

House Resolution 271

By: Representatives Heffner of the 130th, Howard of the 129th, Prince of the 132nd, Myles of the 126th, and Newton of the 127th

A RESOLUTION

- 1 Honoring the life and memory of James Leroy Kendrick Jr.; and for other purposes.
- 2 WHEREAS, James Leroy Kendrick Jr. was born on November 13, 1942, in Jewell, Georgia,
3 to James Leroy Kendrick Sr. and Velma Ingram Kendrick Lee, embodying the values of hard 4 work, integrity, and community service instilled during his upbringing; and
- 5 WHEREAS, his natural leadership, evident even in his early years on the family farm, 6 became a defining characteristic of his life, guiding him in his many roles as a devoted 7 husband, father, businessman, and community leader; and
- 8 WHEREAS, James Kendrick's 58 year-long marriage to his beloved wife, Mildred Nipper 9 Kendrick, formed the bedrock of his life, providing him with unwavering support and 10 partnership in both personal and professional endeavors, reflecting a love story that inspired 11 all who knew them; and
- 12 WHEREAS, his faith in God was the cornerstone of his life, first nurtured at Trinity CME 13 Church in Jewell, Georgia, and later exemplified through over 50 years of service and 14 leadership at Williams Memorial CME Church in Augusta; and

15 WHEREAS, James Kendrick arrived in Augusta in 1963 with a heart committed to uplifting 16 others; offering mentorship, inspiration, and guidance to countless individuals in his 17 community; and nurturing future leaders as well as empowering them to achieve their 18 dreams; and

19 WHEREAS, as President of Augusta Blueprint & Microfilm Inc. and founder of Creative 20 Colors Inc., James Kendrick built businesses that were not only successful enterprises but 21 also vehicles for community empowerment, earning him respect and admiration as "Mr. K" 22 among employees and peers; and

23 WHEREAS, his entrepreneurial achievements included national recognition when Augusta 24 Blueprint & Microfilm Inc. was named "Minority Retail Business of the Year" in 1984 and 25 the White House and Creative Colors Inc. became a pioneering vendor for the Georgia 26 Lottery; and

27 WHEREAS, James Kendrick's commitment to community service was unparalleled, as 28 evidenced by his leadership roles on numerous boards and organizations, including Chair of 29 the Augusta Metro Chamber of Commerce, Chair of the CSRA Business League, and 30 member of the Governor's Task Force on Welfare Reform; and

31 WHEREAS, his advocacy for families, small businesses, and communities extended through 32 his service with the Richmond County Department of Family and Children Services, Augusta
33 Jaycees, and other civic organizations where his vision and compassion transformed lives; 34 and

35 WHEREAS, James Kendrick's extraordinary legacy of leadership, service, and mentorship 36 was not confined to his professional achievements but lived on in the countless lives he 37 touched and the seeds of hope and opportunity he planted; and

38 WHEREAS, he leaves behind a loving and devoted family, including his wife, Mildred
39 Nipper Kendrick; his children, Chandra Kendrick, Audrey Kendrick, Steven B. Kendrick 40 (Pamela), and Kelli L. Kendrick; his sister, Stella L. Kendrick; and his granddaughters, 41 Kiwah Kendrick, Alexandria Kendrick, and Leigha Kendrick, all of whom carry forward his 42 spirit of love and service; and

43 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia recognizes that James Leroy Kendrick Jr. was a shining 44 example of faith, leadership, and community dedication whose remarkable life and enduring 45 legacy serve as an inspiration to all.

46 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 47 the members of this body honor and celebrate the life of James Leroy Kendrick Jr., commend 48 his lifelong commitment to faith, family, and community, and express their deepest 49 condolences to his family and friends.

50 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 51 and directed to make an appropriate copy of this resolution available for distribution to the 52 family of James Leroy Kendrick Jr.
