

Rep. Danny Mathis
District 133

Biography

State Representative Mathis represents House District 133, which includes all of Bleckley, Twiggs, Wilkinson, Dodge counties and portions of Telfair County.

Danny is a life-long resident of Cochran, located in Bleckley County. He was raised a Christian-Methodist and graduated from Cochran High School in 1972. He is a graduate of Middle Georgia College with an associate's degree in Business Administration and the Gupton-Jones College of Funeral Service.

He is the owner and operator of Mathis Funeral Home, Inc. in Cochran. Prior to this, he served as Bleckley County coroner for 18 years.

Danny was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives in 2018 and was sworn-in on January 14, 2019.

He has been married to his wife, Ellen Purser Mathis, for more than 46 years. They have three children together, Dana Perkins, Cal Mathis and Bo Mathis. They also have two daughters-in-law, Stephanie and Annsley, and one son-in-law, Andy.

Danny and Ellen are grandparents to six grandchildren: Emma Kate, Asa, Sawyer, Quinn, Hayes and Blake.