

Rep. Brent Cox
District 28

Biography

Personal Background

Brent Cox is a Republican member of the Georgia House of Representatives, representing District 28, which includes parts of Forsyth and Hall Counties. A native Georgian, Cox currently resides in Dawsonville with his family. He has been married to Tonya since 1993, and they have an incredible family that includes their children and their spouses: Anson & Lupe Cox, Wesley and Leah Cox and David and Lydia Allen. Cox is also proud to be a grandfather to two grandchildren.

Cox has deep roots in the area, having called Forsyth County home for decades. His local connections are strong through his family life, business activities and community involvement.

Education

Cox attended Milton High School in Alpharetta, Georgia before pursuing higher education at the University of Georgia, where he graduated with a Bachelor's degree in 1994.

Professional Experience

Cox brings significant entrepreneurial experience to his legislative role. He has been a business owner for over 31 years, managing and leading various ventures. His professional background also includes involvement in real estate acquisitions.

Community Involvement

Before entering politics, Cox dedicated twelve years to coaching football in Forsyth and Dawson Counties at both the high school and middle school levels. His professional experience also includes working as a math teacher at Lambert High School, further demonstrating his commitment to education and youth development.

Political Career

Cox began serving in the Georgia House of Representatives on January 9, 2023. His current term extends until January 11, 2027, following his successful re-election in the November 5, 2024 general election.

Legislative Service

Representative Cox currently holds the following positions in the Georgia House of Representatives:

- Deputy Whip (2023-present), assisting Whip with legislative priorities and member coordination
- Co-chairman of the Georgia Israeli Caucus, an important bipartisan group focused on strengthening ties between Georgia and Israel
- Vice chairman of the Education Subcommittee on Policy
- Secretary of the Technology & Infrastructure Innovation Committee
- Member of the Agriculture & Consumer Affairs Committee
- Member of the Education Committee
- Member of the Transportation Committee

Contact Information

Representative Cox maintains an office at the Coverdell Legislative Office Building in Atlanta, Georgia. His official contact details include:

- Office Address: 401-C Coverdell Legislative Office Building, Atlanta, GA 30334
- Phone: (404) 656-0152
- Email: brent.cox@house.ga.gov