

Rep. Jason Ridley
District 6

Biography

Jason Ridley is a husband, father to three children and the proud State Representative of House District 6, which includes North Murray and Whitfield counties.

Rep. Ridley worked in the community banking industry as a commercial and agriculture lenders for a number of years before leaving the banking world behind to start his family business, 4 Oaks Farm and Produce. Rep. Ridley also currently owns and operates a small land clearing and development business.

Rep. Ridley is a native of Murray County and is married to Andrea Loughridge Ridley. The Ridley's have been happily married since 2000 and are both active in the community, where they attend Salem Baptist Church in Dalton, Georgia.