132 award and provide its provisional judgment to the claimant. Upon receiving notice of the 133 panel's provisional judgment, the claimant shall have 14 days to request a hearing before
134 the panel if the claimant wishes for further review of his or her claim. If the claimant 135 requests a hearing under this paragraph, the panel shall conduct a hearing within 60 days.

150 (2) May include the claimant's incurred reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses in 151 connection with all associated criminal and habeas corpus proceedings, obtaining the 152 claimant's discharge from confinement, and filing of a claim for compensation under this 153 part.

154 (c) In calculating time of incarceration, the panel shall only include time for the charge for 155 which the claimant is making a claim under this part consistent with the requirements of 156 Code Section 17-10-11; provided, however, that a claimant shall not be entitled to 157 compensation under this part for any portion of a sentence spent incarcerated during which 158 the claimant was also serving a concurrent sentence of incarceration for another crime to 159 which this part does not apply.

160 (d)(1) Any payment of compensation may be made to or for the benefit of the claimant;
161 or in the case of the death of the claimant, to or for the benefit of one or more of the heirs 162 at law of the claimant, or, if the claimant chooses, up to one other person who is not an 163 heir at law as designated by the claimant.

164 (2) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this subsection, payment 165 of compensation shall be made in the form of an annuity as follows:

166 (A) For a claimant who is under 60 years of age, in equal prorated amounts annually 167 over a 20 year period; and

168 (B) For a claimant who is at least 60 years of age, in equal prorated amounts annually 169 over a ten-year period.

170 (3) An amount of the compensation payment not to exceed 25 percent may be made as 171 an initial cash payment with the remainder paid in the form of an annuity as provided for 172 in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (2) of this subsection.

173 (4) The panel may recommend adjustment of the length of the annuity period specified 174 in paragraph (2) of this subsection upon a determination that such an adjustment would 175 be in the claimant's best interest.

176 (e) In recommending compensation pursuant to subsection (a) of this Code section, the 177 panel shall strive for consistency between claimants.

178 (f) The dollar amounts specified in this Code section shall be adjusted annually by an 179 amount calculated by multiplying such dollar amounts (as adjusted for the preceding year) 180 by the annual percentage change in the consumer price index, or its successor or 181 appropriate replacement index, if any, published by the United States Department of Labor 182 for the preceding calendar year, commencing on July 1, 2022.

183 28-5-115.

184 (a) Within six months, or within a year if a hearing was held, of receiving the claimant's
185 notice of claim and all information requested under subsection (b) of Code
186 Section 28-5-113, the panel shall prepare a written recommendation to the board including:

187 (1) A statement of its findings as to whether the claimant has met the requirements of 188 subsections (a) and (b) of Code Section 28-5-112;

189 (2) A statement explaining the panel's calculation of compensable time; and

- 190 (3) A statement detailing the amount and forms of compensation.
- 191 (b) The board shall adopt the recommendation of the panel as its own and upon adopting 192 the recommendation of the panel shall transmit the recommendation and the statement of 194 receiving it from the panel.

- 195 (c) If the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Georgia receives and accepts the 196 recommendation of the board on or before September 1, he or she shall include the 197 compensation recommended by the board under this part in the amended budget for the 198 judiciary for the current fiscal year. If the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Georgia 199 receives and accepts the recommendation of the board after September 1, he or she shall 200 include the compensation recommended by the board under this part in the budget for the 201 judiciary for the next fiscal year.
- 202 (d) Any award of compensation made pursuant to this part shall not be:
- 203 (1) Subject to any monetary limitation of damages awarded in civil actions;
204 (2) Subject to any state income taxes; provided, however, that the award of attorney's 205 fees shall be subject to taxation; or
- 206 (3) Offset by any expense incurred by this state or any political subdivision thereof 207 related to the claimant's incarceration.
- 208 (e) The General Assembly waives sovereign immunity of this state for the purpose of 209 authorizing payment of claims against this state pursuant to the authority of this part.
- 210 (f) No award of compensation pursuant to this part shall be disbursed to a claimant who 211 had his or her judgment of conviction reversed or vacated, or was granted a new trial, and 212 had the indictment or accusation dismissed or nolle prossed until the time period set forth
213 in Code Section 17-3-3 has lapsed or the prosecutor has affirmatively declined further 214 prosecution.

215 28-5-116.

216 (a) If, at the time a claim is made under this part to the panel, the claimant has won a
217 monetary award against the state or any political subdivision thereof in the final judgment
218 of a civil action related to the wrongful conviction or has entered into a settlement 219 agreement with the state or any political subdivision thereof related to the wrongful 220 conviction, the amount of the award in the action or the amount received in the settlement 221 agreement, less any sums paid to attorneys for costs in litigating other civil action or 222 obtaining the settlement agreement, shall be deducted from the sum of money to which the 223 panel shall usually recommend under this part.

224 (b) If, after the time a claim is made under this part to the panel, the claimant wins a
225 monetary award against the state or any political subdivision thereof in the final judgment
226 of a civil action related to the wrongful conviction or enters into a settlement agreement 227 with the state or any political subdivision thereof related to the wrongful conviction, the
