

Rep. Darlene Taylor
District 173

Biography

Rep. Darlene Taylor has always had an unparalleled community spirit and a heart for public service. In addition to her legislative service, Representative Taylor has served through the years on many professional and community boards in the region. Darlene has acquired several awards recognizing her accolades in both the legislative and business arenas. She is also known for her entrepreneurial bonafides as an independent business woman who has established two successful companies. Currently, she is CEO of Taylor Benefit Resource which is a benefit administration company she founded 20 ago to fill a void in the local and regional healthcare market.

In January 2011, Representative Darlene Taylor was sworn into office and began serving as the House District 173 Representative in the Georgia General Assembly. Her District comprises most of Grady and Thomas Counties

Rep. Darlene Taylor is a remarkable lady, wife to John, a mother to two accomplished adult sons, and grandmother in addition to being both a seasoned Legislator and C.E.O. of a TPA she founded. Darlene is known at the Capitol and local for her graciousness however, when the situation calls for it, - she is a fierce but fair legislator. Darlene is well known for her advocacy for all rural South Georgia, and especially for her constituents. She is Pro-Life, has a strong voice for healthcare & public health, small Business including Agribusiness, education, conservation of natural resources, and non-profit organizations. Rep. Taylor supports our Veterans, local governments, and is for local control. All these dynamic dimensions have well positioned her to be an astute Chairwoman who serves with distinction on a diverse group of legislative committees.

Rep. Darlene Taylor currently serves as Chairwoman, Appropriations: Health Subcommittee, her office is in the Capitol, and her District and Constituent Services Office is in her District (229-225-9943 ext 215).

Chairwoman Taylor is also honored to serve on the following legislative committees:

- Agriculture & Consumer Affairs
- Appropriations: Health Subcommittee, Chairwoman
- Insurance – (Chair of the Life & Health Subcommittee)
- Public and Community Health
- Reapportionment and Redistricting, former Vice Chair
- Rules

- Special Committee on Healthcare
- Transportation

Representative Taylor was a founding member and continues to serve on the Rural Development Council.