Senate Bill 289

By: Senator Hudgens of the 47th

AS PASSED

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

To provide that future elections for the office of probate judge of Franklin County and for the office of chief magistrate of Franklin County shall be nonpartisan elections; to provide for submission of this Act under the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended; to provide for related matters; to provide an effective date; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

All elections for the office of probate judge of Franklin County and for the office of chief magistrate of Franklin County conducted after the effective date of this Act shall be nonpartisan elections as provided for in Code Section 21-2-139 of the O.C.G.A. Such nonpartisan elections shall be held and conducted as provided in Chapter 2 of Title 21 of the O.C.G.A., the "Georgia Election Code."

SECTION 2.

Nothing in this Act shall affect the term of office of the probate judge of Franklin County or chief magistrate of Franklin County in office on the effective date of this Act. The sitting probate judge and sitting chief magistrate shall serve out the respective terms of office for which such person was elected and shall be eligible to succeed himself or herself as provided in this Act.

SECTION 3.

The governing authority of Franklin County shall through its legal counsel cause this Act to be submitted for preclearance under the federal Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended; and such submission shall be made to the United States Department of Justice or filed with the appropriate court no later than 60 days after the date on which this Act is approved by the Governor or otherwise becomes law without such approval.

SECTION 4.

This Act shall become effective upon its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law without such approval.

SECTION 5.

All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
