The provisions, if any, enacted for the supplementation by the counties of such circuit of the salary of the judges of the superior courts of the Tifton Judicial Circuit shall also be applicable to the additional judge provided for by this Act.

SECTION 6.

All writs and processes in the superior courts of the Tifton Judicial Circuit shall be returnable to the terms of such superior courts as they are now fixed and provided by law, or as they may hereafter be fixed or determined by law, and all terms of such courts shall be held in the same manner as though there were but one judge, it being the intent and purpose of this Act to provide three judges equal in jurisdiction and authority to attend and perform the functions, powers, and duties of the judges of such superior courts and to direct and conduct all hearings and trials in such courts.

SECTION 7.

Upon and after qualification of the additional judge of the superior courts of the Tifton Judicial Circuit, the three judges of such circuit may adopt, promulgate, amend, and enforce such rules of practice and procedure in consonance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Georgia as they deem suitable and proper for the effective transaction of the business of the court; and, in transacting the business of the court and in performing their duties and responsibilities, they shall share, divide, and allocate the work and duties to be performed by each. SECTION 8.

The drawing and impaneling of all jurors, whether grand, petit, or special, may be conducted by any of the judges of the superior courts of such circuit; and they, or any one such judge, shall have full power and authority to draw and impanel jurors for service in such courts so as to have jurors for the trial of cases before any such judges separately or before each of them at the same time.

SECTION 9.

The three judges of the superior courts of the Tifton Judicial Circuit shall be authorized and empowered to appoint an additional court reporter for such circuit, whose compensation shall be as now or hereafter provided by law.
