39

SECTION 4.

40 Said chapter is further amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

41 "48-7-40.37.42 (a) As used in this Code section, the term:43 (1) 'Employee donor' means a taxpayer who has worked continuously for an employer
44 in a full-time job for at least one year, and, while living, donated all or part of such 45 person's liver, pancreas, kidney, intestine, lung, or bone marrow in accordance with the 46 'National Organ Procurement Act.'47 (2) 'Employer' means an enterprise or organization, whether corporation, partnership,
48 limited liability company, proprietorship, association, trust, business trust, real estate
49 trust, or other form of organization, and its affiliates, which is registered and authorized
50 to use the federal employment verification system known as 'E-Verify' or any successor
51 federal employment verification system and is engaged in or carrying on any business
52 activities within this state.53 (3) 'Full-time job' means employment which:54 (A) Is located in this state;55 (B) Involves a regular work week of 30 hours or more; and56 (C) Has no predetermined end date.57 (4) 'Paid donation leave' means compensation to an employee donor equivalent to the 58 compensation that he or she would have received if he or she had worked for the 59 employer in his or her regular full-time job for the period of time that was medically 60 necessary for such employee donor to recover from his or her living donation of all or 61 part of his or her liver, pancreas, kidney, intestine, lung, or bone marrow in accordance 62 with the 'National Organ Procurement Act.'63 (b)(1) On and after January 1, 2023, an employer that provides paid donation leave to an 64 employee donor shall be eligible for a credit against the tax imposed under this article in

65 the amount of $300.00 for each day of paid donation leave given to an employee donor
66 or the actual amount paid to such employee donor, whichever is less.

67 (2) An employer shall not be eligible to receive the credit provided by this subsection for 68 more than 30 days per employee donor per year.

69 (3) An employer shall only be eligible to receive credits provided by this subsection in 70 an amount up to $54,000.00 per taxable year.

71 (c) To obtain the credit provided by subsection (b) of this Code section, the employer shall 72 file with its tax return such records as the commissioner determines are necessary to 73 support the claim for the tax credit, including, but not limited to, pay stubs for the 74 employee donor, which cover the 12 month period that ends with the month following the 75 end of the paid donation leave that was given, and a signed attestation from the employee
76 donor providing the date of the donation and the period of time for which leave from work
77 was prescribed as medically necessary.

78 (d) In no event shall the credit provided by subsection (b) of this Code section for a taxable
79 year exceed the employer's income tax liability. Any unused portion of the credit provided
80 by subsection (b) of this Code section shall be permitted to be carried forward and applied 81 to the employer's tax liability for the subsequent three years. The credit provided by 82 subsection (b) of this Code section shall not be applied against the employer's prior years'
83 tax liabilities.

84 (e) On or before September 1, 2024, and annually thereafter, the commissioner shall issue
85 a report to the chairpersons of the Senate Finance Committee and the House Committee on 86 Ways and Means concerning the tax credit created by this Code section, which shall 87 include the following statistics for the preceding taxable year:

88 (1) The total number of employers that claimed a credit provided by this Code section;

89 (2) The total number of employee donors and days of paid donation leave given; and

90 (3) The total value of all credits earned and all credits applied during the prior year with 91 respect to this Code section.

92 (f) The commissioner may promulgate such rules and regulations necessary to implement
93 and administer the provisions of this Code section."

94

SECTION 5.

95 (a) This Act shall become effective on July 1, 2022; provided, however, that Sections 3 and 96 4 of this Act shall become effective on January 1, 2023.

97 (b)(1) Section 2 of this Act shall be applicable to all policies or contracts issued,
98 delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state on or after July 1, 2022.

99 (2) Sections 3 and 4 of this Act shall be applicable to taxable years beginning on or after 100 January 1, 2023, and for eligible donations occurring on or after such date.

101

SECTION 6.

102 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
