS, under his direction, ministries of Griffin First Assembly led more than 30,000
270 souls to dedicate their lives to Jesus Christ and the church grew from 450 to 5,200 Sunday 271 morning worshipers with 243 missionaries and ministries across the globe; and 272 WHEREAS, Dr. Valimont was instrumental in the success of the church's radio and 273 television ministry, Fresh Touch Media Ministries; and 274 WHEREAS, whether the task was preparing a sermon, visiting the sick, counseling the 275 troubled, baptizing a new believer, or acting as a theologian, educator, administrator, or 276 humanitarian, Dr. Valimont served as a shining example of God's righteous path; and 277 WHEREAS, the unmatched spiritual assistance offered by Dr. Valimont was a source of 278 strength and direction for persons in all walks of life and from all economic strata; and

279 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 280 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a road in his memory.

281 PART XIV

282 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia continues to mourn the loss of one of its most distinguished 283 citizens with the passing of Sheriff Van Peavy on January 6, 2015; and

284 WHEREAS, Sheriff Peavy was interested in law enforcement from the time of his discharge 285 from the United States Army, and he ran for Sheriff in 1984 and took office on January 1, 286 1985; and

287 WHEREAS, taking over a department that consisted of the Sheriff, two deputies, four 288 dispatchers who doubled as jailers, and one part-time deputy who doubled as a jailer, Sheriff 289 Peavy grew the department to more than 60 sworn and civilian personnel; and 290 WHEREAS, Sheriff Peavy was available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, treated every 291 employee like family, had an open door policy for anyone who wished to speak with him, 292 and was always firm but fair and full of wisdom; and

293 WHEREAS, touching the lives of many, his impact on those around him and those who met 294 him is unsurpassable; and

295 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 296 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating a road in his honor.

297 PART XV

298 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia continues to mourn the loss of one of its most distinguished 299 citizens with the passing of Mr. Asa Charles Daniels, Jr., on April 7, 2014; and 300 WHEREAS, Mr. Daniels served as a guardian of this nation's freedom and liberty with the 301 United States Maritime Services, valiantly and courageously protecting his fellow 302 Americans; and

303 WHEREAS, after returning home from the war, he was given the opportunity to purchase 304 Pinehurst Equipment Company, an International Harvester farm implement dealership, which 305 was the world's largest manufacturer of farm equipment; and

306 WHEREAS, after a lucrative sale of Pinehurst Equipment Company, Mr. Daniels sold life 307 insurance to local residents and became a top-producing life insurance salesman; and

308 WHEREAS, Mr. Daniels served as a Dooly County commissioner for 26 years, with eight 309 of those as chairperson; and

310 WHEREAS, he served his community in various capacities, including Dooly Medical Center 311 Hospital Authority chairperson, Middle Georgia Technical College board member, and 312 Dooly-Crisp Empowerment Zone board member; and 313 WHEREAS, his leadership and vision were instrumental on the Small Business Council of 314 Georgia for four years under Governor Joe Frank Harris and with the formation of the Dooly 315 County Economic Council; and

316 WHEREAS, he gave inspiration to many through his high ideals, morals, and deep concern 317 for his fellow citizens, and the devotion, patience, and understanding he demonstrated to his 318 family and friends were admired by others; and

319 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that this remarkable and distinguished 320 Georgian be recognized appropriately by dedicating an interchange in his memory.
