

The House Committee on Special Rules offers the following substitute to HR 1066:

A RESOLUTION

1 Expressing support for the Iranian people's desire for a democratic, secular, and non-nuclear 2 Republic of Iran and condemning violations of human rights and state sponsored terrorism
3 by the Iranian government; and for other purposes.

4 WHEREAS, beginning in 2017 and continuing for several months after protests erupted in 5 more than 100 cities, the Iranian regime suppressed such protests with repressive forces that 6 resulted in at least 25 deaths and 4,000 arrests, including decorated wrestling champion 7 Navid Afkari, who was later executed in September 2020 amidst international outrage; and

8 WHEREAS, on November 15, 2019, popular protests against the Iranian regime began and 9 spread rapidly to at least 100 cities throughout the country, and reports indicate that Iranian 10 security forces used lethal force, about 1,500 people were killed during less than 2 weeks of 11 unrest, and thousands more were detained during these protests; and 12 WHEREAS, beginning in September 2022, anti-government protests ignited in response to 13 the death of Mahsa Amini, a 22 year-old Kurdish Iranian woman who was arrested by the 14 morality police that enforce Iran's mandatory dress code laws; and

15 WHEREAS, women and youth have led the 2022 protests in Iran, demanding social freedom 16 and political change; and

17 WHEREAS, these protests are rooted in the more than four decades of organized resistance 18 against the Iranian dictatorship, which most recently have been led by women who have 19 endured torture, sexual and gender based violence, and death; and

20 WHEREAS, in several months of continuing protests in hundreds of cities throughout Iran, 21 the regime's security forces have killed hundreds and arrested tens of thousands of protesters, 22 two of whom, Mohsen Shekari and Majidreza Rahnavard (both 23 years old), were hung on 23 December 8 and 12, 2022, in Tehran and Mashhad, while dozens more have been convicted 24 of "Moharebeh" (waging war on God) and are at risk of execution; and

25 WHEREAS, according to a December 9, 2022, Amnesty International report, "Iran's security 26 forces have killed with absolute impunity more than 40 children and injured many more in 27 a bid to crush the spirit of resistance among the country's youth and retain their iron grip on 28 power at any cost"; and

29 WHEREAS, the similarity in slogans and tactics used by protests nationwide reflect the 30 overarching demands of the Iranian people and point to the organized nature of the protests; 31 and

32 WHEREAS, in the 116th Congress, the House of Representatives passed House Resolution 33 752, "Supporting the rights of the people of Iran to free expression, condemning the Iranian 34 regime for its crackdown on legitimate protests, and for other purposes"; and

35 WHEREAS, House Resolution 752 urges the administration to work to convene emergency 36 sessions of the United Nations Security Council and to work with United States partners and 37 allies to condemn the ongoing human rights violations perpetrated by the Iranian regime and 38 establish a mechanism by which the United Nations Security Council can monitor such 39 violations; and

40 WHEREAS, on November 24, 2022, the United Nations Human Rights Council established 41 a fact-finding mission to conduct an independent investigation into the ongoing deadly 42 violence related to the protests in Iran that began on September 16, 2022; and

43 WHEREAS, on December 14, 2022, the United Nations Economic and Social Council
44 (ECOSOC) adopted a resolution to expel Iran from the Commission on the Status of Women 45 (CSW) for the remainder of its four-year term ending in 2026; and

46 WHEREAS, the Department of State's 2021 Country Reports on Human Rights Practices, 47 released on April 13, 2022, cites that Iran's "government and its agents reportedly committed 48 arbitrary or unlawful killings, most commonly executions for crimes not meeting the 49 international legal standard of 'most serious crimes' or for crimes committed by juvenile 50 offenders, as well as executions after trials without due process"; and

51 WHEREAS, on October 25, 2021, the United Nations Special Rapporteur (UNSR) on the 52 situation of human rights in the Islamic Republic of Iran Javaid Rehman told the United 53 Nations General Assembly that almost all executions in the country constituted an arbitrary 54 deprivation of life, noting the "extensive, vague, and arbitrary grounds in Iran for imposing 55 the death sentence, which quickly can turn this punishment into a political tool"; and

56 WHEREAS, the Iranian regime has arbitrarily and brutally suppressed ethnic and religious 57 minorities, including Iranian Kurds, Baluchis, Arabs, Christians, Jews, Baha'is, Zoroastrians, 58 and even Sunni Muslims; deprived them of their basic human rights; and has in many cases 59 executed them; and

60 WHEREAS, the Iranian people have been deprived of their fundamental freedoms, for which 61 reason they are rejecting monarchic dictatorship and religious tyranny, as evident in their 62 protest slogans; and

63 WHEREAS, in the 115th Congress, the House of Representatives passed House Resolution 64 4744 which called on the United States to "condemn Iranian human rights abuses against 65 dissidents, including the massacre in 1988 and the suppression of political demonstrations
66 in 1999, 2009, and 2017, and pressure the Government of Iran to provide family members 67 detailed information that they were denied about the final resting places of any missing 68 victims of such abuses"; and

69 WHEREAS, on January 13, 2022, a United Nations report urged "the international 70 community to call for accountability with respect to long-standing emblematic events that 71 have been met with persistent impunity, including the enforced disappearances and summary 72 and arbitrary executions of 1988 and the November 2019 protests"; and

73 WHEREAS, the killings of thousands of political prisoners in 1988 were carried out based 74 on a fatwa to execute all political prisoners who remained loyal to the Iranian Resistance, and 75 subsequent death commissions were formed on July 19, 1988, whose members included the 76 current Iranian regime's President, Ebrahim Raisi; an official from the Ministry of 77 Intelligence; and a state prosecutor, to implement the fatwa; and

78 WHEREAS, the United States should be involved in any establishment of an international 79 investigation into the 1988 extrajudicial killings of Iranian dissidents; and

80 WHEREAS, senior Iranian government, military, judicial, and security officials have for 81 decades ordered or committed egregious human rights violations and acts of terror; and

82 WHEREAS, on June 30, 2018, tens of thousands of people gathered in Paris at the Free Iran 83 gathering where they supported advocates for a democratic, secular, and non-nuclear 84 Republic of Iran as well as showed support for the opposition leader Mrs. Maryam Rajavi's 85 10-point plan for the future of Iran, which calls for the universal right to vote, free elections, 86 and a market economy and advocates for gender, religious, and ethnic equality, as well as a 87 foreign policy based on peaceful coexistence and a non-nuclear Iran; and

88 WHEREAS, on July 2, 2018, the Belgian Federal Prosecutor's Office announced it had foiled
89 a terrorist plot against the "Free Iran 2018—the Alternative" gathering held on June 30, 2018, 90 in support of the Iranian people's struggle for freedom; and

91 WHEREAS, Assadollah Assadi, a senior Iranian diplomat based in the Iranian embassy in 92 Vienna, Austria, was arrested in Germany and in February 2021 was convicted in Belgium
93 and sentenced to 20 years of imprisonment in connection with the planned terror plot in Paris 94 at the Free Iran gathering; and

95 WHEREAS, Assadollah Assadi served as the third secretary of the Iranian embassy in 96 Austria; and

97 WHEREAS, instead of representing the interests of the Iranian people, the Iranian regime
98 has long used its Foreign Ministry and diplomatic representations abroad to orchestrate terror 99 plots and whitewash gross human rights violations in Iran; and

100 WHEREAS, on December 15, 2022, the Special Court for Combatting Corruption and 101 Organized Crime (SPAK) in Albania sentenced an Iranian national to ten years in prison on 102 terrorism-related charges, including attempts to engage in espionage and the assassination 103 of Iranian dissidents in Albania; and

104 WHEREAS, Iran's malign activities in the Balkans pose a serious threat to United States' 105 national security interests; and

106 WHEREAS, on November 23, 2022, the Department of the Treasury announced additional 107 action on Iranian security forces, including Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC)
108 forces, for their violent crackdown on antigovernment protests in Iran's Kurdistan Province 109 and surrounding areas; and

110 WHEREAS, according to the statement issued by the Department of State on 111 November 23, 2022, "The United States continues to support the Iranian people as they 112 protest nationwide."; and

113 WHEREAS, the General Assembly of Georgia recognizes Iran as the number one state 114 sponsor of terrorism worldwide and furthermore condemns any actions to allow the Iranian 115 regime to facilitate nuclear or other terroristic plots.

116 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 117 GEORGIA that the members of this body condemn past and present Iranian state sponsored

118 terrorist attacks against United States citizens and officials as well as Iranian dissidents, 119 including the Iranian regime's terror plot against the "Free Iran 2018—the Alternative" 120 gathering in Paris.

121 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of this body call on relevant United States
122 government agencies to work with European allies, including those in the Balkans where Iran 123 has expanded its presence, to hold Iran accountable for breaching diplomatic privileges as 124 well as on nations to prevent the malign activities of the Iranian regime's diplomatic missions 125 with the goal of closing them down and expelling its agents.

126 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of this body stand with the people of Iran 127 who are legitimately defending their rights for freedom against repression as well as 128 condemn the brutal killing of Iranian protestors by the regime.

129 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of this body recognize the rights of the 130 Iranian people and their struggle to establish a democratic, secular, and non-nuclear Republic 131 of Iran.

132 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 133 and directed to make appropriate copies of this resolution available for distribution to the 134 public and the press.
