

SENATOR KENYA WICKS

GEORGIA'S 34TH SENATE DISTRICT

Senator Kenya Wicks, a Democrat, was elected to the Georgia State Senate in November 2024. She represents Georgia's 34th Senate District, which includes portions of Clayton and Fayette counties.

Sen. Wicks serves as a member of the Senate Committees on Government Oversight, Public Safety, Science and Technology, Urban Affairs, and Veterans, Military, and Homeland Security. Her leadership is recognized through her roles as Deputy Whip for the Senate Democratic Caucus and Vice Chair of the Clayton County Senate Delegation.

Sen. Wicks is a Louisville, Kentucky native, dedicated public servant, and retired U.S. Army Major. Over the course of her 30-year military career, she rose from enlisted Soldier to Officer, earning a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science from the University of Alabama. Her service was defined by leadership, resilience and a deep commitment to the country.

In her civilian career, Senator Wicks has continued to champion community and public service by advocating for children in foster care as a Court-Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) in Clayton County.

Deeply engaged in civic life, Sen. Wicks is involved in community initiatives and serves on the board of the Eden Project, a non-profit dedicated to serving veterans. She serves as Vice President of the Atlanta Chapter of the Kentucky Colonels and Chair of the Fayette African American Caucus. Sen. Wicks is also a member of the Fayette NAACP and multiple veterans' organizations, including the American Legion and VFW. Additionally, she is actively involved with Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, where she received the prestigious Zeal of Georgia Award.

Sen. Wicks is also a proud mother of three sons—all graduates of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs)—and a devoted member of The Olivet Church.

