AN ACT

To provide for a homestead exemption from City of Vidalia independent school district ad valorem taxes for educational purposes in an amount equal to the amount by which the current year assessed value of a homestead exceeds the base year assessed value of such homestead; to provide for definitions; to specify the terms and conditions of the exemption and the procedures relating thereto; to provide for applicability; to provide for a referendum, effective dates, and automatic repeal; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

(a) As used in this Act, the term:

(1) "Ad valorem taxes for educational purposes" means all ad valorem taxes for educational purposes levied by, for, or on behalf of the City of Vidalia independent school district, including, but not limited to, ad valorem taxes to pay interest on and to retire independent school district bonded indebtedness.

(2) "Base year" means:

(A) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, the taxable year immediately preceding the taxable year in which the exemption under this Act is first granted to the most recent owner of such homestead; or

(B) With respect to any person who applies for and is granted the homestead exemption under this Act for the 2008 tax year, the base year assessed value of the homestead shall be the 2004 assessed value of the homestead.

(3) "Homestead" means homestead as defined and qualified in Code Section 48-5-40 of the O.C.G.A., as amended, with the additional qualification that it shall include only the primary residence and not more than five contiguous acres of land immediately surrounding such residence.

(b) Each resident of the City of Vidalia independent school district is granted an exemption on that person´s homestead from City of Vidalia independent school district ad valorem taxes for educational purposes in an amount equal to the amount by which the current year assessed value of that homestead exceeds the base year assessed value of that homestead. This exemption shall not apply to taxes assessed on improvements to the homestead or additional land that is added to the homestead after January 1 of the base year. If any real property is removed from the homestead, the base year assessed value shall be recalculated accordingly. The value of that property in excess of such exempted amount shall remain subject to taxation.

(c) A person shall not receive the homestead exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section unless the person or person´s agent files an application with the governing authority of the City of Vidalia, or the designee thereof, giving such information relative to receiving such exemption as will enable the governing authority of the City of Vidalia, or the designee thereof, to make a determination as to whether such owner is entitled to such exemption. The governing authority of the City of Vidalia, or the designee thereof, shall provide application forms for this purpose.

(d) The exemption shall be claimed and returned as provided in Code Section 48-5-50.1 of the O.C.G.A., as amended. The exemption shall be automatically renewed from year to year as long as the owner occupies the residence as a homestead. After a person has filed the proper application as provided in subsection (c) of this section, it shall not be necessary to make application thereafter for any year and the exemption shall continue to be allowed to such person. It shall be the duty of any person granted the homestead exemption under subsection (b) of this section to notify the governing authority of the City of Vidalia, or the designee thereof, in the event that person for any reason becomes ineligible for that exemption.

(e) The exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section shall not apply to or affect state ad valorem taxes, county ad valorem taxes for county purposes, county school district ad valorem taxes for educational purposes, or municipal ad valorem taxes for municipal purposes. The homestead exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any other homestead exemption applicable to municipal ad valorem taxes.

(f) The exemption granted by subsection (b) of this section shall apply to all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2008.
