

Senate Resolution 113

By: Senators Kirkpatrick of the 32nd, Rhett of the 33rd, Jackson of the 41st, Dixon of the 45th and Williams of the 25th

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing February 7, 2023, as Strolling Thunder Day at the state capitol; and for other 2 purposes.

3 WHEREAS, our brains grow faster during the first few years of life than at any later point 4 in our lives; and

5 WHEREAS, more than 650,000 children under five years old reside in communities across 6 Georgia, representing the state's future leaders; and

7 WHEREAS, children's early experiences and relationships lay the foundation for future 8 learning, health, and behavior; and

9 WHEREAS, proper nutrition, medical care, and high-quality early education are all essential 10 building blocks for a child's development; and

11 WHEREAS, Georgia has made gains in supporting young children and their families in 12 recent years, including an increased emphasis on infant and early childhood mental health 13 and increased support for maternal health and well-being, such as the extension of pregnancy 14 Medicaid; and

15 WHEREAS, despite this, many of Georgia's families with young children continue to 16 struggle to meet high standards of health, education, and family stability; and

17 WHEREAS, for example, nearly one in four of Georgia's children under five years old live 18 in poverty, and one in ten of its babies are born with low birth weight; and

19 WHEREAS, GEEARS: Georgia Early Education Alliance for Ready Students, a nonprofit 20 organization, has brought together families from across Georgia to share the joys and 21 challenges of raising young children with Georgia's lawmakers for Strolling Thunder Day 22 at the state capitol; and

23 WHEREAS, Strolling Thunder Day emphasizes the importance of prioritizing our youngest 24 learners in public policy-for stronger families, vibrant communities, and a prosperous state; 25 and

26 WHEREAS, Georgia's future begins with babies, and all Georgians can help make sure that 27 families have the resources and support they need to give their babies a strong start in life.

28 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE that the members of this body
29 recognize February 7, 2023, as Strolling Thunder Day at the state capitol and welcome these 30 families and their children to the capitol.

31 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is authorized and directed 32 to make appropriate copies of this resolution available for distribution to the public and press.
