municipal replacement of such conveyed property; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

Chapter 37 of Title 36 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to acquisition and disposition of real and personal property generally, is amended by revising Code Section 36-37-6.1, relating to sale, exchange, lease, or grant of easement over property used for recreational purposes by incorporated municipalities having population greater than 300,000, as follows:

(a) This Code section shall be applicable to incorporated municipalities of the State of Georgia having a population of more than 300,000 according to the United States decennial census of 1960 or any future such census.

(b) All such municipalities shall have authority to sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property comprising parks, playgrounds, golf courses, swimming pools, or other like property used primarily for recreational purposes, provided that nothing in this Code section shall have the effect of authorizing alienation where such would be in derogation of rights, duties, and obligations imposed by prior deed, contract, or like document of similar import or where such alienation would cause divesting of title to a park, playground, golf course, swimming pool, or other like property that had been dedicated to public use and not subsequently abandoned.

(c)(1) All such municipalities shall have authority to lease out and grant easements over property used primarily for recreational purposes to others consistent with general park and recreational purposes for a period not exceeding 50 years and for a valuable consideration. Any such recreational property which was formerly used for annual regional fair purposes but is no longer so used may be leased by any such municipality to one or more private entities for terms of not more than 50 years each for development and use as motion picture and television production, processing, and related facilities together with all such support and service facilities as are necessary or convenient to such use.

(2) All such municipalities shall have authority to enter into contracts and renewals and extensions of contracts for the cooperative operation, maintenance, cooperative management, and funding of property which in no way limits the governance or the policy role of said municipalities which property is used primarily for recreational purposes consistent with general park and recreational purposes, for periods not exceeding ten years and for a valuable consideration.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (b) of this Code section, all such municipalities shall have authority to lease out, grant easements over, or convey any property described in subsection (b) of this Code section to an independent school system operating in such municipality for a valuable consideration where the governing authority of such municipality and the board of such independent school system determine that such lease, easement, or conveyance is in the best interest of their respective jurisdictions and for use of the school system for educational purposes. If such property is conveyed, the governing authority of such municipality shall subsequently replace such property with one or more properties which are determined by such governing authority to be, in the aggregate, of equal or greater acreage and of substantially equivalent or greater benefit to the citizens of such municipality, taking into consideration the prevailing uses and needs of such municipality. One or more independent conveyances of property as may be agreed upon by such municipality and independent school system for the public uses set forth in subsection (b) of this Code section shall be credited against the replacement property required by this paragraph for any subsequent conveyance of property described in subsection (b) of this Code section by the municipality to the independent school system. The cumulative impact of such conveyances shall not result in a net loss of park acreage owned by such municipality."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

Title 9 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to civil practice, is amended by revising Code Section 9-10-184, relating to value of pain and suffering may be argued, as follows:

"9-10-184.

(a) As used in this Code section, the term:

(1) 'Economic damages' means pecuniary damages recoverable in tort for bodily injury or wrongful death, including, but not limited to, damages for past and future medical expenses; costs of rehabilitation; costs of therapy; loss of wages; loss of income; loss of earning capacity; loss of services performed by the injured or deceased person as a result of the injury or death, including domestic and other necessary services performed without compensation; and funeral or burial expenses.

(2) 'Noneconomic damages' means all damages recoverable in tort for bodily injury or wrongful death other than economic damages, including, but not limited to, damages for physical or emotional pain, discomfort, anxiety, hardship, distress, suffering, inconvenience, physical impairment, mental anguish, disfigurement, loss of enjoyment of life, loss of society and companionship, loss of consortium, injury to reputation, and in wrongful death cases, the nonpecuniary elements of the full value of life.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this Code section, in the trial of any action to recover damages for bodily injury or wrongful death, counsel shall not argue the worth or monetary value of noneconomic damages, and counsel shall not, in the hearing of the jury or any prospective juror, elicit any testimony regarding, or make any reference to, any specific amount or range of amounts of noneconomic damages, the measure of such damages being the enlightened conscience of an impartial jury.

(c)(1) In the trial of any action to recover damages for bodily injury or wrongful death, counsel for any party shall be allowed to argue the worth or monetary value of noneconomic damages only after the close of evidence and at the time of such party's first opportunity to argue the issue of damages, provided that such argument shall be rationally related to the evidence of noneconomic damages and shall not make reference to objects or values having no rational connection to the facts proved by the evidence.

(2) If counsel is entitled to the opening and concluding arguments, then counsel shall not be allowed to argue the worth or monetary value of noneconomic damages during such counsel's concluding argument unless counsel has argued the worth or monetary value of noneconomic damages during such counsel's opening argument, and such counsel shall not argue a different worth or monetary value of noneconomic damages in concluding arguments than was argued in such counsel's opening argument.

(d) If counsel elicits any testimony, or makes any argument or reference, prohibited by this Code section in the hearing of the jury or one or more prospective jurors, the court shall take remedial measures as provided in Code Section 9-10-185 or shall, with respect to prospective jurors, excuse the prospective jurors.

(e) Nothing in this Code section shall be construed to prohibit counsel from asking prospective jurors during voir dire whether they could return a verdict that does not award any damages or a verdict in excess of some unspecified amount, provided that such question is supported by the evidence. ~~In the trial of a civil action for personal injuries, counsel shall be allowed to argue the worth or monetary value of pain and suffering to the jury; provided, however, that any such argument shall conform to the evidence or reasonable deductions from the evidence in the case.~~"

SECTION 2.

Said title is further amended in Code Section 9-11-12, relating to answer, defenses, and objections, when and how presented and heard, when defenses waived, and stay of discovery, by revising subsections (a), (e), and (j) as follows:

"(a) When answer presented.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, a ~~A~~ defendant shall serve ~~his~~ an answer within 30 days after the service of the summons and complaint upon ~~him~~ the defendant, unless otherwise provided by statute. A cross-claim or counterclaim shall not require an answer, unless one is required by order of the court, and shall automatically stand denied.

(2) Unless the court sets a different time, serving a motion under this Code section alters the time for serving an answer pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection as follows:

(A) If the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until trial, the answer shall be served within 15 days after notice of the court's action; or

(B) If the court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the answer shall be served within 15 days after the more definite statement is served."

"(e) Motion for more definite statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a proper responsive pleading, ~~he shall nevertheless answer or respond to the best of his ability, and he~~ such party may move for a more definite statement. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 15 days after notice of the order, or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just."

"(j) Stay of discovery.

(1) If a party files a motion to dismiss before ~~or at the time of~~ filing an answer and pursuant to the provisions of this Code section, discovery shall be stayed ~~for 90 days after the filing of such motion or~~ until the ruling of the court on such motion; provided, however, that, if a defendant files an answer before the ruling of the court on such motion, the stay imposed by this subsection shall immediately terminate with respect to such defendant~~, whichever is sooner~~. The court shall decide the motion to dismiss within ~~the~~ 90 days ~~provided in this paragraph~~ following the conclusion of briefing on such motion.

(2) The discovery period and all discovery deadlines shall be extended for a period equal to the duration of the stay imposed by this subsection.

(3) If the court has not ruled on the motion to dismiss within 90 days following the conclusion of briefing on such motion, the ~~The~~ court may ~~upon its own motion or~~ upon motion of a party, and for good cause shown, terminate or modify the stay imposed by this subsection ~~but shall not extend such stay~~; provided, however, that such remedy shall not preclude any other remedy available for the failure to timely rule on such motion, including, but not limited to, a writ of mandamus.

(4) If a motion to dismiss raises defenses set forth in paragraph (2), (3), (5), or (7) of subsection (b) of this Code section; ~~or~~ if any party needs discovery in order to identify persons who may be joined or substituted as proper parties; or if any party needs discovery in order to establish the jurisdiction of the court, limited discovery needed to respond to such defenses, to ~~or~~ identify such persons, or to establish such jurisdiction shall be permitted ~~until the court rules on such motion~~ notwithstanding the stay imposed by this subsection.

(5) The provisions of this subsection shall not modify or affect the provisions of paragraph (2) of subsection (f) of Code Section 9-11-23 or any other power of the court to stay discovery."

SECTION 3.

Said title is further amended in Code Section 9-11-41, relating to dismissal of actions and recommencement within six months, by revising subsection (a) as follows:

"(a) Voluntary dismissal; effect. ~~:~~

(1) By plaintiff; by stipulation. Subject to the provisions of subsection (e) of Code Section 9-11-23, Code Section 9-11-66, and any statute, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff, without order or permission of court:

(A) By filing a written notice of dismissal at any time before ~~the first witness is sworn~~ the sixtieth day following the date the opposing party serves an answer; or

(B) By filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action.

(2) Effect. A dismissal under paragraph (1) of this subsection is without prejudice, except that if the plaintiff previously dismissed any federal or state court action based on or including the same claim, such notice or stipulation operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

~~(2)~~(3) By order of court. Except as provided in paragraph (1) of this subsection, an action shall not be dismissed upon the plaintiff's motion except upon order of the court and upon the terms and conditions as the court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon him or her of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court. Unless the court order states otherwise, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.

~~(3) Effect. A dismissal under this subsection is without prejudice, except that the filing of a second notice of dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits.~~"

SECTION 4.

Said title is further amended in Chapter 15, relating to court and litigation costs, by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

"9-15-16.

(a) In any civil action, no party shall recover the same attorney's fees, court costs, or expenses of litigation more than once pursuant to one or more statutes authorizing awards of attorney's fees, court costs, or expenses of litigation, whether such statute or statutes authorize such awards for compensatory or punitive purposes, unless the statute or statutes specifically authorize the recovery of duplicate attorney's fees, court costs, or expenses of litigation.

(b) In any civil action, if a party seeks to recover attorney's fees pursuant to any statute authorizing an award of reasonable attorney's fees, a contingent fee agreement between such party and such party's attorney shall not be admissible as proof of the reasonableness of the fees.

(c) Nothing in this Code section shall limit or diminish any contractual right to recover attorney's fees, court costs, or expenses of litigation."

SECTION 5.

Title 40 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to motor vehicles, is amended in Code Section 40-8-76.1, relating to use of safety belts in passenger vehicles, by revising subsection (d) as follows:

"(d)(1) The failure of an occupant of a motor vehicle to wear a seat safety belt in any seat of a motor vehicle which has a seat safety belt or belts ~~shall not be considered evidence of negligence or causation, shall not otherwise be considered by the finder of fact on any question of liability of any person, corporation, or insurer, shall not be any basis for cancellation of coverage or increase in insurance rates, and shall not~~ may be considered in any civil action as evidence admissible on the issues of negligence, comparative negligence, causation, assumption of risk, or apportionment of fault or for any other purpose and may be evidence used to diminish any recovery for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance, occupancy, or operation of a motor vehicle; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not prevent a court from determining the admissibility of such evidence pursuant to Code Section 24-4-403 or any other statutory or common law rule of evidence.

(2) The failure of an occupant of a motor vehicle to wear a seat safety belt in any seat of a motor vehicle which has a seat safety belt or belts shall not be any basis for a cancellation of insurance coverage or an increase in insurance rate."

SECTION 6.

Title 51 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to torts, is amended in Chapter 3, relating to liability of owners and occupiers of land, by adding a new article to read as follows:

"ARTICLE 5

51-3-50.

As used in this article, the term:

(1) 'Negligent security' means any claim against an owner or occupier, or against a security contractor, that:

(A) Sounds in tort or nuisance, including, but not limited to, any claim under Article 1 of this chapter;

(B) Seeks to recover damages for bodily injury or wrongful death; and

(C) Arises from an alleged failure to keep the premises and approaches safe from the wrongful conduct of third persons.

(2) 'Owner or occupier' means any person that owns, leases, occupies, operates, maintains, or manages real property of any kind or any director, officer, employee, or agent of such person.

(3) 'Particularized warning of imminent wrongful conduct by a third person' means information actually known to an owner or occupier and deemed credible by the owner or occupier, which causes the owner or occupier to consciously understand that a third person is likely to imminently engage in wrongful conduct on the premises that poses a clear danger to the safety of persons upon the premises, such information being specific as to the identity of the third person, the nature and character of the wrongful conduct, the degree of dangerousness of the wrongful conduct, and the location, time, and circumstances of the wrongful conduct.

(4) 'Premises' means the real property that is owned, leased, occupied, operated, maintained, or managed by an owner or occupier.

(5) 'Prior occurrences of substantially similar wrongful conduct' means prior occurrences of wrongful conduct which are sufficiently similar in nature and character, degree of dangerousness, proximity, location, time, and circumstances to the wrongful conduct from which a claim of negligent security arises to lead a reasonable person in the position of the owner or occupier to apprehend that such wrongful conduct is reasonably likely to occur upon the premises, to understand the risk of injury to persons upon the premises presented by such wrongful conduct, and to understand that a specific and known physical condition of the premises has created a risk of such wrongful conduct on the premises that is substantially greater than the general risk of such wrongful conduct in the vicinity of the premises.

(6) 'Security contractor' means any person that contracts with an owner or occupier to provide protective or security services upon any premises or any director, officer, employee, or agent of such person.

(7) 'Third person' means any person other than an owner or occupier or a security contractor or a person under the direction, control, or supervision of an owner or occupier or security contractor.

(8) 'Wrongful conduct' means:

(A) Any violation of a law of this state or an ordinance of any political subdivision thereof that is punishable as a felony or misdemeanor, regardless of whether such violation results in an arrest, citation, accusation, indictment, or conviction; or

(B) Any other conduct that amounts to an intentional, or willful and wanton, tort.

51-3-51.

Except as provided in Code Section 51-3-54, an owner or occupier shall be liable for negligent security arising from any injury sustained by any person upon the premises of the owner or occupier as an invitee if the plaintiff proves that:

(1) The wrongful conduct by a third person that caused the injury sustained by the invitee was reasonably foreseeable because the owner or occupier:

(A) Had particularized warning of imminent wrongful conduct by a third person; or

(B) Reasonably should have known that a third person was reasonably likely to engage in such wrongful conduct upon the premises, based on:

(i) Prior occurrences of substantially similar wrongful conduct upon the premises of which the owner or occupier had actual knowledge;

(ii) Prior occurrences of substantially similar wrongful conduct upon the property adjoining the premises, or otherwise occurring within 500 yards of the premises, of which the owner or occupier had actual knowledge; or

(iii) Prior occurrences of substantially similar wrongful conduct by the third person whose wrongful conduct caused the injury, if the owner or occupier knew or should have known, by clear and convincing evidence, that such third person was or would be upon the premises and if the owner or occupier had actual knowledge of such prior occurrences of substantially similar wrongful conduct;

(2) The injury sustained by the invitee was a reasonably foreseeable consequence of such wrongful conduct by a third person;

(3) Such wrongful conduct by a third person was a reasonably foreseeable consequence of such third person exploiting a specific physical condition of the premises known to the owner or occupier, which created a reasonably foreseeable risk of wrongful conduct on the premises that was substantially greater than the general risk of wrongful conduct in the vicinity of the premises;

(4) The owner or occupier failed to exercise ordinary care to remedy or mitigate such specific and known physical condition of the premises and to otherwise keep the premises safe from such wrongful conduct by a third person; and

(5) Such failure of the owner or occupier to exercise ordinary care was a proximate cause of the injury sustained by the invitee.

Except as provided in Code Section 51-3-54, an owner or occupier shall be liable for negligent security arising from any injury sustained by any person upon the premises of the owner or occupier as a licensee if the plaintiff proves that:

(1) The wrongful conduct by a third person that caused the injury sustained by the licensee was reasonably foreseeable because the owner or occupier had particularized warning of imminent wrongful conduct by a third person;

(2) The injury sustained by the licensee was a reasonably foreseeable consequence of such wrongful conduct by a third person;

(3) Such wrongful conduct by a third person was a reasonably foreseeable consequence of such third person exploiting a specific physical condition of the premises known to the owner or occupier, which created a reasonably foreseeable risk of wrongful conduct on the premises that was substantially greater than the general risk of wrongful conduct in the vicinity of the premises;

(4) The owner or occupier willfully and wantonly failed to exercise any care to remedy or mitigate the specific and known physical condition of the premises and to otherwise keep the premises safe from such wrongful conduct by a third person; and

(5) Such failure of the owner or occupier to exercise any care was a proximate cause of the injury sustained by the licensee.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this Code section, the provisions of this article shall be the sole and exclusive remedy for negligent security against owners or occupiers, and no owner or occupier shall be liable for negligent security except as provided in this article.
(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or otherwise affect any cause of action brought pursuant to Code Section 51-1-56 or any other applicable law or theory of recovery otherwise recognized by law, including, but not limited to, negligence and nuisance, in connection with an alleged violation of Code Section 16-5-46.
(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or otherwise affect any claim or remedy for breach of contract or any other claim, remedy, or cause of action not arising under Article 1 of this chapter.

51-3-54.
Notwithstanding Code Sections 51-3-51 and 51-3-52, no owner or occupier shall be liable for negligent security:
(1) Arising from an injury sustained by a person upon the premises of the owner or occupier as a trespasser;
(2) Arising from an injury sustained by a person not upon the premises of the owner or occupier;
(3) Arising from the wrongful conduct of a third person, if such wrongful conduct did not occur upon the premises and in a place from which the owner or occupier had the legal right and authority to exclude such third person;
(4) Arising from the wrongful conduct of a third person, if such third person was upon the premises as a tenant or as a guest of a tenant, if the owner or occupier had commenced eviction proceedings against such tenant at the time of the wrongful conduct;
(5) Arising from an injury sustained by a third person upon the premises of the owner or occupier as an invitee or a licensee, if such person:
(A) Came upon the premises for the purpose of committing any violation of a law of this state that is punishable as a felony or any violation of Chapter 8 of Title 16 that is punishable as a misdemeanor; or
(B) Was engaged at the time of the injury in the commission of any violation of a law of this state that is punishable as a felony or any violation of Chapter 8 of Title 16 that is punishable as a misdemeanor, provided that this subparagraph shall not apply to a victim of a violation of Code Section 16-5-46;
(6) Arising from an injury sustained upon premises that is used as a single-family residence; or
(7) Based on a particularized warning of imminent wrongful conduct by a third person, if the owner or occupier made any reasonable effort to provide such information to law enforcement personnel, provided that calling 9-1-1 or otherwise making a report about such information to law enforcement personnel shall be deemed a reasonable effort.

(a) No owner or occupier shall be required to exercise extraordinary care to keep persons on or around any premises safe from wrongful conduct by a third person, and no owner or occupier shall be required to assume the responsibilities and obligations of government for law enforcement and public safety.

(b) In any action for negligent security, in assessing whether an owner or occupier has breached a duty to exercise ordinary care to keep persons on or around any premises safe from wrongful conduct by a third person, the trier of fact shall consider the security measures employed by the owner or occupier at the time of the injury from which the claim of negligent security arises, the need for additional or other security measures, the practicality of additional or other security measures, whether additional or other security measures would have prevented the injury, the respective responsibilities of owners or occupiers with respect to the premises and government with respect to law enforcement and public safety, and any other relevant circumstances.

In any action for negligent security:

(1) If the trier of fact finds that any defendant is liable to the plaintiff, the trier of fact shall make an apportionment of fault under Code Section 51-12-33, and in making such an apportionment, the trier of fact shall reasonably apportion fault to:

(A) The owner or occupier;

(B) Any third person whose wrongful conduct was a cause of the injury from which the claim of negligent security arises; and

(C) Any other persons to whom fault otherwise should be apportioned under Code Section 51-12-33;

(2) In connection with an apportionment of fault under Code Section 51-12-33, no party shall offer evidence, or make an argument or other comment in the hearing of any juror or prospective juror, concerning:

(A) Any sentence of imprisonment or probation, fine, or other punishment that has been, or could be, imposed in a criminal prosecution of any third person for the wrongful conduct from which the claim of negligent security arises;

(B) The financial resources of any party or nonparty; or

(C) The effect of an apportionment of fault upon any award of damages to the plaintiff; and

(3) If a jury fails as the trier of fact to apportion a reasonable degree of fault to the third person whose wrongful conduct was a cause of the injury from which the claim of negligent security arises, the trial court shall set aside the verdict of the jury and order a retrial of liability and damages. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that an apportionment of fault is unreasonable if the total percentage of fault apportioned to all third persons for their wrongful conduct is less than the total percentage of fault apportioned to all owners or occupiers, security contractors, and other persons and entities that did not engage in wrongful conduct.

(a) If a security contractor assumes and undertakes a duty to invitees and licensees to keep all or part of a premises of an owner or occupier safe from the wrongful conduct of a third person, the security contractor may be liable for negligent security only in the same manner, to the same extent, and subject to the same limitations and provisions applicable to an owner or occupier contained in this article. In no event shall a security contractor be subject to liability for negligent security to an extent greater than the liability for negligent security of an owner or occupier.

(b) No security contractor shall be liable for negligent security except as provided in this Code section.

(c) Nothing in this Code section shall limit or otherwise affect any claim or remedy of an owner or occupier for breach of contract."

SECTION 7.

Said title is further amended in Article 1 of Chapter 12, relating to general provisions relative to damages, by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

"51-12-1.1.

(a) In any civil action to recover damages resulting from injury or death to a person, special damages for medical and healthcare expenses shall be recoverable only as provided in this Code section.

(b) Special damages for medical and healthcare expenses shall be limited to the reasonable value of medically necessary care, treatment, or services, and the amount of such special damages shall be determined by the trier of fact.

(c) If the plaintiff in any such civil action has any form of public or private health insurance, including benefits under a governmental workers' compensation program, evidence relevant to the determination of the reasonable value of medically necessary care, treatment, or services pursuant to subsection (b) of this Code section shall include both the amounts charged for past, present, or future medical and healthcare expenses and the amounts actually necessary to satisfy such charges pursuant to the insurance contract or the applicable governmental workers' compensation program, regardless of whether the health insurance has been used, is used, or will be used to satisfy such charges.

(d) In any claim for medical and healthcare expenses rendered under a letter of protection or any other arrangement by which a healthcare provider renders treatment in exchange for a promise of payment for the plaintiff's medical and healthcare expenses from any judgment or settlement of a civil action to recover damages resulting from injury or death to a person, regardless of how such arrangement is referred to, the following shall be relevant and discoverable:

(1) A copy of the letter of protection;

(2) All charges for the plaintiff's medical and healthcare expenses, which shall be itemized and, to the extent applicable, coded according to generally accepted medical billing practices;

(3) If the healthcare provider sells the accounts receivable for the plaintiff's medical and healthcare expenses to a third party at less than the invoice price:

(A) The name of the third party; and

(B) The dollar amount for which the third party purchased such accounts receivable; and

(4) Whether the claimant was referred for treatment under a letter of protection or other similar arrangement and, if so, the identity of the person who made the referral.

(e) It is the intent of the General Assembly that this Code section abrogates the common law collateral source rule to the extent necessary to introduce the evidence described in this Code section; provided, however, that nothing in this Code section shall be construed or applied to prevent the court from issuing appropriate jury instructions to clarify the role of collateral source payments and to prevent potential jury confusion regarding the effect of collateral source payments on the plaintiff's recovery.

(f) Nothing in this Code section shall be construed or applied to limit the right of a plaintiff or defendant to present evidence or testimony, or both, challenging the reasonableness of medical and healthcare expenses, whether incurred or projected future expenses, or the medical necessity of any treatment."

SECTION 8.

Said title is further amended in said article by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

(a) In any action to recover damages for bodily injury or wrongful death, any party may elect, by written demand prior to the entry of the pretrial order, to have fault and any award of damages determined at trial in the following manner:

(1) In the first phase of the trial, the trier of fact shall determine the fault of each defendant, and if the trier of fact finds that any defendant is at fault for the plaintiff's injuries or wrongful death, the trier of fact shall further determine through an appropriate form of the verdict the percentages of fault of all persons or entities that contributed to such injuries or wrongful death as provided in Code Section 51-12-33, prior to any determination of the total amount of damages to be awarded, if any such findings are required. The evidence and arguments of counsel in the first phase of the trial shall be limited to the issues provided for in this paragraph;

(2) If the trier of fact finds in the first phase of the trial that any defendant is at fault for the plaintiff's injuries or wrongful death, the trial shall be recommenced immediately with the same judge and the same jury. In the second phase of the trial, the trier of fact shall determine all compensatory damages to be awarded to the plaintiff, if any, and the evidence and arguments of counsel shall be limited to this issue; and

(3) If the trier of fact finds in the second phase of the trial that any compensatory damages are to be awarded to the plaintiff, the trial may be recommenced immediately with the same judge and the same jury for such further proceedings as may be required, including, but not limited to, proceedings provided for in subsection (d) of Code Section 51-12-5.1 concerning punitive damages and proceedings to determine liability for, and the amount of, any attorney's fees, court costs, or expenses of litigation that may be awarded by the trier of fact as provided by law.

(b) The court may reject an election by any party made pursuant to subsection (a) of this Code section and order the concurrent trial of fault and damages only upon motion by any party in opposition to such election and upon the court's determination that:

(1) The plaintiff, or if the plaintiff is the legal guardian of a minor, the minor, was injured by an alleged sexual offense and would be likely to suffer serious psychological or emotional distress as a result of testifying more than once in a bifurcated proceeding; or

(2) The amount in controversy is less than $150,000.00."

SECTION 9.

(a) This Act shall become effective upon its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law without such approval.

(b) Sections 6 and 7 of this Act shall apply only with respect to causes of action arising on or after the effective date of this Act, and any prior causes of action shall be governed by prior law. It is the intention of the General Assembly that all other provisions of this Act shall apply to causes of action pending on the effective date of this Act, unless such application would be unconstitutional.

SECTION 10.

All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.

SECTION 1.

(a) As used in this Act, the term:

(1) "Ad valorem taxes" means all ad valorem taxes levied by, for, or on behalf of the City of Social Circle for municipal purposes, except for any ad valorem taxes levied to pay interest on and to retire bonded indebtedness.

(2) "Adjusted base year assessed value" means the sum of:

(A) The previous adjusted base year assessed value;

(B) An amount equal to the difference between the current year assessed value of the homestead and the base year assessed value of the homestead, provided that such amount shall not exceed the total of the previous adjusted base year assessed value of the homestead multiplied by the inflation rate for the prior year plus 25 basis points; and

(C) The value of any substantial property change, provided that no such value added improvements to the homestead shall be duplicated as to the same addition or improvement.

(3) "Base year assessed value" means:

(A) With respect to an exemption under this section which is first granted to a person on such person's homestead for the 2026 taxable year, the assessed value for taxable year 2024, including any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311 of the O.C.G.A., of the homestead; or

(B) In all other cases, the assessed value, including any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311 of the O.C.G.A., of the homestead from the taxable year immediately preceding the taxable year in which the exemption under this section is first granted to the applicant.

(4) "Homestead" means homestead as defined and qualified in Code Section 48-5-40 of the O.C.G.A., as amended.

(5) "Inflation rate" means the annual inflationary index rate as determined for a given year by the commissioner of revenue in accordance with subsection (f) of this section.

(7) "Substantial property change" means any increase or decrease in the assessed value of a homestead derived from additions or improvements to, or the removal of real property from, the homestead which occurred after the year in which the base year assessed value is determined for the homestead. The assessed value of the substantial property changes shall be established following any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311 of the O.C.G.A.

(b)(1) Subject to the limitations provided in this section, each resident of the City of Social Circle is granted an exemption on that person's homestead from ad valorem taxes in an amount equal to the amount by which the current year assessed value of that homestead, including any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311, exceeds its previous adjusted base year assessed value.

(c) No person shall receive the exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section unless such person or person's agent files an application with the governing authority of the City of Social Circle or its designee as will enable the governing authority of the City of Social Circle or its designee to make a determination regarding the initial and continuing eligibility of such person for such exemption; provided, however, that any person who had previously applied for a homestead exemption, was allowed such homestead exemption for the 2025 tax year, and remains eligible for a homestead exemption for that same homestead property in the 2026 tax year shall be automatically allowed the exemption granted under subsection (b) of this section for that homestead without further application. The governing authority of the City of Social Circle or its designee shall provide application forms for this purpose.

(d) The exemption shall be claimed and returned as provided in Code Section 48-5-50.1 of the O.C.G.A., as amended. After such person has filed the proper application as provided in subsection (c) of this section, it shall not be necessary to make application thereafter for any year, and such exemption shall continue to be allowed to such person. In any such event, the governing authority of the City of Social Circle or its designee shall apply only the base year value homestead exemption that is larger or more beneficial for the taxpayer with respect to the City of Social Circle.

(f) For the purposes of this section, the commissioner of revenue shall promulgate a standardized method for determining annual inflationary index rates which reflect the effects of inflation and deflation on the cost of living for residents of this state for a given calendar year. Such method may utilize the Consumer Price Index as reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor or any other similar index established by the federal government if the commissioner of revenue determines that such federal index fairly reflects the effects of inflation and deflation on residents of this state.

(g) The exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section shall apply to all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2026.

SECTION 2.

In accordance with the requirements of Article VII, Section II of the Constitution of the State of Georgia, this Act shall not become law unless it receives the requisite two-thirds' majority vote in both the Senate and the House of Representatives.

If the court finds that the election superintendent has not complied with this section, the court shall fashion appropriate relief requiring the election superintendent to call and conduct such election on the date required by this section or on the next date authorized for special elections provided for in Code Section 21-2-540 of the O.C.G.A.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

(a) As used in this Act, the term:

(1) "Ad valorem taxes" means all ad valorem taxes levied by, for, or on behalf of the City of Monroe for municipal purposes, except for any ad valorem taxes levied to pay interest on and to retire bonded indebtedness.

(2) "Adjusted base year assessed value" means the sum of:

(A) The previous adjusted base year assessed value;

(B) An amount equal to the difference between the current year assessed value of the homestead and the base year assessed value of the homestead, provided that such amount shall not exceed the total of the previous adjusted base year assessed value of the homestead multiplied by the inflation rate for the prior year plus 25 basis points; and

(C) The value of any substantial property change, provided that no such value added improvements to the homestead shall be duplicated as to the same addition or improvement.

(3) "Base year assessed value" means:

(A) With respect to an exemption under this section which is first granted to a person on such person's homestead for the 2026 taxable year, the assessed value for taxable year 2024, including any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311 of the O.C.G.A., of the homestead; or

(B) In all other cases, the assessed value, including any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311 of the O.C.G.A., of the homestead from the taxable year immediately preceding the taxable year in which the exemption under this section is first granted to the applicant.

(4) "Homestead" means homestead as defined and qualified in Code Section 48-5-40 of the O.C.G.A., as amended.

(5) "Inflation rate" means the annual inflationary index rate as determined for a given year by the commissioner of revenue in accordance with subsection (f) of this section.

(6) "Previous adjusted base year assessed value" means:

(A) With respect to the year for which the exemption under this section is first granted to a person on such person's homestead, the base year assessed value; or

(B) In all other cases, the adjusted base year assessed value of the homestead as calculated in the taxable year immediately preceding the current year, including any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311 of the O.C.G.A.

(7) "Substantial property change" means any increase or decrease in the assessed value of a homestead derived from additions or improvements to, or the removal of real property from, the homestead which occurred after the year in which the base year assessed value is determined for the homestead. The assessed value of the substantial property changes shall be established following any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311 of the O.C.G.A.

(b)(1) Subject to the limitations provided in this section, each resident of the City of Monroe is granted an exemption on that person's homestead from ad valorem taxes in an amount equal to the amount by which the current year assessed value of that homestead, including any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311, exceeds its previous adjusted base year assessed value.

(2) Except as provided for in subsection (c) of this section, no exemption provided for in this subsection shall transfer to any subsequent owner of the property, and the assessed value of the property shall be as provided by law.

(c) No person shall receive the exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section unless such person or person's agent files an application with the governing authority of the City of Monroe, or its designee as will enable the governing authority of the City of Monroe, or its designee to make a determination regarding the initial and continuing eligibility of such person for such exemption; provided, however, that any person who had previously applied for a homestead exemption, was allowed such homestead exemption for the 2025 tax year, and remains eligible for a homestead exemption for that same homestead property in the 2026 tax year shall be automatically allowed the exemption granted under subsection (b) of this section for that homestead without further application. The governing authority of the City of Monroe, or its designee shall provide application forms for this purpose.

(d) The exemption shall be claimed and returned as provided in Code Section 48-5-50.1 of the O.C.G.A., as amended. The exemption shall be automatically renewed from year to year so long as the person granted the homestead exemption under subsection (b) of this section occupies the residence as a homestead. After such person has filed the proper application as provided in subsection (c) of this section, it shall not be necessary to make application thereafter for any year, and such exemption shall continue to be allowed to such person. It shall be the duty of any such person granted the homestead exemption under subsection (b) of this section to notify the governing authority of the City of Monroe, or its designee in the event that such person for any reason becomes ineligible for such exemption. The surviving spouse of the person who has been granted the exemption provided for in subsection (b) of this section shall continue to receive the exemption provided under subsection (b) of this section, so long as that surviving spouse continues to occupy the home as a residence and homestead.

(e)(1) The exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section shall not apply to or affect any state ad valorem taxes, county ad valorem taxes for county purposes, or county or independent school district ad valorem taxes for educational purposes.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (3) of this subsection, the homestead exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any other homestead exemption applicable to ad valorem taxes.

(3) The homestead exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section shall not be applied in addition to any other base year value homestead exemption provided by law with respect to the City of Monroe. In any such event, the governing authority of the City of Monroe, or its designee shall apply only the base year value homestead exemption that is larger or more beneficial for the taxpayer with respect to the City of Monroe.

(f) For the purposes of this section, the commissioner of revenue shall promulgate a standardized method for determining annual inflationary index rates which reflect the effects of inflation and deflation on the cost of living for residents of this state for a given calendar year. Such method may utilize the Consumer Price Index as reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor or any other similar index established by the federal government if the commissioner of revenue determines that such federal index fairly reflects the effects of inflation and deflation on residents of this state.

(g) The exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section shall apply to all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2026.

SECTION 2.

In accordance with the requirements of Article VII, Section II of the Constitution of the State of Georgia, this Act shall not become law unless it receives the requisite two-thirds' majority vote in both the Senate and the House of Representatives.

SECTION 3.

The municipal election superintendent of the City of Monroe shall call and conduct an election as provided in this section for the purpose of submitting this Act to the electors of the City of Monroe for approval or rejection. The election superintendent shall conduct that election on the Tuesday following the first Monday in November of 2025 and shall

( ) NO equal to the amount by which the current year assessed value of a homestead exceeds the adjusted base year assessed value, including any final determination of value on appeal pursuant to Code Section 48-5-311 of the O.C.G.A., as amended, of such homestead?"

All persons desiring to vote for approval of the Act shall vote "Yes," and all persons desiring to vote for rejection of the Act shall vote "No." If more than one-half of the votes cast on such question are for approval of the Act, Section 1 of this Act shall become of full force and effect on January 1, 2026. If the Act is not so approved or if the election is not conducted as provided in this section, Section 1 of this Act shall not become effective, and this Act shall be automatically repealed on the 365th calendar day following the election date provided for in this section. The expense of such election shall be borne by the City of Monroe. It shall be the election superintendent's duty to certify the result thereof to the Secretary of State. The provisions of this section shall be mandatory upon the election superintendent and are not intended as directory. If the election superintendent fails or refuses to comply with this section, any elector of the City of Monroe may apply for a writ of mandamus to compel the election superintendent to perform his or her duties under this section. If the court finds that the election superintendent has not complied with this section, the court shall fashion appropriate relief requiring the election superintendent to call and conduct such election on the date required by this section or on the next date authorized for special elections provided for in Code Section 21-2-540 of the O.C.G.A.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

PART I
SECTION 1-1.

This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Timberlands Recovery, Exemption, and Earnings Stability (TREES) Act."

SECTION 1-2.

The General Assembly finds that:

(1) Hurricane Helene has had a catastrophic impact on the citizens and the economy of many areas in this state, has particularly devastated the timber industry on which the citizens of southwest Georgia are heavily dependent for their livelihood by reducing or eliminating the long-held investments in standing timber and timberlands of businesses and families, and has created both a public fire hazard and a danger of insect infestations due to the massive amounts of downed timber caused by the severity of this natural disaster;

(2) As of November, 2024, the estimated losses to standing timber caused by Hurricane Helene as measured by the State Forestry Commission were nearly $1.3 billion;

(3) Timberlands as investments are unique as an agriculture product in this state, as timber products often take ten years or longer to realize any return on the investment;

(4) Many counties, municipalities, and local school districts rely on the taxes levied at the time of timber's harvest or sale pursuant to Code Section 48-5-7.5, but with the destruction of timberlands throughout this state, that tax revenue will likely not be realized; and

(5) It is the intent of the General Assembly to authorize local governing authorities to provide temporary tax relief from the taxes levied pursuant to Code 48-5-7.5 so that the timber industry, and the businesses and families that provide timber products to such industry, will realize a reduced cost for growing new product and recovering from the devastating effects of Hurricane Helene. These reduced costs will help stabilize the market and allow for quicker harvesting and recovery of lands where some timber is still salvageable.

SECTION 1-3.

Title 48 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to revenue and taxation, is amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

"48-5-33.1.

(a) As used in this Code section, the term:

(2) 'Eligible governing authority' means the governing authority of any county, consolidated government, or municipality or the governing body of any county or independent board of education that is located in whole or in part in the disaster area.

(3) 'Eligible standing timber' means any timber which is subject to taxation pursuant to Code Section 48-5-7.5 that is on eligible timber property.

(4) 'Eligible timber property' means any parcel, tract, stand, or other identifiable unit of property that:

(A) Contains standing timber which would, in the ordinary course of business, be sold or harvested;

(b) Pursuant to Article VII, Section I, Paragraph III(h) of the Constitution of Georgia and in accordance with the provisions of this Code section, an eligible governing authority may grant temporary tax relief from taxes levied for eligible standing timber pursuant to Code Section 48-5-7.5 during:

(1) The final quarter of 2024; and

(2) Each quarter of 2025.

(c) To grant the temporary tax relief authorized by subsection (b) of this Code section, an eligible governing authority shall adopt a resolution or ordinance that:

(1) Declares that its jurisdiction contains eligible timber property;

(2) Consents to grant the tax relief provided under this Code section;

(3) Requires that taxpayers seeking such tax relief submit the certification established pursuant to subsection (f) of this Code section and that such certification shall be accepted by the eligible governing authority; and

(d) Upon adoption of the resolution or ordinance provided under subsection (c) of this Code section, no taxpayer who submits the certification established pursuant to subsection (f) of this Code section shall be required to pay taxes otherwise levied pursuant to Code Section 48-5-7.5 for eligible standing timber during the final quarter of 2024 or during any quarter of 2025.

(e) In the event taxes were levied and paid by a taxpayer pursuant to Code Section 48-5-7.5 for eligible standing timber during the final quarter of 2024 or during any quarter of 2025, the eligible governing authority to which such taxes were payable or collected shall provide that a refund be issued to such taxpayer for the total amount paid in the same manner as otherwise provided under Code Section 48-5-380. If such taxes were levied but unpaid, the eligible governing authority to which such taxes are payable or collected shall waive payment and collection as provided in the resolution or ordinance adopted pursuant to subsection (c) of this Code section, and shall be provided by the tax collector or tax commissioner an updated tax bill reflecting that the amount is no longer due.

(f)(1) A certification form shall be established by the State Forestry Commission in consultation with the commissioner and Association County Commissioners of Georgia within ten days of the effective of this Code section. In addition to requiring necessary identification and location information, such certification shall:

(A) Require such taxpayer to declare that their otherwise taxable property is eligible standing timber;

(B) Require such taxpayer to declare that they are making a claim for temporary tax relief for eligible standing timber pursuant to this Code section; and

(3) The State Forestry Commission shall distribute or otherwise make available such certification form to taxpayers.

(g) The State Forestry Commission is authorized to conduct audits of property for compliance with this Code section at the request of the tax collector or tax commissioner for an eligible governing authority. In the event the State Forestry Commission conducts an audit and finds that the temporary tax relief granted to a taxpayer pursuant to this Code section was improper, the State Forestry Commission shall report such findings to the tax collector or tax commissioner who may pursue all remedies available by law as necessary to recapture the tax that would have been due but for being wrongfully claimed by a taxpayer.

(h) Any temporary tax relief approved or allowed under this Code section shall be paid from funds of the eligible governing authority to which the taxes were or were to have been paid.

(i)(1) For the purpose of offsetting an eligible governing authority's revenue loss in the final quarter of 2024 and any quarter of 2025 due to the destruction of eligible standing timber in the disaster area and the temporary tax relief authorized pursuant to this Code section, the commissioner shall, subject to an appropriation by the General Assembly specifically referencing the provisions of this Code section, provide a grant to each eligible governing authority that has consented to grant the temporary tax relief authorized pursuant to this Code section.

(2) A grant provided for in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be allotted to each eligible governing authority based on:

(A) The governing authority's estimated revenue loss as described in paragraph (1) of this subsection;

(B) The revenue received by such governing authority pursuant to Code Section 48-5-7.5 in each of the preceding three years; and

(C) The estimated damage to eligible standing timber in the jurisdiction as provided in the Hurricane Helene Timber Damage Assessment published by the State Forestry Commission on November 5, 2024, or other reliable data from the State Forestry Commission.

(3) No grant to an eligible governing authority provided pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection shall exceed the average of the total revenue received by such governing authority pursuant to Code Section 48-5-7.5 in 2021, 2022, and 2023.

(j)(1) The grants provided pursuant to subsection (i) of this Code section shall not be included in the calculation of the equalized adjusted property tax digest under Code Section 48-5-274 for the purpose of calculating the required local five mill share for school funding purposes under Code Section 20-2-164.

(2) The temporary tax relief authorized pursuant to this Code section shall not affect the requirement provided for in paragraph (2) of subsection (m) of Code Section 48-5-7.5 that the fair market value of timber harvested or sold be added to a digest and be included in the calculation of the equalized adjusted property tax digest under Code Section 48-5-274 for the purpose of calculating the required local five mill share for school funding purposes under Code Section 20-2-164.

(k)(1) The commissioner, tax collectors, and tax commissioners shall be authorized to consult with the State Forestry Commission to implement the provisions of this Code section.

(2) The State Forestry Commission shall establish criteria for determining whether timber property is severely damaged or destroyed. In establishing such criteria, such commission may consider:

(A) The average damage sustained throughout the timber property;

(B) Whether the timber property has adequate remaining trees per acre to maintain viable timber property; and

(C) The risk of insect and disease damage to the timber property as a result of the disaster.

(l) The commissioner may promulgate any rules and regulations necessary to implement and administer the provisions this Code section."

PART II
SECTION 2-1.

Said title is further amended in Code Section 48-7-27, relating to computation of taxable net income, by adding new paragraphs to subsection (a) to read as follows:

"(11.3) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2025, and ending on or before December 31, 2029, income received as payments from a federal disaster relief or assistance grant program administered by this state or its instrumentalities or the United States Department of Agriculture, if such federal grant program was established specifically to address agricultural losses suffered due to Hurricane Helene which was a weather event declared to be a major disaster in this state by the President of the United States during the 2024 calendar year, to the extent such income is included in federal adjusted gross income or federal taxable income;

(11.4) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2025, and ending on or before December 31, 2025, federal crop insurance proceeds received for the destruction or damage to crops due to Hurricane Helene which was a weather event declared to be a major disaster in this state by the President of the United States during the 2024 calendar year, to the extent such proceeds are included in federal adjusted gross income or federal taxable income;"

SECTION 2-2.

Said title is further amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

"48-7-40.37.

(a)(1) The General Assembly finds and determines that Hurricane Helene has had a catastrophic impact on the citizens and the economy of Georgia, has particularly devastated the timber industry on which the citizens of Georgia are heavily dependent for their livelihood, and has created both a public fire hazard and a danger of insect infestations due to the massive amounts of downed timber caused by the severity of this natural disaster.

(2) The General Assembly further finds and declares that it is appropriate and advisable to provide relief to the timber industry in the form of a tax credit targeted to those taxpayers that have suffered substantial economic losses and that will have to incur significant expenses for salvaging downed timber, site clearance, restoration, and reforestation over the coming years.

(b) As used in this Code section, the term:

(1) 'Disaster area' means the real property encompassed by the borders of the 66 counties included in the renewal of the State of Emergency pronounced in the Executive Order of the Governor dated October 29, 2024, and filed in the official records of the office of the Governor as Executive Order No. 10.29.24.01.

(2) 'Eligible timber property' means timber which on September 24, 2024, was being grown by a taxpayer in a disaster area as part of a trade or business or a transaction entered into for profit.

(3) 'Timber' means trees grown for the primary purpose of commercial production of food or wood or wood fiber products.

(4) 'Timber casualty loss' means the amount of the diminution of value included in the computation of the casualty loss deduction for such casualty losses claimed and allowed pursuant to Section 165 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as casualty losses incurred by a taxpayer between September 24, 2024, and December 31, 2024, as a result of damage to or destruction of eligible timber property caused by Hurricane Helene.

(c)(1) A taxpayer shall be allowed tax credits against the tax imposed by this article in an amount equal to 100 percent of such taxpayer's timber casualty loss; provided, however, that the credit amount shall not exceed the number of the taxpayer's affected acres of eligible timber property in such disaster areas multiplied by $550.00.

(2) To be allowed such tax credits, a taxpayer shall submit an application for preapproval of such credits based on timber casualty losses incurred by such taxpayer by December 31, 2025.

(d)(1) The commissioner shall require preapproval applications to contain such information as is necessary to substantiate a taxpayer's eligibility for tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section.

(2) The commissioner is authorized to require electronic submission of preapproval applications in the manner specified by the commissioner.

(3) The commissioner shall review completed preapproval applications in the order in which such applications were submitted and shall provide notice to each taxpayer that submitted an application within 30 days of receipt stating whether such taxpayer's application is complete or incomplete.

(4) In no event shall the commissioner preapprove tax credits pursuant to this Code section in an amount that exceeds $200 million in aggregate.

(5) In the event that properly completed and timely submitted preapproval applications are submitted for an amount that exceeds the amount of funds available to fully fund the tax credits requested, the commissioner shall prorate the available funds between or among the applicants.

(6) The commissioner shall approve properly completed and timely submitted preapproval applications and issue a preapproval certificate to the taxpayer by January 31, 2026, certifying the amount of credits such taxpayer is eligible to claim if the taxpayer meets the conditions of this Code section.

(e) In no event shall the amount of the tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section exceed $200 million in aggregate.

(f)(1)(A) Tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section shall be eligible to be claimed only by the taxpayer to which the commissioner issued a preapproval certificate.

(B) Tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section shall only be claimed in the taxable year in which the taxpayer first completes:

(i) The restoration of each acre for which timber casualty losses were incurred to a condition that has an adequately stocked stand that is expected to result in forest products or ecological services in the foreseeable future; or

(ii) The replanting of timber in a quantity projected to yield at maturity at least 90 percent of the value of the timber casualty loss claimed. Such timber shall be planted within the same county in which the eligible timber property was being grown when the timber casualty loss was incurred. Timber market conditions as of September 25, 2024, shall be used for the purposes of establishing projected value.

(2) To claim tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section, a taxpayer shall attach to such taxpayer's state tax return certification from the taxpayer that the requirements of this Code section have been met and any other information required by the commissioner, including information which demonstrates that it has completed the restoration or replanting of timber required pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(3) Any tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section shall be claimed on or before December 31, 2030.

(g)(1) The total amount of the tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section for a taxable year may exceed the taxpayer's income tax liability. Such tax credits allowed in excess of a taxpayer's income tax liability shall be refundable to such taxpayer, provided that such taxpayer is the same taxpayer that incurred the timber casualty loss.

(2) Tax credits claimed pursuant to this Code section but not used in any taxable year may be carried forward for ten years from the close of the taxable year in which the credits are claimed.

(h) Tax credits claimed pursuant to this Code section but neither used by the taxpayer against its income tax liability nor refunded may be transferred or sold one time to one single other Georgia taxpayer, subject to the following conditions:

(1) Only the taxpayer that claimed the tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section shall make the transfer or sale of such tax credits;

(2) The taxpayer that claimed the tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section shall submit to the commissioner written notification of any transfer or sale of such tax credits within 30 days after the transfer or sale of the tax credits. Such written notification shall include:

(A) Such taxpayer's credit balance prior to transfer;

(B) The credit certificate number;

(C) The remaining balance of credits after transfer;

(D) The tax identification number of the transferee;

(E) The date of transfer;

(F) The amount of credits transferred; and

(G) Other information as may be required by the department;

(3) Failure to comply with any provision of this subsection shall result in the disallowance of the tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section until the taxpayer that claimed the credits is in full compliance;

(4) The transfer or sale of the tax credits shall not extend the time during which such tax credits may be used. The carry-forward period for tax credits that are transferred or sold shall begin on the date on which such tax credits were originally claimed;

(5) A transferee shall have only such rights to claim and use the tax credits that were available to the transferor at the time of the transfer; provided, however, that a transferee shall not be eligible to transfer or receive a refund of such tax credits. To the extent that the transferor did not have rights to claim or use the tax credits at the time of the transfer, the commissioner shall disallow the tax credits claimed by the transferee or recapture the tax credits from the transferee or transferor. The transferee's recourse shall not be against the commissioner; and

(6) The transferee shall acquire the tax credits allowed pursuant to this Code section for a minimum of 60 percent of the amount of the tax credits so transferred.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

Code Section 15-6-2 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to the number of judges of superior courts, is amended by revising paragraph (1) as follows:

"(1) Alapaha Circuit ..... ~~2~~ 3"

SECTION 2.

The additional judge of the superior courts of the Alapaha Judicial Circuit provided for in this Act shall be appointed by the Governor for a term beginning January 1, 2026, and expiring December 31, 2028, and until a successor is elected and qualified. At the nonpartisan judicial election to be held in 2028, there shall be elected a successor to such additional judge appointed as provided for in this section, and he or she shall take office on the first day of January, 2029, and serve for a term of office of four years and until a successor is duly elected and qualified. All subsequent successors to such judge shall be elected at the nonpartisan judicial election conducted in the year in which the term of office of such judge shall expire and serve for a term of four years and until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified. (b) The Georgia Student Finance Authority shall be authorized to provide for eligibility criteria and grant amounts as determined to be the most appropriate for particular eligible postsecondary institutions and its student population in accordance with this part and the rules and regulations of the Georgia Student Finance Authority. The Georgia Student Finance Authority shall also establish criteria necessary for eligible students to continue to receive such grants in accordance with this part.

(c) The Georgia Student Finance Authority may contract with a grant coordinating organization authorized to do business in this state to implement and administer the Georgia Foster Care Scholarship program; provided, however, that such contract shall require the grant coordinating organization to ensure that 100 percent of funds appropriated for such program shall be expended on grants to eligible students.

(d) The Georgia Student Finance Authority is authorized to define such terms and prescribe such rules, regulations, and procedures as may be reasonable and necessary to carry out the purposes of this part.

20-3-673.

(a) Subject to appropriations made specifically for the purposes of this part, to receive a Georgia Foster Care Scholarship, an eligible student shall:

(1) Complete a simplified application process established by the Georgia Student Finance Authority, which shall include completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine the level of need and eligibility for state and federal financial aid programs;

(2) Remain in good standing with the eligible postsecondary institution in which he or she is enrolled or to which he or she has been accepted for admission;

(3) Maintain satisfactory academic progress in accordance with the standards and practices used for federal Title IV programs by the eligible postsecondary institution at which the student is enrolled; and

(4) Comply with the rules, regulations, and procedures prescribed by the Georgia Student Finance Authority in accordance with this part.

(b)(1) The total per-semester amount of a Georgia Foster Care Scholarship awarded to each eligible student shall not exceed the costs of the eligible student's tuition, room, board, meal plan, and books associated with his or her matriculation at such student's eligible postsecondary institution less an amount equal to the total of any federal or other state grants, scholarships, or tuition waivers for which he or she is eligible to receive.

(2) The total per-year amount of a Georgia Foster Care Scholarship awarded to each eligible student shall not exceed $30,000.00.

(c) An eligible student may continue to receive a Georgia Foster Care Scholarship until the first of these events:

(1) The student has earned a bachelor's degree;

(2) The student has attempted at any postsecondary institution a total of 190 quarter hours or 127 semester hours; or

(3) The student has received the Georgia Foster Care Scholarship for ten years.

(d) In the event a student on whose behalf a Georgia Foster Care Scholarship is paid does not enroll as a full-time or part-time student for the academic semester for which the scholarship is paid, the eligible postsecondary institution shall make a refund to the Georgia Student Finance Authority in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Georgia Student Finance Authority.

Each eligible postsecondary institution shall be subject to examination by the Georgia Student Finance Authority for the sole purpose of determining whether such institution has properly certified the cost of attendance, eligibility, and enrollment of students; accurately credited grants paid on behalf of such students; and properly complied with the rules and regulations established pursuant to this part; provided, however, that nothing in this part shall be construed to interfere with the authority of such institution to determine admissibility of students or to control its own curriculum, philosophy, purpose, or administration. In the event it is determined that an eligible postsecondary institution knowingly or through error certified an ineligible student to be eligible for a grant under this part, the amount of the grant paid to such institution pursuant to such certification shall be refunded by such institution to the Georgia Student Finance Authority. The Georgia Student Finance Authority may suspend an eligible postsecondary institution from receiving payments under this part if it fails to refund any moneys as required by this part.

Any person applying for a grant under this part or assisting a person applying for a grant under this part who knowingly makes or furnishes any false statement or misrepresentation for the purpose of enabling an ineligible student to wrongfully obtain a grant under this part shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

20-3-676.
The Georgia Student Finance Authority shall be authorized to monitor, collect, and evaluate enrollment and student record data for the grant program established pursuant to this part. The Office of Planning and Budget, the Department of Education, and eligible postsecondary institutions shall cooperate with and provide data as necessary to the Georgia Student Finance Authority to facilitate the provisions of this Code section."

SECTION 2.

This Act shall become effective only if the Georgia Foster Care Scholarship program provided for in this Act is funded in an appropriations Act making specific reference to such program and shall become effective when funds so appropriated become available for expenditure.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To amend Title 21 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to elections, so as to establish the criminal offenses of fraudulent election interference and solicitation of such; to provide for definitions; to provide for exceptions; to provide for the Attorney General to have concurrent jurisdiction over such crimes; to provide for punishment; to provide for injunctive relief; to provide for the State Election Board to publish results of investigations into such offenses; to provide for certain disclaimers on campaign advertisements that use AI generated media; to provide for the form of such disclaimers; to provide for definitions; to provide for legislative findings and intent; to provide for related matters; to provide for an effective date; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

PART I
SECTION 1-1.

The General Assembly finds:

(1) The significant and rapid increase in use and advancements of artificial intelligence and other sophisticated technologies poses a unique danger to the State of Georgia's free and fair system of elections;

(2) Artificial intelligence and other technologies now allow individuals, both in good faith and bad faith, to create AI generated media that falsely depicts conduct that appears to be real;

(3) The state and its citizens have the utmost rights to both free and fair elections and freedom of speech; and

(4) This Act is narrowly tailored for the purpose of protection against the use of deceptive media in bad faith to influence elections by reducing certain candidates' chances of being elected or by suppressing voter turnout through mass confusion.

PART II
SECTION 2-1.

Title 21 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to elections, is amended in Chapter 2, relating to elections and primaries generally, by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

"21-2-605.

(a) As used in this Code section, the term:

(1) 'Election' shall have the same meaning as provided in Code Section 21-5-3.

(2) 'Materially deceptive media' means a video recording, video file, audio recording, or audio file, still image, or still image file that:

(A) Appears to depict a real individual's speech or conduct that did not occur in reality; and

(B) Would appear to a reasonable observer to be authentic.

(3) 'Person' means any employee, staff member, or other similarly affiliated individual of a political party, political body, candidate, campaign committee, political action committee, or any other political committee. Such term shall not include a broadcaster, cable provider, online service, internet service provider, streaming platform, or any employees or agents thereof, who otherwise would not fall under this definition of person except for their sale of advertising to a person as defined in this paragraph.

(b) A person commits the offense of fraudulent election interference if he or she, with knowledge of its falsity, publishes, broadcasts, streams, or uploads materially deceptive media within 90 days of an election with the intent to deceive one or more electors for the purpose of:

(1) Significantly influencing a candidate's chance of being elected in such election;

(2) Creating confusion about the administration of such election; or

(3) Otherwise influencing the result of such referendum.

(c) A person commits the offense of solicitation of fraudulent election interference when he or she, with the intent that a violation proscribed by subsection (b) of this Code section be committed, commands, encourages, or requests any individual to commit a violation proscribed by subsection (b) of this Code section.

(d) Nothing in this Code section shall apply to activities protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, including, but not limited to, satire, parody, works of artistic expression, or works of journalism by bona fide news organizations.

(e) Upon conviction of an offense under this Code section, a person shall be punished as follows:

(1) For the first offense, he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and

(2) For the second or subsequent offense, he or she shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than two years nor more than five years and by a fine not to exceed $50,000.00.

(f) For prosecutions under this Code section, venue shall be proper in any county in this state where:

(1) Any act was committed in furtherance of the unlawful conduct;

(2) The candidate affected by the alleged violation resides;

(3) The defendant resided at the time of the alleged violation; or

(4) The materially deceptive media is received.

(g) The Attorney General shall have concurrent jurisdiction to conduct the criminal prosecution of a violation of this Code section. A criminal prosecution for a violation of this Code section shall only be initiated upon the Attorney General receiving a recommendation to prosecute from the State Election Board.

(h) In addition to any other remedy provided by law, a cause of action for injunctive relief may be maintained against any person who is in violation of this Code section, by:

(1) An individual depicted in the materially deceptive media;

(2) The Attorney General; or

(3) A candidate for office who has been injured or is likely to be injured by the distribution of the materially deceptive media."

SECTION 2-2.

Said chapter is further amended in Code Section 21-2-31, relating to duties of the State Election Board, by revising paragraph (5) as follows:

"(5) To investigate, or authorize the Secretary of State to investigate, when necessary or advisable the administration of primary and election laws and frauds and irregularities in primaries and elections and to report violations of the primary and election laws either to the Attorney General or the appropriate district attorney who shall be responsible for further investigation and prosecution. Except as provided in Code Section 21-2-605, nothing ~~Nothing~~ in this paragraph shall be so construed as to require any complaining party to request an investigation by the board before such party might proceed to seek any other remedy available to that party under this chapter or any other provision of law;"

SECTION 2-3.

Said chapter is further amended in Code Section 21-2-33.1, relating to enforcement of chapter, suspension of election superintendents, and support and assistance from the Secretary of State, by adding a new subsection to read as follows:

"(a.1) In any investigation stemming from an alleged violation of Code Section 21-2-605, the State Election Board shall release to the public the findings of any completed investigation."

SECTION 2-4.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To amend Title 21 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to elections, so as to establish the criminal offenses of fraudulent election interference and solicitation of such; to provide for definitions; to provide for exceptions; to provide for the Attorney General to have concurrent jurisdiction over such crimes; to provide for punishment; to provide for injunctive relief; to provide for the State Election Board to publish results of investigations into such offenses; to provide for certain disclaimers on campaign advertisements that use AI generated media; to provide for the form of such disclaimers; to provide for definitions; to provide for legislative findings and intent; to provide for related matters; to provide for an effective date; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

PART I
SECTION 1-1.

The General Assembly finds:

(1) The significant and rapid increase in use and advancements of artificial intelligence and other sophisticated technologies poses a unique danger to the State of Georgia's free and fair system of elections;

(2) Artificial intelligence and other technologies now allow individuals, both in good faith and bad faith, to create AI generated media that falsely depicts conduct that appears to be real;

(3) The state and its citizens have the utmost rights to both free and fair elections and freedom of speech; and

(4) This Act is narrowly tailored for the purpose of protection against the use of deceptive media in bad faith to influence elections by reducing certain candidates' chances of being elected or by suppressing voter turnout through mass confusion.

PART II
SECTION 2-1.

Title 21 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to elections, is amended in Chapter 2, relating to elections and primaries generally, by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

"21-2-605.

(a) As used in this Code section, the term:

(1) 'Election' shall have the same meaning as provided in Code Section 21-5-3.

(2) 'Materially deceptive media' means a video recording, video file, audio recording, or audio file, still image, or still image file that:

(A) Appears to depict a real individual's speech or conduct that did not occur in reality; and

(B) Would appear to a reasonable observer to be authentic.

(3) 'Person' means any employee, staff member, or other similarly affiliated individual of a political party, political body, candidate, campaign committee, political action committee, or any other political committee. Such term shall not include a broadcaster, cable provider, online service, internet service provider, streaming platform, or any employees or agents thereof, who otherwise would not fall under this definition of person except for their sale of advertising to a person as defined in this paragraph.

(b) A person commits the offense of fraudulent election interference if he or she, with knowledge of its falsity, publishes, broadcasts, streams, or uploads materially deceptive media within 90 days of an election with the intent to deceive one or more electors for the purpose of:

(1) Significantly influencing a candidate's chance of being elected in such election;

(2) Creating confusion about the administration of such election; or

(3) Otherwise influencing the result of such referendum.

(c) A person commits the offense of solicitation of fraudulent election interference when he or she, with the intent that a violation proscribed by subsection (b) of this Code section be committed, commands, encourages, or requests any individual to commit a violation proscribed by subsection (b) of this Code section.

(d) Nothing in this Code section shall apply to activities protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, including, but not limited to, satire, parody, works of artistic expression, or works of journalism by bona fide news organizations.

(e) Upon conviction of an offense under this Code section, a person shall be punished as follows:

(1) For the first offense, he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and

(2) For the second or subsequent offense, he or she shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than two years nor more than five years and by a fine not to exceed $50,000.00.

(f) For prosecutions under this Code section, venue shall be proper in any county in this state where:

(1) Any act was committed in furtherance of the unlawful conduct;

(2) The candidate affected by the alleged violation resides;

(3) The defendant resided at the time of the alleged violation; or

(4) The materially deceptive media is received.

(g) The Attorney General shall have concurrent jurisdiction to conduct the criminal prosecution of a violation of this Code section. A criminal prosecution for a violation of this Code section shall only be initiated upon the Attorney General receiving a recommendation to prosecute from the State Election Board.

(h) In addition to any other remedy provided by law, a cause of action for injunctive relief may be maintained against any person who is in violation of this Code section, by:

(1) An individual depicted in the materially deceptive media;

(2) The Attorney General; or

(3) A candidate for office who has been injured or is likely to be injured by the distribution of the materially deceptive media."

SECTION 2-2.

Said chapter is further amended in Code Section 21-2-31, relating to duties of the State Election Board, by revising paragraph (5) as follows:

"(5) To investigate, or authorize the Secretary of State to investigate, when necessary or advisable the administration of primary and election laws and frauds and irregularities in primaries and elections and to report violations of the primary and election laws either to the Attorney General or the appropriate district attorney who shall be responsible for further investigation and prosecution. Except as provided in Code Section 21-2-605, nothing ~~Nothing~~ in this paragraph shall be so construed as to require any complaining party to request an investigation by the board before such party might proceed to seek any other remedy available to that party under this chapter or any other provision of law;"

SECTION 2-3.

Said chapter is further amended in Code Section 21-2-33.1, relating to enforcement of chapter, suspension of election superintendents, and support and assistance from the Secretary of State, by adding a new subsection to read as follows:

"(a.1) In any investigation stemming from an alleged violation of Code Section 21-2-605, the State Election Board shall release to the public the findings of any completed investigation."

SECTION 2-4.

Title 21 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to elections, is further amended in Chapter 5, relating to government transparency and campaign finance, by adding a new article to read as follows:

Such liability shall be paid upon notice and demand by the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative and shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as other fees or fines administered by the commissioner.
(c) Within 20 days of the date of the notice of intention to enter an order denying a registration or an amended registration, the applicant or registrant may request in writing a hearing to contest the order. If a hearing is not requested in writing within 20 days of the date of such notice of intention, the department shall enter a final order regarding the denial. Any final order of the department denying a registration or an amended registration shall state the grounds upon which it is based and shall be effective on the date of issuance. A copy of such order shall be forwarded promptly by mail addressed to the principal place of business of such applicant or registrant.

(d) A decision by the department denying a registration or an amended registration shall be subject to review in accordance with Chapter 13 of Title 50, the 'Georgia Administrative Procedure Act.'

(a) A litigation financier shall not:

(1) Direct, or make any decisions with respect to, the course of any civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding for which such litigation financier has provided litigation financing, or any settlement or other disposition thereof. Such prohibition includes, but is not limited to, decisions in appointing or changing legal representatives, choice or use of expert witnesses, and litigation strategy. All rights to make decisions with respect to the course and settlement or other disposition of the subject civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding shall remain solely with the parties to such action, claim, or proceedings and their legal representatives. The provisions of this paragraph shall be strictly construed in favor of the individual or entity receiving litigation financing and against the litigation financier;

(2) Pay or offer commissions, referral fees, rebates, or other forms of consideration to any person, including, but not limited to, an attorney or any employee of an attorney or a law firm, in exchange for referring a consumer or such consumer's legal representative to a litigation financier; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not apply to an employee, agent, or affiliate of the litigation financier;

(3) Accept any commissions, referral fees, rebates, or other forms of consideration from any person, including, but not limited to, an attorney or any employee of an attorney or a law firm, for providing any goods or rendering any services to the consumer; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not apply to an employee, agent, or affiliate of the litigation financier;

(4) Contract for, receive, or recover, whether directly or indirectly, any amount greater than an amount equal to the share of the proceeds collectively recovered by the plaintiffs or claimants in a civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding seeking to recover monetary damages financed by a litigation financing agreement after the payment of any attorney's fees and costs owed in connection to such action, claim, or proceedings;

(5) Advertise false or misleading information regarding its products or services;

(6) Refer or require any consumer to hire or engage any person providing any goods or rendering any services to the consumer;

(7) Fail to promptly deliver a fully completed and signed litigation financing contract to the consumer and the consumer's legal representative;

(8) Attempt to secure a remedy or obtain a waiver of any remedy, including, but not limited to, compensatory, statutory, or punitive damages, that the consumer may or may not be entitled to pursue or recover otherwise;

(9) Offer or provide legal advice to the consumer;

(10) Assign or securitize a litigation financing agreement in whole or in part; provided, however, that, if the litigation financier retains responsibility for collecting payment, administering, and otherwise enforcing the litigation funding contract, the prohibition provided in this paragraph shall not apply to an assignment:

(A) To a wholly owned subsidiary of the litigation financier;

(B) To an affiliate of the litigation financier that is under common control; or

(C) Granting a security interest under Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code or as otherwise permitted by law; or

(11) Report a consumer to a credit reporting agency if insufficient funds remain to repay the litigation financier in full from the proceeds received from any judgment, award, settlement, verdict, or other form of monetary relief obtained in a civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding that is the subject of the litigation financing agreement.

(b) No person that provides any goods or renders any services related to the litigation to the consumer shall have a financial interest in litigation financing provided by a litigation financier to such consumer, and no such person shall receive any commissions, referral fees, rebates, or other forms of consideration from any litigation financier or the litigation financier's agents, employees, owners, or affiliates.

(a) A litigation financier that agrees to provide $25,000.00 or more in funding pursuant to a litigation financing agreement shall be jointly and severally liable for any award or order imposing or assessing costs or monetary sanctions for frivolous litigation against a consumer, entity, or a legal representative of such consumer or entity arising from or relating to any civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding for which the litigation financier is providing litigation financing; provided, however, that where the litigation financier's right of repayment is a fixed amount set by contract, the liability of such litigation financier shall not exceed the right of repayment less the amount already extended.

(b) In each litigation financing contract, the litigation financier shall agree to indemnify, and shall indemnify even without such agreement, the plaintiffs and claimants to the civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding that is the subject of such litigation financing agreement and such plaintiffs' and claimants' legal representatives against any adverse costs, attorney's fees, damages, or sanctions that may be ordered or awarded against such persons in such action, claim, or proceedings; provided, however, that such indemnification shall not be required or enforceable for adverse costs, attorney's fees, damages, or sanctions that the litigation financier can show resulted from the intentional misconduct of such plaintiffs or claimants or their legal representatives.

(a) The terms and conditions of a litigation financing agreement shall be set forth in a fully completed, written litigation financing contract with no material terms or conditions omitted, and such contract shall contain all material terms and conditions at the time it is signed by any party, including, but not limited to the right to cancel such litigation financing agreement without penalty or further obligation within five business days from the date the litigation financing contract is executed by or on behalf of the consumer or the date litigation financing is received from the litigation financier, whichever date is later.

(b) Upon execution of a litigation financing contract, a litigation financier shall not amend the terms or conditions of the litigation financing agreement that is memorialized by such contract without full disclosure to and prior written consent of all parties to such litigation financing agreement.

(c) Each litigation financing contract with a consumer shall set forth the name, principal business address, and preferred mailing address of the litigation financier on the first page of such contract, and the following disclosures shall be typed in at least 14 point bold font and placed clearly and conspicuously immediately above the consumer's signature line in the litigation financing contract:

'IMPORTANT DISCLOSURES -- PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

1. Right to Cancellation: You, the consumer, or your legal representative may cancel this litigation financing agreement without penalty or further obligation within five (5) business days from the date you sign this contract or the date you receive financing from the litigation financier, whichever date is later. You or your legal representative may cancel this litigation financing agreement by sending a notice of cancellation to the litigation financier and returning to the litigation financier any funds received from the litigation financier at the litigation financier's preferred mailing address set forth on page 1 of this contract.

2. The maximum amount the litigation financier may receive or recover from any contingent payment provided for in this litigation financing agreement shall be no more than an amount equal to the share of the proceeds collectively recovered by the plaintiffs or claimants in a civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding seeking to recover monetary damages financed by this litigation financing agreement after the payment of any attorney's fees and costs owed in connection to such action, claim, or proceedings.

3. The litigation financier agrees that it has no right to, and will not demand, request, receive, or exercise any right to, influence, affect, or otherwise make any decision in the handling, conduct, administration, litigation, settlement, or resolution of your civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, other legal proceeding. All of these rights remain solely with you and your legal representative.

4. You, the consumer, are not required by the terms of this litigation financing agreement to continue to be represented by any particular legal representative, and the litigation financing agreement does not include any right for the litigation financier, any legal representative, or any other person to claim or seek to recover any assessment, charge, fee, penalty, or damages of any kind if you elect to change legal representatives at any time.

5. If there is no recovery of any money from your civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding, or if there is not enough money to satisfy in full the portion assigned to the litigation financier, you will not owe anything in excess of your recovery.

6. You are entitled to a fully completed litigation financing contract with no material terms or conditions omitted prior to signing. Before signing the litigation financing contract, or authorizing anyone to sign it on your behalf, you should read the contract completely and consult an attorney.'

(d) Only the consumer shall be authorized to execute a litigation financing contract on his or her own behalf, except in such cases where the consumer lacks the legal capacity to execute a contract. The consumer's legal representative in the civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding seeking to recover monetary damages financed by the corresponding litigation financing agreement shall not execute a litigation financing contract on behalf of the consumer. A litigation financing contract executed by such legal representative on behalf of such consumer shall be void and unenforceable as a matter of law.

(e) If the consumer is represented by a legal representative in the civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding that is the subject of the litigation financing agreement, the legal representative shall acknowledge in the litigation financing contract that the legal representative and the legal representative's employer and employees have not received or paid a commission, referral fee, rebate, or any other consideration from or to the litigation financier and have no obligation to do so in the future.

(f) If the consumer's legal representative is a party to a litigation financing agreement related to the consumer's civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding that is the subject of the consumer's litigation financing agreement, the legal representative shall disclose and deliver a copy of his or her litigation financing contract to the consumer. Following such disclosure and delivery, the consumer shall sign an acknowledgment that the consumer has read and understands the terms and conditions of his or her legal representative's litigation financing contract. Such consumer shall be provided with a copy of such signed acknowledgment.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) A nonprofit entity that provides litigation financing, directly or indirectly, for the benefit of such nonprofit entity or one or more of its members without receiving, in consideration for the litigation financing:

(A) The payment of interest, fees, or other consideration; or

(B) Except for in-house counsel of such nonprofit entity, any right to recovery or payment from the amount of any judgment, award, settlement, verdict, or other form of monetary relief obtained in the civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding;

(2) Any litigation financing provided by an entity engaged in commerce or business activity; provided, however, that this exemption shall apply only if such entity does not:

7-10-8.

Any violation of this chapter by a litigation financier renders the litigation financing agreement void and unenforceable by such litigation financier or any successor-in-interest to the litigation financing agreement.

(a) It is unlawful for a litigation financier to enter into or offer to enter into a litigation financing agreement unless such litigation financier is registered under this chapter.

(b) A person that willfully violates this chapter shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned not less than one nor more than five years, or fined not more than $10,000.00, or both; provided, however, that on the recommendation of the jury trying the case, when such recommendation is approved by the judge presiding on the trial, such crime shall be punished as a misdemeanor. If the judge trying the case deems it proper, such judge may, in fixing the punishment, reduce such felony to a misdemeanor.

(c) The commissioner may refer to the Attorney General or the proper prosecuting attorney the name of any person acting as a litigation financier that is not registered or any applicant or registrant that is or may not be in compliance with this chapter; provided, however, that the Attorney General or the proper prosecuting attorney may institute criminal proceedings under this chapter with or without such referral.

(d) This chapter does not limit the power of this state to punish a person for conduct that constitutes a crime under other laws of this state.

7-10-10.

(a) The department is authorized to:

(1) Participate in the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry in order to facilitate the sharing of information and standardization of the registration processes for litigation financiers by electronic or other means;

(5) Establish and adopt, by rule or regulation, requirements for participation by registrants in the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry upon the department's determination that each new or amended requirement is consistent with both the public interest and the purposes of this chapter; and

(6) Pay all fees received from applicants and registrants related to registrations to the Office of the State Treasurer; provided, however, that the department may net such fees to recover the cost of participation in the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry.

(b) Irrespective of its participation in the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry, the department retains full and exclusive authority over determinations whether to grant registrations to litigation financiers under this chapter. Nothing in this Code section shall be construed to reduce this authority.

(c) Applicants and registrants shall be required to pay any charges associated with their utilization of the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry.

The commissioner is authorized to adopt rules and other policies in overseeing the practice of litigation financing consistent with this chapter."

(4) Contract for, receive, or recover, whether directly or indirectly, any amount greater than an amount equal to the share of the proceeds collectively recovered by the plaintiffs or claimants in a civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding seeking to recover monetary damages financed by a litigation financing agreement after the payment of any attorney's fees and costs owed in connection to such action, claim, or proceedings;

(5) Advertise false or misleading information regarding its products or services;

(b) No person that provides any goods or renders any services related to the litigation to the consumer shall have a financial interest in litigation financing provided by a litigation financier to such consumer, and no such person shall receive any commissions, referral fees, rebates, or other forms of consideration from any litigation financier or the litigation financier's agents, employees, owners, or affiliates.

(a) A litigation financier that agrees to provide $25,000.00 or more in funding pursuant to a litigation financing agreement may be jointly and severally liable for any award or order imposing or assessing costs or monetary sanctions for frivolous litigation against a consumer, entity, or a legal representative of such consumer or entity arising from or relating to any civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding for which the litigation financier is providing litigation financing; provided, however, that where the litigation financier's right of repayment is a fixed amount set by contract, the liability of such litigation financier shall not exceed the right of repayment less the amount already extended.

(b) In each litigation financing contract, the litigation financier shall agree to indemnify, and shall indemnify even without such agreement, the plaintiffs and claimants to the civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding that is the subject of such litigation financing agreement and such plaintiffs' and claimants' legal representatives against any adverse costs, attorney's fees, damages, or sanctions that may be ordered or awarded against such persons in such action, claim, or proceedings; provided, however, that such indemnification shall not be required or enforceable for adverse costs, attorney's fees, damages, or sanctions that the litigation financier can show resulted from the intentional misconduct of such plaintiffs or claimants or their legal representatives.

(a) The terms and conditions of a litigation financing agreement shall be set forth in a fully completed, written litigation financing contract with no material terms or conditions omitted, and such contract shall contain all material terms and conditions at the time it is signed by any party, including, but not limited to the right to cancel such litigation financing agreement without penalty or further obligation within five business days from the date the litigation financing contract is executed by or on behalf of the consumer or the date litigation financing is received from the litigation financier, whichever date is later.

(b) Upon execution of a litigation financing contract, a litigation financier shall not amend the terms or conditions of the litigation financing agreement that is memorialized by such contract without full disclosure to and prior written consent of all parties to such litigation financing agreement.

(c) Each litigation financing contract with a consumer shall set forth the name, principal business address, and preferred mailing address of the litigation financier on the first page of such contract, and the following disclosures shall be typed in at least 14 point bold font and placed clearly and conspicuously immediately above the consumer's signature line in the litigation financing contract:

'IMPORTANT DISCLOSURES -- PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

1. Right to Cancellation: You, the consumer, or your legal representative may cancel this litigation financing agreement without penalty or further obligation within five (5) business days from the date you sign this contract or the date you receive financing from the litigation financier, whichever date is later. You or your legal representative may cancel this litigation financing agreement by sending a notice of cancellation to the litigation financier and returning to the litigation financier any funds received from the litigation financier at the litigation financier's preferred mailing address set forth on page 1 of this contract.

2. The maximum amount the litigation financier may receive or recover from any contingent payment provided for in this litigation financing agreement shall be no more than an amount equal to the share of the proceeds collectively recovered by the plaintiffs or claimants in a civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding seeking to recover monetary damages financed by this litigation financing agreement after the payment of any attorney's fees and costs owed in connection to such action, claim, or proceedings.

3. The litigation financier agrees that it has no right to, and will not demand, request, receive, or exercise any right to, influence, affect, or otherwise make any decision in the handling, conduct, administration, litigation, settlement, or resolution of your civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, other legal proceeding. All of these rights remain solely with you and your legal representative.

4. You, the consumer, are not required by the terms of this litigation financing agreement to continue to be represented by any particular legal representative, and the litigation financing agreement does not include any right for the litigation financier, any legal representative, or any other person to claim or seek to recover any assessment, charge, fee, penalty, or damages of any kind if you elect to change legal representatives at any time.

5. If there is no recovery of any money from your civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding, or if there is not enough money to satisfy in full the portion assigned to the litigation financier, you will not owe anything in excess of your recovery.

6. You are entitled to a fully completed litigation financing contract with no material terms or conditions omitted prior to signing. Before signing the litigation financing contract, or authorizing anyone to sign it on your behalf, you should read the contract completely and consult an attorney.'

(d) Only the consumer shall be authorized to execute a litigation financing contract on his or her own behalf, except in such cases where the consumer lacks the legal capacity to execute a contract. The consumer's legal representative in the civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding seeking to recover monetary damages financed by the corresponding litigation financing agreement shall not execute a litigation financing contract on behalf of the consumer. A litigation financing contract executed by such legal representative on behalf of such consumer shall be void and unenforceable as a matter of law.

(e) If the consumer is represented by a legal representative in the civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding that is the subject of the litigation financing agreement, the legal representative shall acknowledge in the litigation financing contract that the legal representative and the legal representative's employer and employees have not received or paid a commission, referral fee, rebate, or any other consideration from or to the litigation financier and have no obligation to do so in the future.

(f) If the consumer's legal representative is a party to a litigation financing agreement related to the consumer's civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding that is the subject of the consumer's litigation financing agreement, the legal representative shall disclose and deliver a copy of his or her litigation financing contract to the consumer. Following such disclosure and delivery, the consumer shall sign an acknowledgment that the consumer has read and understands the terms and conditions of his or her legal representative's litigation financing contract. Such consumer shall be provided with a copy of such signed acknowledgment.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) A nonprofit entity that provides litigation financing, directly or indirectly, for the benefit of such nonprofit entity or one or more of its members without receiving, in consideration for the litigation financing:

(A) The payment of interest, fees, or other consideration; or

(B) Except for in-house counsel of such nonprofit entity, any right to recovery or payment from the amount of any judgment, award, settlement, verdict, or other form of monetary relief obtained in the civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding;

(2) Any litigation financing provided by an entity engaged in commerce or business activity; provided, however, that this exemption shall apply only if such entity does not:

(B) Retain or receive any financial interest in the outcome of the civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding; or

(C) Retain or receive any right to recovery or payment from the amount of any judgment, award, settlement, verdict, or other form of monetary relief obtained in the civil action, administrative proceeding, legal claim, or other legal proceeding; or 7-10-8.

Any violation of this chapter by a litigation financier renders the litigation financing agreement void and unenforceable by such litigation financier or any successor-in-interest to the litigation financing agreement.

(a) It is unlawful for a litigation financier to enter into or offer to enter into a litigation financing agreement unless such litigation financier is registered under this chapter.

(b) A person that willfully violates this chapter shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned not less than one nor more than five years, or fined not more than $10,000.00, or both; provided, however, that on the recommendation of the jury trying the case, when such recommendation is approved by the judge presiding on the trial, such crime shall be punished as a misdemeanor. If the judge trying the case deems it proper, such judge may, in fixing the punishment, reduce such felony to a misdemeanor.

(c) The commissioner may refer to the Attorney General or the proper prosecuting attorney the name of any person acting as a litigation financier that is not registered or any applicant or registrant that is or may not be in compliance with this chapter; provided, however, that the Attorney General or the proper prosecuting attorney may institute criminal proceedings under this chapter with or without such referral.

(d) This chapter does not limit the power of this state to punish a person for conduct that constitutes a crime under other laws of this state.

7-10-10.

(a) The department is authorized to:

(1) Participate in the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry in order to facilitate the sharing of information and standardization of the registration processes for litigation financiers by electronic or other means;

(2) Enter into operating agreements, information sharing agreements, interstate cooperative agreements, and other contracts necessary for the department's participation in the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry;

(4) Disclose or cause to be disclosed without liability via the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry registration information, including, but not limited to, violations of this chapter and enforcement actions;

(5) Establish and adopt, by rule or regulation, requirements for participation by registrants in the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry upon the department's determination that each new or amended requirement is consistent with both the public interest and the purposes of this chapter; and

(6) Pay all fees received from applicants and registrants related to registrations to the Office of the State Treasurer; provided, however, that the department may net such fees to recover the cost of participation in the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry.

(b) Irrespective of its participation in the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry, the department retains full and exclusive authority over determinations whether to grant registrations to litigation financiers under this chapter. Nothing in this Code section shall be construed to reduce this authority.

(c) Applicants and registrants shall be required to pay any charges associated with their utilization of the nation-wide multistate licensing system and registry.

The commissioner is authorized to adopt rules and other policies in overseeing the practice of litigation financing consistent with this chapter."

A BILL to be entitled an Act to amend Part 3 of Article 2 of Chapter 4 of Title 38 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to Georgia veterans cemeteries, so as to allow certain persons to be buried in Georgia veterans cemeteries; to provide for definitions; to provide for fees; to provide for legislative findings; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To amend Part 3 of Article 2 of Chapter 4 of Title 38 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to Georgia veterans cemeteries, so as to allow certain persons to be buried in Georgia veterans cemeteries; to provide for definitions; to provide for fees; to provide for legislative findings; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

The General Assembly finds the following:

(1) At present, National Guard and other reserve component members of the United States armed forces, their spouses, and their children are generally not eligible to be buried in a national or state veterans cemetery;

(2) The federal Burial Equity for Guards and Reserves Act of 2021 prohibits the Department of Veterans Affairs from establishing a condition for a federal cemetery grant that restricts the ability of states to bury certain reserve component members, their spouses, and their children at state owned veterans cemeteries solely because such individuals are ineligible for burial in a national veterans cemetery;

(3) Consequently, this state may authorize certain reserve component members, their spouses, and their children to be buried at a Georgia veterans cemetery without the threat of loss of federal veterans burial grants;

(4) Approximately 25 other states have revised their laws since the enactment of the federal Burial Equity for Guards and Reserves Act of 2021;

(5) The Department of Veterans Affairs does not provide a plot allowance or marker for interment at Georgia veterans cemeteries; and

(6) Legislation is needed to honor Georgians who honorably served in reserve components of the United States armed forces and their families and fees need to be charged for services provided.

SECTION 2.

Part 3 of Article 2 of Chapter 4 of Title 38 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to Georgia veterans cemeteries, is amended by revising Code Section 38-4-70, relating to cemeteries established and eligibility for interment, as follows:

"38-4-70.

(a) As used in this Code section, the term:

(1) 'Full term' means the length of service agreed to by an enlisted or commissioned person in the armed forces of the United States.

(2) 'Reserve component' means, with respect to the United States armed forces, the Army Reserve, Navy Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve, Air Force Reserve, Space Force Reserve, Coast Guard Reserve, Army National Guard, and Air National Guard.

~~(a)~~(b) The Department of Veterans Service is authorized to establish, operate, and maintain Georgia veterans cemeteries in this state; provided, however, that the Georgia veterans cemetery in existence on July 1, 2002, shall be known as the 'Georgia Veterans Memorial Cemetery.'

~~(b)~~(c) The Department of Veterans Service has the primary responsibility for verifying eligibility for interment in a Georgia veterans cemetery. Eligibility criteria for interment in a Georgia veterans cemetery is as follows:

(1) The ~~the~~ same as required for interment in a national cemetery as provided by federal law and rules and regulations applicable thereto; or

(2) The following individuals shall qualify for interment in a Georgia veterans cemetery pursuant to the federal Burial Equity for Guards and Reserves Act of 2021, provided such individuals completed a full term of service and became deceased on or after August 1, 1990:

(A) A member of a reserve component whose service was terminated under honorable conditions;

(B) A member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps of the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Space Force who died under honorable conditions while a service member; or

(C) A spouse, minor child, or unmarried adult child of any service member described in paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection.

(d) The Department of Veterans Service is authorized to charge a fee for burial services in Georgia veterans cemeteries for each person being buried. Such fees may be based on the allowance paid for the burial of an eligible veteran in a national veterans cemetery or such other amount as the commissioner of veterans service determines is appropriate."

SECTION 3.

All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.

definition; to provide for related matters; to provide for legislative findings; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

(4) Such uncertainty needs to be addressed through legislation confirming that nothing in Georgia law prohibits or prevents an individual from obtaining in vitro fertilization in this state.

"31-1-26.

(a) As used in this Code section, the term 'in vitro fertilization' means a type of fertility treatment in which oocytes are removed from a female's ovary and, in an embryology laboratory, fertilized with a male's sperm to form one or more embryos that begin development in such laboratory and are subsequently transferred to a female's uterus or preserved for future use.

SB 245. By Senators Hodges of the 3rd, Kennedy of the 18th, Kirkpatrick of the 32nd, Albers of the 56th, Hickman of the 4th and others:

A BILL to be entitled an Act to amend Code Section 19-7-3 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to actions by grandparents or other family members for visitation rights or intervention, revocation or amendment of visitation rights, appointment of guardian ad litem, meditation, hearing, and notification to family members of child's participation in events, to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

The following Committee substitute was read and adopted:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To amend Code Section 19-7-3 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to actions by grandparents or other family members for visitation rights or intervention, revocation or amendment of visitation rights, appointment of guardian ad litem, meditation, hearing, and notification to family members of child's participation in events, so as to provide for the revocation or amendment of grandparent visitation rights in cases where the parent of a minor child is deceased, incapacitated, or incarcerated; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

Code Section 19-7-3 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to actions by grandparents or other family members for visitation rights or intervention, revocation or amendment of visitation rights, appointment of guardian ad litem, meditation, hearing, and notification to family members of child's participation in events, is amended by revising subsections (c) and (d) as follows:

"(c)(1) Upon the filing of an original action or upon intervention in an existing proceeding under subsection (b) of this Code section, the court may grant any family member of the child reasonable visitation rights if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the health or welfare of the child would be harmed unless such visitation is granted and if the best interests of the child would be served by such visitation. The mere absence of an opportunity for a child to develop a relationship with a family member shall not be considered as harming the health or welfare of the child when there is no substantial preexisting relationship between the child and such family member. In considering whether the health or welfare of the child would be harmed without such visitation, the court shall consider and may find that harm to the child is reasonably likely to result when, prior to the original action or intervention:

(A) The minor child resided with the family member for six months or more;

(B) The family member provided financial support for the basic needs of the child for at least one year;

(C) There was an established pattern of regular visitation with the child by the family member or child care provided by the family member ~~with~~ for the child; or

(D) Any other circumstance exists indicating that emotional or physical harm would be reasonably likely to result if such visitation is not granted.

The court shall make specific written findings of fact in support of its rulings.

(2) An original action requesting visitation rights shall not be filed by any grandparent more than once during any two-year period and shall not be filed during any year in which another custody action has been filed concerning the child. After visitation rights have been granted to any grandparent, the legal custodian, guardian ~~of the person~~, or parent of the child may petition the court for revocation or amendment of such visitation rights~~,~~ for good cause shown, which the court, in its discretion, may grant or deny; ~~but~~ provided, however, that such a petition shall not be filed more than once ~~in~~ during any two-year period.

(3) While a parent's decision regarding family member visitation shall be given deference by the court, the parent's decision shall not be conclusive when failure to provide family member contact would result in emotional harm to the child. A court may presume that a child who is denied any contact with his or her family member or who is not provided some minimal opportunity for contact with his or her family member when there is a preexisting relationship between the child and such family member may suffer emotional injury that is harmful to such child's health. Such presumption shall be a rebuttable presumption.

(4) In no case shall the granting of visitation rights to a family member interfere with a child's school or regularly scheduled extracurricular activities.

(5) Visitation time awarded to a family member shall not be less than 24 hours in any one-month period; provided, however, that when more than one individual seeks visitation under this Code section, the court shall determine the amount of time to award to each petitioner which shall not be less than 24 hours in any one-month period in the aggregate.

(d)(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (b) and (c) of this Code section, if one of the parents of a minor child dies, is incapacitated, or is incarcerated, the court may award the parent of the deceased, incapacitated, or incarcerated parent of such minor child reasonable visitation to such child during his or her minority if the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the health or welfare of the child would be harmed unless such visitation is granted and if the best interests of the child would be served by such visitation. After such visitation rights have been granted to any parent of the deceased, incapacitated, or incarcerated parent of the minor child, such parent may petition the court for revocation or amendment of such visitation rights for good cause shown, which the court, in its discretion, may grant or deny; provided, however, that such a petition shall not be filed more than once during any two-year period. The mere absence of an opportunity for a child to develop a relationship with a grandparent shall not be considered as harming the health or welfare of the child when there is no substantial preexisting relationship between the child and such grandparent. The custodial parent's judgment as to the best interests of the child regarding visitation shall be given deference by the court but shall not be conclusive. In considering whether the health or welfare of the child would be harmed without such visitation, the court shall consider and may find that harm to the child is reasonably likely to result when, prior to the death, incapacitation, or incarceration of the child's parent:

(A) The minor child resided with the grandparent for six months or more;

(B) The grandparent provided financial support for the basic needs of the child for at least one year;

(C) There was an established pattern of regular visitation or child care by the grandparent with the child; or

(D) Any other circumstance exists indicating that emotional or physical harm would be reasonably likely to result if such visitation is not granted.

The court shall make specific written findings of fact in support of its rulings.

(2) While a custodial parent's decision regarding grandparent visitation shall be given deference by the court, the parent's decision shall not be conclusive when failure to provide grandparent contact would result in emotional harm to the child. A court may presume that a child who is denied any contact with his or her grandparent or who is not provided some minimal opportunity for contact with his or her grandparent when there is a preexisting relationship between the child and such grandparent may suffer emotional injury that is harmful to such child's health. Such presumption shall be a rebuttable presumption."

Such schedules shall be determined in a manner so as to help defray the costs incurred by the department, but in no event to exceed such costs, both direct and indirect, in providing such licensure activities. Such fees may be annually adjusted by the department but shall not be increased by more than the annual rate of inflation as measured by the Consumer Price Index as reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor. All fees paid thereunder shall be paid into the general fund of the State of Georgia. It is the intent of the General Assembly that the proceeds from all fees imposed pursuant to this Code section be used to support and improve the quality of licensing services provided by the department.

(a) The department shall have the authority to take any of the actions enumerated in subsection (b) of this Code section upon a finding that the applicant or licensee has:

(1) Knowingly made any false statement of material information in connection with the application for a license, or in statements made or on documents submitted to the department as part of an inspection, survey, or investigation, or in the alteration or falsification of records maintained by the adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program;

(2) Failed or refused to provide the department with access to the premises subject to regulation or information pertinent to the initial or continued licensing of the adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program;

(3) Failed to comply with the licensing requirements of this state; or

(4) Failed to comply with any provision of this Code section.

(b) When the department finds that any applicant or licensee has violated any provision of subsection (a) of this Code section or laws, rules, regulations, or formal orders related to the initial or continued licensing of an adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program, the department, subject to notice and opportunity for hearing, may take any of the following actions:

(1) Refuse to grant a license; provided, however, that the department may refuse to grant a license without holding a hearing prior to taking such action;

(2) Administer a public reprimand;

(3) Suspend any license for a definite period or for an indefinite period in connection with any condition which may be attached to the restoration of such license;

(4) Prohibit any applicant or licensee from allowing a person who previously was involved in the management or control, as defined by rule, of any adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program which has had its license or application revoked or denied within the past 12 months to be involved in the management or control of such program or arrangement;

(5) Revoke any license;

(6) Impose a fine of up to $2,000.00 per day for each violation of a law, rule, regulation, or formal order related to the initial or ongoing licensing of any applicant or licensee, up to a total of $40,000.00; or

(7) Limit or restrict any license as the department deems necessary for the protection of the public, including, but not limited to, restricting some or all services of or admissions into an adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program for a time certain.

In taking any of the actions enumerated in this subsection, the department shall consider the seriousness of the violation, including the circumstances, extent, and gravity of the prohibited acts, and the hazard or potentional hazard created to the health or safety of the public.

(c) The department may deny a license or otherwise restrict a license from any applicant who has had a license denied, revoked, or suspended within one year of the date of an application or who has transferred ownership or governing authority of an adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program subject to regulation by the department within one year of the date of a new application when such transfer was made in order to avert denial, revocation, or suspension of a license or to avert the payment of fines assessed by the department pursuant to this Code section.

(d) With regard to any contested case instituted by the department pursuant to this Code section or other provisions of law which may now or hereafter authorize remedial or disciplinary grounds and action, the department may, in its discretion, dispose of the action so instituted by settlement. In such cases, all parties, successors, and assigns to any settlement agreement shall be bound by the terms specified therein, and violation thereof by any applicant or licensee shall constitute grounds for any action enumerated in subsection (b) of this Code section.

(e) The department shall have the authority to make public or private investigations or examinations inside or outside of this state to determine whether the provisions of this Code section or any other law, rule, regulation, or formal order relating to the licensing of any adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program has been violated. Such investigations may be initiated at any time, in the discretion of the department, and may continue during the pendency of any action initiated by the department pursuant to subsection (b) of this Code section.

(f) For the purpose of conducting any investigation, inspection, or survey, the department shall have the authority to require the production of any books, records, papers, or other information related to the initial or continued licensing of any adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program.

(g) Pursuant to the investigation, inspection, and enforcement powers given to the department by this Code section and other applicable laws, the department may assess against an adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by the department pursuant to any administrative or legal action required by the failure of such program or arrangement to fully comply with the provisions of any law, rule, regulation, or formal order related to the initial or continued licensing. Assessments shall not include attorney's fees and expenses of litigation, shall not exceed other actual expenses, and shall only be assessed if such investigation, inspection, or enforcement actions result in adverse findings, as finally determined by the department, pursuant to administrative or legal action.

(h) For any action taken or any proceeding held under this Code section or under color of law, except for gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct, the department, when acting in its official capacity, shall be immune from liability and suit to the same extent that any judge of any court of general jurisdiction in this state would be immune.

(i) In an administrative or legal proceeding under this Code section, a person or entity claiming an exemption or an exception granted by law, rule, regulation, or formal order has the burden of proving such exemption or exception.

(j) This Code section and all actions resulting from its provisions shall be administered in accordance with Chapter 13 of Title 50, the 'Georgia Administrative Procedure Act.'

(k) The provisions of this Code section shall be supplemental to and shall not operate to prohibit the department from acting pursuant to any provisions of law which may now or hereafter authorize remedial or disciplinary grounds and action for the department. In cases where such other provisions of law so authorize other disciplinary grounds and actions, but this Code section limits such grounds or actions, such other provisions shall apply.

(l) The department is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this Code section.

37-2-73.

(a)(1) The commissioner may order the emergency relocation of residents from an adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program subject to licensure by the department when he or she has determined that the residents are subject to an imminent and substantial danger.

(2) When an order is issued under this subsection, the commissioner shall provide for:

(B) The department has denied application for a permit or a license or has initiated action to revoke the existing permit or license of the licensee;

(C) The adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program is closing or plans to close and adequate arrangements for relocation of the residents have not been made at least 30 days before the date of closure; or

(D) The health, safety, security, rights, or welfare of the residents cannot be adequately assured by the adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program.

(2) A monitor may be placed, pursuant to this subsection, in an adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program for no more than ten days, during which time the monitor shall observe conditions and compliance with any recommended remedial action of the department. The monitor shall report to the department. The monitor shall not assume any administrative responsibility within the adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program, nor shall the monitor be liable for any actions of the licensee. The costs of placing a monitor in an adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program shall be paid by the licensee unless the order placing the monitor is determined to be invalid in a contested case proceeding under subsection (d) of this Code section, in which event, the costs shall be paid by the state.

(c)(1) The commissioner may order the emergency prohibition of admissions to an adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program when such licensee has failed to correct a violation of departmental permit rules or regulations within a reasonable period of time, as specified in the department's corrective order, and the violation:

(A) Could jeopardize the health and safety of the residents if allowed to remain uncorrected; or

(B) Is a repeat violation over a 12 month period, which is intentional or due to gross negligence.

(2) Admission to new residents may be suspended until the violation has been corrected or until the department has determined that the licensee has undertaken the action necessary to effect correction of the violation.

(d) The commissioner may issue emergency orders pursuant to this Code section only if authorized by rules and regulations of the department. Unless otherwise provided in any such order, an emergency order shall become effective immediately. The department shall provide an opportunity for a preliminary hearing within ten days following a request therefor by any adult residential mental health program, community living arrangement, drug treatment and education program, or narcotic treatment program affected by an emergency order. If, at the preliminary hearing, the order is determined by the department to be invalid, such order shall thereupon become void and of no effect. If, at the preliminary hearing, the order is determined by the department to be valid, such determination shall constitute a contested case under Chapter 13 of Title 50, the 'Georgia Administrative Procedure Act,' and such order shall remain in effect until determined invalid in a proceeding regarding the contested case or until rescinded by the commissioner, whichever is earlier. For purposes of this subsection, an emergency order is valid only if the order is authorized to be issued under this Code section and rules and regulations relating thereto.

(e) The powers provided by this Code section shall be in addition to all other powers of the department, board, and commissioner."

When a clergy member receives information about abuse or exploitation from any other source, such clergy member shall comply with the reporting requirements of this Code section, even though the clergy member may have also received a report of such matters from the confession of the perpetrator.

37-13-22.

(a) Immediately after the receipt of any report of suspected abuse or exploitation, the department shall make and document a determination as to whether such report requires an investigation. The department may, through its rules, regulations, or policies, limit the scope of any investigation and may delegate all or part of its authority to investigate to the appropriate law enforcement agency or other appropriate investigating agencies. If such delegation occurs, the agency to which authority has been delegated shall report the results of its investigation to the department immediately upon completion of such investigation.

(b) The investigation shall determine the nature, cause, and extent of the suspected abuse or exploitation reported, an assessment of the current condition of the resident or former resident, and an assessment of any needed action or service. Where appropriate, the investigation shall include a prompt in-person visit to the resident or former resident.
(c) The investigating agency shall collect and preserve all evidence relating to, or resulting from, the suspected abuse or exploitation.

The identities of the resident or former resident, the alleged perpetrator, and the person or persons making a report or providing information or evidence pursuant to this article shall not be disclosed to the public unless required to be revealed in court proceedings or upon the written consent of the person whose identity is to be revealed or as otherwise required by law. Upon the resident's or the former resident's, or his or her representative's, request, the department shall make information obtained in an abuse or exploitation report and investigation available to the allegedly abused or exploited resident, the allegedly abused or exploited former resident, or his or her representative for inspection or duplication, except that such disclosure shall be made without revealing the identity of any other resident, the person making the report, or persons providing information by name or inference. For the purpose of this Code section, the term 'representative' means any person authorized in writing by the resident or former resident or appointed by an appropriate court to act upon the resident's or former resident's behalf. The term 'representative' also means a family member of a deceased or physically or mentally impaired resident or former resident unable to grant authorization; provided, however, that such family members who do not have written or court authorization shall not be authorized by this Code section to receive the resident's or former resident's clinical records as defined in Code Section 37-3-1, 37-4-2, or 37-7-1. Nothing in this Code section shall be construed to deny agencies participating in joint investigations at the request of and with the department, or conducting separate investigations of abuse or exploitation within an agency's scope of authority, or law enforcement personnel who are conducting an investigation into any criminal offense in which a resident or former resident is a victim from having access to such records.

No person or community living arrangement shall discriminate or retaliate in any manner against any person for making a report or providing information pursuant to this article or against any resident or former resident who is the subject of a report. Nothing in this Code section shall be construed to prohibit the termination of the relationship between the community living arrangement and the resident for reasons other than that the community living arrangement has been made the subject of a report, that such a report has been made, or that information has been provided pursuant to this article.

37-13-27.
The department shall prepare a written notice describing the reporting requirements set forth in this article. Such notice shall be distributed to all community living arrangements in this state, and copies thereof shall be posted in conspicuous locations within community living arrangements."
