10 States Marine Corps, valiantly and courageously defending his fellow Americans during 11 World War II; and

12 WHEREAS, Major Elrod single handedly attacked a flight of 22 enemy planes over Wake 13 Island and executed several low altitude bombings and strafing runs on enemy ships; and

14 WHEREAS, he became the first American to sink a Japanese warship, the Kisaragi, with 15 small caliber bombs delivered from a fighter aircraft; and

16 WHEREAS, when all the U.S. aircraft had been destroyed by hostile fire, Major Elrod
17 organized the remaining troops into a beach defense unit which repulsed repeated Japanese 18 attacks; and

19 WHEREAS, Major Elrod was mortally wounded on December 23, 1941, while protecting 20 his men who were carrying ammunition to a gun emplacement; and

21 WHEREAS, Major Elrod exhibited extraordinary devotion to duty, outstanding loyalty, fine 22 leadership, and meticulous attention to detail in all his duties, and it is abundantly fitting and 23 proper that a road be dedicated in his honor.

24 PART II

25 WHEREAS, our nation's security continues to rely on patriotic men and women who put 26 their personal lives on hold in order to place themselves in harm's way to protect the 27 freedoms that all United States citizens cherish; and

28 WHEREAS, United States military veterans have demonstrated a deep personal commitment 29 to protecting democracy and a willingness to sacrifice their own personal safety and comfort 30 to ensure the well-being of their fellow man; and

31 WHEREAS, they have served as guardians of this nation's freedom and liberty and have 32 diligently and conscientiously undergone intensive and rigorous training in order to serve 33 their country with honor and distinction during times of war and peace; and

34 WHEREAS, it is important that veterans are thanked for their selfless service to this nation 35 and honored for their unyielding commitment to protecting the people and ideals of the 36 United States; and

37 WHEREAS, veterans embody the spirit of service, willing to find meaning in something 38 greater than themselves, and it is abundantly fitting and proper that the outstanding 39 accomplishments and sacrifices of these remarkable and distinguished Americans be honored 40 appropriately.

41 PART III
