Majority Leader Chuck Efstration represents Georgia's House District 104, which includes the cities of Auburn, Carl, and Mulberry in Barrow and Gwinnett counties. First elected to the Georgia House of Representatives in 2013, he currently serves as House Majority Leader.

Chuck is a lifelong Gwinnett County resident, an Eagle Scout, and a graduate of Greater Atlanta Christian School. He graduated from the University of Georgia's School of Public and International Affairs and later earned his Juris Doctor from Mercer Law School. After graduating, Chuck returned home to Gwinnett County and worked in law enforcement as a felony prosecutor.

In the Georgia General Assembly, Chuck sponsored legislation to combat human trafficking, protect public safety, and allow prosecutors to crack down on criminal gangs and organized retail crime. He also served as a Floor Leader for Governor Nathan Deal, carrying and passing legislation in 2018 to cut income taxes for the first time in Georgia's history. As an attorney, Chuck has often tackled complex legislative issues like championing Georgia's anti hate crimes bill in the aftermath of the tragic murder of Ahmaud Arbery murder.

Prior to being elected Majority Leader, Chuck chaired both House judiciary committees, where he provided important support for Georgia's accountability courts, worked to reduce elder abuse, and worked to increase school security and fund student mental health. Chuck is proud of his efforts to increase public school teacher pay, raising it to the highest in the southeast. In recent years, his legislative efforts have included working to address homelessness in Georgia and promoting the redevelopment of downtown Atlanta ahead of the 2026 World Cup.

Today, Chuck lives in Mulberry with his wife Ashley and two young sons.
