

Rep. Mary Ann Santos
District 117

Biography

Representative Mary Ann Santos was elected in 2024 to serve Henry County's House District 117 in the Georgia General Assembly, making history as the first Latina elected from Henry County.

Coming from a family of small business owners, she developed an early appreciation for entrepreneurship, responsibility and community. At a pivotal point in her life, she returned to school and earned her bachelor's degree from Mercer University and her master's degree from Clayton State University, becoming a first-generation college graduate.

With more than 20 years in government and public service, Representative Santos serves on the Code Revision, Judiciary Juvenile and State Properties committees. She also serves as vice chair of the Women's Legislative Caucus, a leadership role she earned during her first term. She is also a member of the Working Families Caucus and Legislative Black Caucus.

She was recognized as one of the Georgia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's 50 Most Influential Latinos in Georgia and received the Legislative Champion Award from the Georgia Coalition Against Domestic Violence.

Grounded in her Henry County community and guided by a commitment to servant leadership, Representative Santos remains dedicated to serving House District 117 with consistency and integrity.
